"Apartment residence hall" is the official designation given the coed housing unit now under construction which is designed to replace the women's co-operative house at Michigan State.

And the two-story U-shaped brick structure overlooking the Red Cedar River east of the Show parking lot will provide plenty of apartment-house atmosphere and home management opportunity to the 192 coeds who will move into this liberalized form of on-campus housing fall term.

Living six in an apartment, residents will be provided with all the facilities for independent living and in return will do their own cooking and housekeeping and will be called upon to take regular turns operating the telephone switchboard and maintaining the public portion of the unit.

Each apartment will be constructed from a similar design, with a livingroom-study area, kitchenette and dining space, bedroom and bath. Each of the building's two wings will contain 16 apartments, eight on each floor.

There will be approximately 600 square feet of floor area per apartment, compared to an average of 180 square feet in the present women's dorm rooms which house two or three coeds.

Separating the two wings will be an area housing the mail desk, housemother's and resident assistant's rooms, lounge, social room and laundries.

To Pacify Mid-East

Israeli Aid May Force Egyptians to Cooperate

WASHINGTON (AP) - The United States signaled a re-estimation of economic aid to Israel Thursday in a way seemingly calculated to pressure Egypt into closer cooperation with efforts to pacify the Middle East.

State Department Press Officer Lincoln White disclosed at a news conference that consultations on resuming aid to Israel would start shortly. He said he expected the aid would be resumed after these consultations got under way.

But the press officer went blank when asked whether Egypt and Jordan could expect similar treatment. U. S. aid to these two Arab states was suspended at the same time as aid to Israel, then the Oct. 29 fighting broke out.

Secretary of State Dulles laid down rules at his March 5 news conference for resuming aid to Egypt. He said a whole series of questions were involved, and listed them as including:

"The reopening of the (Suez) Canal, the conditions under which it is reopened, the future status of the canal, the treatment of American business people in the area."

Dulles said that, in general, the U. S. Aid Program, totaling 65 million dollars to the three countries for the current fiscal year starting last July 1, could be resumed when things were returned to their pre-Oct. 29 status.

"There will be nothing automatic about any of these matters," Dulles said, "and probably each country will be dealt with on a country-by-country basis."

That was what White today indicated was being done. He said Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban Wednesday asked acting Secretary Christian Herter to resume "more normal relations" in the economic field.

Students Asked To Fill Out Entire Registration Card
All students, especially June graduates, have been asked by the dean of students office to fill out completely the registration card with that office's name on it at spring enrollment.

Registration card No. 3 has organizations and activities listings on the reverse side which may be of considerable importance to graduates making job applications, a dean's office spokesman said.

When a request for grade transcripts comes from prospective employers, the applicant's college activities are included with the scholastic information, he added.

Employers are generally interested in students' extra-curricular activities during their school years, and these cards are the only source of information, he said.

Spring Sorority Rush Scheduled April 1-5
Registration for informal spring term sorority rush will be held April 1-5 in the Dean of Women's office in the Administration Building.

All girls planning to register must have an all-college two-point the preceding term. They must be carrying a minimum of 12 credits.

President Sukarno Says

Indonesian Republic Faces Life or Death

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) - President Sukarno said Thursday night the revolt spreading across Indonesia has brought the republic to the point of life or death.

The hero of Indonesia's 1945 revolution against the Dutch took to the radio to explain why he proclaimed martial law to deal with the crisis caused by rejection of Jakarta's authority in almost all of the Republic's 3,000 islands.

Sukarno called for re-establishment of the unity of the splintering nation saying "We cannot permit all these matters to take their own course."

The President declared a state of war and sleep after leftist Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo finally quit Thursday, three months after army officers began taking over the government of the outer islands. The rebels demand greater home rule, conceding that under the present strong central form of government the bulk of the foreign exchange earned by the outer islands to help Java.

Sukarno asked Sastroamidjojo's outgoing cabinet to stay in office in a caretaker capacity until a new government is formed.

The Presidential proclamation vested all power in the chiefs of staff of the army, navy and air force, and gave governing authority to the district military commanders who have already seized it in their four rebellions since Dec. 21.

It seemed he was unofficially granting recognition to the rebel commanders in Sumatra, East Indonesia and Borneo. But his order of the day made no specific mention of the rebel governments.

The President invited the district military commanders to Jakarta today for talks.

In his speech to the nation the President said the rebellions of the past three months cannot be permitted to continue "as this would mean the collapse of the fundamentals of our state, the disintegration of the unity of our state and the crippling of authority of the state."

"It is a matter of life and death for the state," he added.

Critics of the Jakarta government generally have tried to distinguish between Sastroamidjojo and Sukarno, who is a popular figurehead under the parliamentary form of government. But recently Sukarno's policies also have come under fire. He wants to substitute what he calls "guided democracy" for the Western-style parliamentary system as a way to meet the worsening political and economic crisis.

Under this plan all parties including the Communists would be brought into a new government and there would also be a national council headed by himself which would have veto power over both Cabinet and Parliament. Rebels and top commanders of the armed services oppose the plan.

Grand Jury Sifts Case For Senate

Accusers Confident; Key Witness Appears

WASHINGTON (AP) - The government moved swiftly Thursday with a grand jury investigation - in the case of Jimmy Hoffa, Teamsters Union bigshot accused of a plot to plant a spy in the midst of the Senate's racket probes.

The rocky, dapper Hoffa, wearing sunglasses, said he would fight until he was cleared.

But his sensational accusers seemed satisfied they had the goods on him and could send him to prison on charges of an $18,000 bribery scheme. They said the scheme was designed to obtain advance tips on what the Senate investigators were up to.

The maximum possible penalty on conviction of bribery is three years on each count and a fine of three times the amount of the bribe.

The grand jury began looking into the case Thursday, and District Attorney Oliver Garach said it would meet again today.

The jury met under unusually secret circumstances with doors to several connecting rooms locked.

However, it was learned that Lawyer John C. Chastity, key witness, appeared before the jury. He is the man who, the government says, skillfully acted a double role - ostensibly a spy for Hoffa but really working with the FBI.

District Attorney Garach was asked whether any witnesses were being subpoenaed from Detroit. Hoffa's headquarters city. He said he wouldn't be surprised if that were true.

It had been only little more than 12 hours since FBI agents, working with the special Senate Rackets Investigation Committee, had picked up Hoffa on the bribery charge.

Garach said the grand jury also is investigating bribery charges against Hyman I. Finkelbach, 47-year-old Miami lawyer arrested in the same case.

Garach said the grand jury probably will wind up its investigations of the Hoffa-Finkelbach charges late today.

He said that in the event there were some indictments they probably would not be made public until Monday.

In brief the government accusation against Hoffa runs like this:

He bribed a lawyer to wangle a job on the Senate committee staff, then leak secret information to Hoffa about the investigators' upcoming moves. The lawyer went to the committee and told it of the proposition. He was hired and, so the charge runs, passed papers to Hoffa under FBI guidance, and received money from Hoffa in return.

Hoffa, who was seized by the FBI late Wednesday night as he started to the elevator for his room in the DuPont Plaza Hotel, quickly posted $25,000 through a professional bondsman and hired a lawyer, Edward Bennett Williams.

The 44-year-old Hoffa, who has usually been quite ready to discuss his and the Teamsters affairs with reporters, declined to elaborate.

"I don't want to try my case or present my defense in the newspapers," he said.

A March 28 preliminary hearing was set for the accused, who is a vice president of the Teamsters Union but who usually is regarded as the power behind the throne of Teamsters President Dave Beck.

S'News Staff Meeting Scheduled for April 3

Law Seeks To Execute 15 Youths

Negroes' Murderers 'Equally Guilty'

CHICAGO (AP)—The state's attorney Thursday said he will seek the death penalty for 15 white teenagers in the hammer slaying of a negro boy.

This is a cold blooded murder, declared the prosecutor, Benjamin S. Adamowski. When they work in a gang, he said, they are all equally guilty.

A coroner's jury recommended that all 15 be held to the Cook county grand jury on murder charges.

The Negro victim, Alvin Patterson, 17, a high school pupil, was beaten Monday night while waiting for a bus at 59th St. and Kedzie Ave. Joseph Williams, 17, a railroad worker, was investigated as he struck Patterson.

Williams and the other members of a gang who called themselves the "Rebels," beat 14 white teenagers to death in the slaying, their statements to police officers said they set in two days to get a colored man.

Their plans were to take the colored person's jacket, belt and shoes. Williams told the coroner's jury. Williams was, as a matter of fact, the slayer.

Williams and six others stopped near 59th and Kedzie. He said the boys formed a semicircle around Patterson and another negro, Wilmore Johnson.

The lieutenant testified that Williams hit Patterson with a hammer and then struck Johnson.

Johnson testified that the first fellow came up to him, pulled the boy's head back and hit him on the head with a hammer. When I said what are you doing, he hit me on the arm with the hammer. I ran across the street.

Coroner Walter McCarty asked Johnson if he could identify the hammer wielder. The 17 boys stood up, and Johnson looked at them for almost a minute. Then he shook his head to signify he could not identify the assailant.

Williams, in a statement he declined to sign, was quoted as saying: "I just swung at the fellow closest to me. I just wanted to get the fellow. I didn't intend to hit anybody."

Williams declined to testify at the inquest.

College Slang Marches On

Twenty years ago, collegiate conversation was liberally sprinkled with "the cat's pajamas," "23 skidoo," and "oh you kid." But time marches on and so does college slang.

Stroll through the grill today and now you hear "not too neat," "that's the way the ball bounces," and "he's out of it." Or how about "nice guy," said with just the right amount of sarcasm? Then there's the old, and so appropriate "Man, I've gotta hit the books."

How many teens have you "aced," or "flunked" for that matter, and how many times have you been "crushed"? Several times a day something must "grind" you.

Keep your antenna out in the Berkeley concourse and listen. You'll find that there are an astonishing number at Michigan State who are falling for "Mickey Mouse" courses, and are "all clutched up." They maybe you'll pick up "gung-ho" or "How about that?" coming in loud and clear.

Though you may not fall into the category of those who use these expressions constantly, if you haven't at least heard them around campus, you must really be "out to lunch."

Cease-Fire Asked for By Cyprus

Resistance Fighters Try Second Plea

NICOSIA (AP) — Cyprus' resistance fighters made their second bid Thursday for a cease-fire.

Leaflets signed by "digenis" leader of Eoka which has been fighting for nearly two years to make this British colony part of Greece, proclaimed willingness to order a truce as soon as banished Archbishop Makarios is released.

The Greek Orthodox Church leader was exiled to the Seychelles Islands in the Indian Ocean just over a year ago by Gov. Sir John Harding on the ground that he was a dangerous rebel. Greek Cypriots waging their campaign for union with Greece have long insisted they would not enter into negotiations with the British until he is freed.

The leaflets scattered in Nicosia said:

"In order to facilitate the resumption of negotiations between the British government and the real representative of the Cyprus people, Archbishop Makarios (Eoka) declares that it is willing to order the cessation of operations as soon as Archbishop Makarios is freed."

It said the offer was being made in harmony with a recent UN Assembly resolution urging a peaceful and just settlement.

Last August Eoka made a similar attempt to gain peace by ordering a cease-fire. The British colonial government considered the offer was made out of weakness and demanded that Eoka surrender its arms. It continued its hunt for rebels, and the Eoka campaign of ambushes, bombings and shootings was soon resumed.

Thursday's offer was made a few hours after the execution of a Greek Cypriot, Esagoras Paktikarides, 18. He had pleaded guilty to having a breech gun.

He was the first to be hanged under the law making the death penalty mandatory for carrying arms.

Dr. Sherbo Given Study Fellowship

Dr. Arthur Sherbo, assistant professor of English, has been awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship for a year's study in the U.S. and London.

He will study the life and writings of Christopher Smart, English writer best known for his "Song to David" (1763) and more recently for the long and curious poem entitled "Jubilate Agno" whose manuscript was discovered only 20 years ago.

The fellowship is to begin in September, 1957. Professor Sherbo, author of a number of articles on Smart, intends to work in the large university libraries in the East and the New York Public Library — and will spend a portion of the time in working in London.

Yankees Edge Bengals, 3-2

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., AP—A line drive single to right center by Rookie Tony Kubek following Gil McDougald's 10th inning triple today gave the New York Yankees a 3-2 exhibition game victory over the Detroit Tigers.

McDougald, the first batter to face reliever Jack Crumit, walked in his three-bagger to deep center. Kubek then hit his drive between centerfielder Jim Small and right fielder Bob Kennedy.

Duke Maas pitched the first five innings for Detroit. He yielded five hits and two runs. Don Lee blanked New York on one safety in the next three frames.

The Yankees picked up their first run in the opening inning on successive singles by Bobby Richardson, Jerry Lumpe and Mickey Mantle. They scored in the fourth on singles by Yogi Berra and McDougald and Kubek's grounder.

The Tigers tied the score in the seventh on a walk, a single by Small and a two base throwing error by left fielder Marten.

Swimmers Eye NCAA Competition

After having copped the first undisputed Big 10 title last weekend the tankers eye the NCAA meet to be held March 28, 29 and 30 at Chapel Hill, N. C.

Coach Chuck McCaffree classified the meet as one which will have tremendous competition.

McCaffree pointed out the real competitors as being Yale, Indiana, Michigan, the Spartans, North Carolina, Harvard and Stanford.

The complex of the meet will be different because of the ineligibility of Ohio State, Southern California, Washington and North Carolina State.

The undefeated foursome of Don Nichols, Paul Reinke, Rog Harmon and Goray Fomel comprise the 400-yard medley relay which will be shooting at a national title.

Top individual Spartan entry is Big 10 100-yard breaststroke champion, Rickie.

Wally Dobler has to be considered a threat because of his impressive Big 10 finishes in the 100-yard, 200-yard butterfly and individual medley events.

Capt. Jim Clemens, Don Patterson, Fomel and Frank Parrish compose one of the nation's fastest 400-yard freestyle relay teams.

McCaffree has named 13 men to make the trip.

"We have ambition and hunger to finish in the top group. Double practice sessions will be scheduled in order to get in shape to go down and defend our prestige as Big 10 champs."

Edge LCA, 2-1 Bailey Icers Take IM Title

By BUCK JERZY

Bailey Hall took the IM hockey championship Thursday night by defeating a good Lambda Chi Alpha squad, 2-1, at the Ice Arena.

Both teams played exceptionally well, but it was Bailey's team strength and good teamwork that gave them the crown. They continually stopped Lambda Chi drives and made it an easy night for their goalie, Clark Butterfield.

At the other end of the rink, Lambda Chi goalie Phil McKinstry had a busy evening. He was superb in the net and made 17 good saves.

The first Bailey goal came at 3:35 of the opening period. Defenseman Dave Klink took a long shot from the blue line and it was deflected off the stick of Jim Wilson for the score.

Lambda Chi was held to only one shot on goal during the first stanza, but scored at 1:23 of the second period. Center Bob Johnson picked up a pass at mid-ice and maneuvered through the Bailey defense to score on a high 15-foot shot.

Bailey's winning goal came two minutes later with Jack Rothley getting the clincher.

Grapplers In NCAA Competition

Fendley Collins, coach of the Michigan State wrestling team said Thursday that State will probably enter six wrestlers in the NCAA championships which will be held in Pittsburgh the 22-23 of March.

Probable entries for State will be Don Stroud, a 123-pound, Jerry Hoke, who will wrestle in the 130-pound division, Norm Gill, who is now in the 137-pound division, Jim Ferguson a 167-pounder, LeRoy Fladseth, in the 177-pound class and heavyweight Ken Maidlow.

These six wrestlers are also engaged in the tightest competition for the Walter Jacob Wrestling Trophies in recent years.

The award set up by the first Spartan to win a NCAA championship is given to the individual high scorer of the team during the dual meet season, the Big 10 tournament and the NCAA championships.

Thinclads Enter Relays At Cleveland, Chicago

Seven Michigan State trackmen have been entered in the Chicago Daily News Relays Saturday while two will run in the Cleveland Knights of Columbus meet, March 22.

Head Coach Karl Schladenman has entered the mile relay team of Ted Tetzlaff, Ken Dufos, Bob Hughes and Dave Lean in the Chicago meet. Gordon Fosberg has been named as an alternate if Lean doesn't run the relay.

Lean is also slated for duty in the 600-yard run, and Capt. Selwyn Jones will run in the two miles and freshman Willie Atterberry, will go in either the 600 or 1,000-yard run.

At Cleveland, Lean has been entered in the 600 and Fordy Kennedy in either the mile or two mile.

Michigan State's mile relay team, which placed second in the Big 10, won its section at the Milwaukee Journal Games last Saturday and will be a tough combination to beat.

Jones, outdoor varsity record holder in the two miles, will probably face veteran Horace Ashenfelter in Chicago. The Canadian senior has run a 9:19.8 time earlier this season.

If Lean and Atterberry both run the 600 at Chicago the Spartans will have a fast combination. Lean has run 1:10.8 for the distance and Atterberry set a frosh record of 1:10.7 last week. The indoor record for the event is 1:09.5.

Atterberry also had fast time in the 1,000 with a 2:12.8 clocking set at Milwaukee.

Fencers Compete In Championships

Sabre star Darold McCalla, junior, was voted Tuesday night to captain next year's fencing team. He succeeds Norm Wingler.

The NCAA championships will be held in Detroit, March 22 and 23.

Representing Michigan State will be either George Thomas, Big 10 sabre champion, or McCalla in the sabre. Warner Johnson is entered in the epee and Ed Hildebrandt in the foil.

The Tigers, Western League winners for the second time in three years, finished with a 25-5 season's record while Michigan, which wound up as WHL runnerup with 16½ points to Colorado's 19, has a mark of 17-4-2.

The Wolverines used twin wins over North Dakota and Michigan Tech to qualify for their 10th consecutive post-season tournament.

North Dakota finished third in the league with 13 points.

Red Wings Edge Hawks, 3-2 NHL Standings

DETROIT, (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings moved within one victory of clinching the National Hockey League title Thursday, checking the Chicago Black Hawks' last period rally to claim a 3-2 triumph.

Defeat mathematically ended the Hawks last chance of finishing out of the cellar. This is the fourth straight season and the seventh time in the last eight years that Chicago has ended in last place.

Detroit now can claim first place for keeps by winning its next game, which will be here Sunday against second place Montreal.

The Wings took a 3-0 lead in the first two periods on goals by Johnny Bucyk, Gordie Howe and Lorne Ferguson.

The Hawks, who scored three times in the last 11 minutes while losing a 4-3 game to Detroit Tuesday, again rallied. Jack McIntyre scored just eight seconds after the final period started and Eddie Letzenberger cut the margin to a single goal at 16:07.

Bucyk's opener came on a swift swing at a loose puck after Pronovost's long shot had hit him on the back. Howe got his 42nd of the season with a sizzling 30-footer out of a face-off play for a 2-0 jump in the first seven minutes.
