Bomb Tests Under Fire In Britain

Plans Pushed Despite Opposition

LONDON (AP)—The British government Monday asserted its right to declare a danger area for H-bomb tests in the mid-Pacific, and said trespassers will be there at their own risk.

Minister of Supply Aubrey Jones, in a statement to the House of Commons, stood by plans to conduct the test. It was a certain-raiser to major debate Monday on the government's plan to streamline conventional defense forces and rely on guided missiles and atomic power as a deterrent to war.

The Labor Party has proposed a motion of censure against the government and is demanding postponement of the H-test until efforts can be made to gain agreement for calling them off.

Britain has declared the area around Christmas Island in the Pacific a danger area, and is preparing to explore her first H-bomb there this spring.

The Japan council against atomic and hydrogen bombs has been pushing plans to send a "peace fleet" to skirt the area, and has announced that 264 persons have volunteered to go on the protest mission. Originally it was planned to send a "suicide" flotilla into the danger area.

Britain has turned down five official Japanese protests against the holding of the tests. Jones, who has charge of the test arrangements, told Parliament "all reasonable precautions, including search by aircraft, would be taken to insure that no unauthorized vessel or aircraft was in the area when the tests took place."

He added that "those who enter the danger area clearly do so at their own risk." He said the declaration of danger areas "has never been regarded before as an infraction of the high seas."

Al Sandorf, Detroit sophomore, makes the traditional prayer as part of the "Seder," a Jewish feast commemorating the exodus of the Jews from Egypt. This "Seder" at the Zeta Beta Tau fraternity house was one of three held last night by Jewish Greek organizations. The others were Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity and Alpha Epsilon Phi sorority.

Fans Flock to Parks

Baseball Teams Start Major League Action

All 16 teams jump into action today as the major league baseball season swings into full force.

Baltimore and Washington played the traditional "pre-sidental" game in the nation's capital Monday, but today everyone gets into the act.

Nearly a quarter of a million fans should flock to see their favorites in action in the eight major league cities. Largest crowd of the day is the 36,000 expected to watch the Giants and Pirates square off at Pittsburgh's Forbes Field.

Tiger fans must wait until Thursday to see their heroes at home, as Jack Tighe's men are at Kansas City today. Frank Lary figures to be Detroit's opening choice with Tom Morgan slated to pitch for the Athletics.

Other American League action finds the world champion Yankees at home against all-around last Washington, first division favorites, Chicago, and Cleveland square off at Cleveland, and the Baltimore Orioles proudly sail home in first place to battle Ted Williams and the Boston Red Sox.

Aside from the Giant-Pirate game, other National League action pits Milwaukee's pennant hopefuls at Chicago, St. Louis at Cincinnati's powerful Redleg camp and Brooklyn at Philadelphia in an arc-light encounter.

Juniors Plan Festive Day

"Junior Day" will be held April 26, and will include a lemonade hour in the afternoon and a dance in the evening.

From 3:30-5:30 in the afternoon all juniors are invited to attend the lemonade hour at the band practice field. Music, group games, and refreshments will be included.

In the evening, juniors are invited to dance in the Union parlors from 8 to midnight. Kenny Davis and his band are scheduled to provide music for the affair, which will take place in a Hawaiian atmosphere.

According to dance chairman Howard Elman, Chicago junior and Nancy Proctor, South Lyon junior, the dance called "Kaiki Sands" will include entertainment by the Hawaiian Club.

During intermission, awards are planned for presentation to 25 outstanding juniors. The honored juniors will be selected from petitions collected last week.

Audio-Visual Center To Show 4 Films

The Audio-Visual center will show four films Wednesday, at 3:30 p.m. in the Music Auditorium. The films are "The Santa Claus Suit," "The Toy Maker," "Boy with a Knife" and "Deaver Valley."

House Bill Approves Postal Aid

Measure Rushed For Senate Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Monday approved an extra 41 million dollars for the Post Office Department in a move to get quick restoration of normal mail services.

The deficiency bill was passed on a voice vote and sent to the Senate, which may act on it today.

Postmaster General Summerfield has announced he won't start to restore the service cut-backs until President Eisenhower signs the legislation and Summerfield is certain he will have enough money to maintain normal operations through June 30, the end of the fiscal year.

The Senate Appropriations Committee arranged to meet at 11:30 this morning and report the bill to the Senate floor.

Acting Majority Leader Mansfield (D-Mont.) said the Senate may take up the measure this afternoon. This will require unanimous consent to suspend the rules, which require a money measure to wait three days before it can be debated on the floor. Mansfield said he doubted there would be any objection to speedy action.

Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, the House Democratic leader, said wherever the blame for the situation rested it was somewhere in the administration and not in the House Appropriations Committee.

He said Summerfield not only showed "a contemptuous attitude toward Congress" but toward the people of America as well when he let stand his order closing the post offices last Saturday.

Chairman Cannon (D-Mo.) of the Appropriations Committee accused the Postmaster General of taking a "public be damned" attitude.

Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, appealed for "fairness."

"Let's be fair," Martin said. "Let's give the Postmaster General the money he says is necessary to carry the mails."

Martin said the facts are that Summerfield knew last July there was going to be a deficit and told Congress so. A week ago, Martin said, the Postmaster General "implored" Congress for the money.

Celebrate Freedom Plight

Traditional Jewish Holiday Feasts Held

By MEL REITER
State News Editor-in-Chief

Passover, the outstanding home festival in Jewish life, began last night at sundown. It is the Feast of Freedom, commemorating Israel's deliverance from Egyptian bondage. It will last for eight days.

For one week, matzah (unleavened bread) and various pancakes and puddings made of unleavened ingredients replace all bread products on the menu.

Highlight of the Passover celebration is the Seder service—a family banquet held on the first and second evenings of Passover (Reform Jews have one seder).

The seder is an elaborate ritual. The table is decorated with fruits and flowers, the best china and candlesticks, and other marks of festivity. A wine cup beside each place setting is used for the four signs of wine—symbol of joy.

Essentially the ceremony consists of telling the story of the Exodus, using various symbols for illustration and dramatization.

The story is read from a book known as the Haggadah, which explains the familiar tale of Egyptian slavery, Pharaoh's obstinate refusal to let the Israelites go, Moses' courageous leadership and the miracle of redemption.

Custom dictates that guests be invited to the family table. In addition to friends, many Lansing families have opened their doors to the Jewish students at Michigan State.

The feast of Passover has become the symbol of one of mankind's most cherished ideals—freedom from enslavement. To the Jew, it is an annual reminder that the work of freedom is never ended. "In each generation, the Jew must regard himself as though he personally had been delivered from the hands of the Egyptians," declares the Haggadah.

Unable to attend their family seders because of the distance and time elements, Zeta Beta Tau, Alpha Epsilon Pi and Alpha Epsilon Phi conducted Seders at their respective houses Monday night.

Strategy Conference Held

Teamster's Executive Board Studies AFL-CIO Summons

GALVESTON (AP)—Dave Beck headed the vanguard of the Teamsters' 13-member executive board arriving Monday for a secret strategy conference today which may determine the group's future relationship with the AFL-CIO.

Beck, accompanied by Ralph Dixon, a Texas official, arrived by private car.

Beck admitted photographers to his suite for pictures but said that he planned no news conferences and would not have any statements until Tuesday.

The session, to start tomorrow morning is to decide whether the union will answer a summons by the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee for a May 6 hearing to defend itself against charges of corruption.

The meeting is also expected to provide an indication as to whether Beck, target of a Senate investigation, can remain the kingpin in the 1,300,000 member union.

Around the conference table will be several teamsters' officials whom observers say are more powerful than Beck. Some are possible successors to Beck if the 62-year-old president can't maintain his leadership. Beck has said he'll run for re-election.

Others on the board, beside Beck and Hickey, are John S. English of Washington, secretary.

Nominations Set For Men's Union

Men's Union will meet this evening at 8:30 in 31 Union to hear nominating speeches for next year's officers.

Officers open for nomination are president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and member at large to the executive board. Three constitutional changes will be proposed, according to Marne Gleason, president.

The executive board will meet at 7:30 in the Mural Room.

State News Brings Back Ex-Staffers

Instructed by three returning lettermen, the State News is going into action with eight new appointments Monday, according to Denise Scanlon, managing editor.

Dorn Shelton, Detroit senior; Jerry Jennings, Quincy senior; and Joe Hoffman, Miami Beach, Fla. senior, who were called out of semi-retirement, will man the night desk.

Nelda Trout, East Lansing sophomore, was appointed City Editor. She was formerly a night editor.

Ray Pierce, Swartz Creek senior, was appointed to one of the edit page positions. He was also a night editor.

Jan Klosser, Detroit senior, who worked as a wife editor, will take on the duties of assistant night editor.

Dwanna Black, Grand Rapids sophomore, and Carolyn Schwegel, Traverse City freshman, are newly appointed wire editors.

Pro-West Backer Appointed

Khalidi Forms New Government

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Young King Hussein, backed by tough Bedouin fighters of the Arab legion, won a victory Monday in his struggle to give Jordan a moderate government purged of Communists and extremists.

Dr. Hussein Fawzi Khalidi, 57-year-old Palestinian refugee who has spent years in the United States, was named prime minister in a seven-man cabinet.

His appointment ended a six-day crisis set off by Hussein's ouster of Prime Minister Suleiman Nabulsi, a moderate leftist who headed the powerful National Socialist Party. Nabulsi is included in the new cabinet as a compromise to the party, which controls 11 seats in the Jordanian parliament. But the ouster of Nabulsi and the appointment of Khalidi made the crisis with greater stature than ever.

The 21-year-old king was ruling through virtual martial law. His troops had won the total support of the Bedouin warriors who make up the bulk of the Jordanian-trained Arab legion.

They announced strategic gains back atop the seven hills upon which Amman is built, and set up posts in the business district. They stamp in strength on Amman's outskirts.

When they entered the city Monday they backed their legs with their swords and Arab flags that they meant business and were prepared to kill.

These troops have already put down one attempt at an uprising by "subversive" elements in the army. This occurred Saturday night at the army base at Zarqa, 20 miles north of Amman. There was a brief but bloody skirmish. (Reports received in Damascus said three officers were killed and 19 persons wounded.)

Hussein rushed to Zarqa and made a dramatic appearance before the troops. Officers and men threw their handskerchiefs to the ground in the old Arab sign of loyalty and obedience to their commander.

Although the crisis appeared to be at an end, the government still imposed censorship on all news dispatches.

The assignments for the cabinet ministers was not announced.

The cabinet includes three former premiers. They are Nabulsi, Saad Muftic and Fawzi Muftic. Muftic tried to put together a cabinet but failed. Muftic is presently Jordan's ambassador in Cairo. The other members are Jusufan Suwakir, former leader of Jordan Senate; Dr. Amin Madajid, a former Jerusalem mayor; and Majid Al-Qubani, a judge who emerged from semi-retirement to enter the cabinet.

New Programs Offer a Variety On WKAR-TV

New programs offering about everything from tips on living to speeches of great Americans and explanations of science, are being presented spring quarter on WKAR-TV.

James Stokely, associate professor of psychology, is featured on "Science Factbook," televised at 7:30 p.m. each Tuesday.

Author of the recently published "New World of the Atom," Stokely explains various science topics, such as comets, earthquakes and tidal waves.

Dave Anderson, speech instructor at 8:30 p.m. for the 10-week class series.

Bringing to life speeches of great Americans is Dr. Donald Eby, assistant professor of speech, featured on "The Angry Men" series. Assisting him with the readings are members of the speech department.

Petitioning Starts For Court Seats

Petitioning opens today for two seats on the Student Trial and Appeal Court which will be heard late this term. Any full time male undergraduate student with a 2.0 scholastic average is eligible to petition.

Petitions will be available in the Student Government office Tuesday.

They must be returned to that office by 5 p.m. Monday, April 22. All petitioners will be interviewed by the nominating committee and those selected will have to be approved by Student Congress.

IAWS to Review Convention Held Spring Vacation

The Intercollegiate Associated Women Students Convention Review will be held tonight at 8 in the Union Ballroom.

It is sponsored by Spartan Women's League to give students a chance to learn what was done at the convention, which was held here during spring vacation.

Vice President Thomas H. Hamilton will repeat the talk he gave during the convention on "Don't Shoot Professor Smithers."

Peg Foster, general chairman of the convention will give a short review of the convention activities.

Members of Tower Guard, Mortar Board, IAWS, house-mothers and presidents of all living units, the girls of Gilchrist and Yakeley whose rooms were used by the delegates, and faculty and staff members who worked on the convention have been invited. The public is also invited.

Spartan Hits Stands Today

The Spartan magazine goes on sale today at Berkeley, Union, Nat St, Soror Course Cafeteria, Oids Hall and Physics Math.

The special "Woman's Issue" features spring fashion notes, a guide for finding the perfect mate and an "expose" on Snyder late-minute penalties.

This month's Sparty Pix is Nancy Ash, Dearborn sophomore. The 19-year-old brunette, whose favorite pastimes are listening to music and dancing, graces two pages of the Spartan.

Gymnast Ernestine Russell is also featured in a picture section showing coeds that four hours of exercise a day don't necessarily do any harm to the figure.

A casting director writes his "confessions" for all to see. Another article discusses "The Rise and Fall of Not Much At All."

Poor Economy Seen In USIA Budget Cut

Each year Congress passes through some highly important and vital bills. Some of these bills are aimed at increasing the American economy. Some are aimed at increasing the American standard of living. Some are aimed at increasing the American power. Some are aimed at increasing the American prestige. Some are aimed at increasing the American influence. Some are aimed at increasing the American respect. Some are aimed at increasing the American honor. Some are aimed at increasing the American glory. Some are aimed at increasing the American greatness. Some are aimed at increasing the American grandeur. Some are aimed at increasing the American splendor. Some are aimed at increasing the American magnificence. Some are aimed at increasing the American majesty. Some are aimed at increasing the American sublimity. Some are aimed at increasing the American serenity. Some are aimed at increasing the American solemnity. Some are aimed at increasing the American stately. Some are aimed at increasing the American stateliness. Some are aimed at increasing the American stateliness. Some are aimed at increasing the American stately.

Fights for Life Jordan's Hussein Still Faces Danger

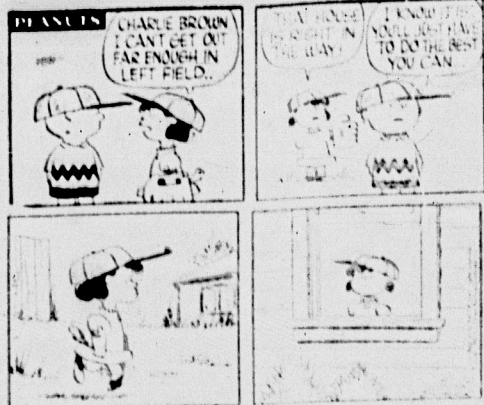

The USIA is the official U.S. propaganda agency in Europe and Asia. Its job is to spread the truth about American democracy to the peoples in these countries. As a propaganda agency, the success or failure of the operations of USIA, is as difficult to measure as is public opinion. The goals of the agency, by their very nature, must be reached on a long run basis. Its ultimate achievement would be to convince the whole world that the United States is really a pretty good country and the friend of all freedom loving people. However this is a Utopian dream and no one really expects it to come true. Just how successful the USIA is in its work of spreading the truth is anybody's guess. Who can estimate the number of Europeans or Arabs or Asians who through American libraries, booklets or radio broadcasts have been influenced and to what extent, by American ideals.

Hasty Act?

The suspension of seven students, following a demonstration March 16, shows a lack of discretion on the part of the administration. The students suspended were part of a crowd of 100-150 who demonstrated to demand withdrawal of U.S. military aid to the South Vietnamese government. The seven students were suspended for 30 days for their participation in the demonstration. The suspension is a hasty act and does not reflect the nature of the students or the act itself. The students were not violent and their actions were a peaceful expression of their opinion. The suspension is a severe punishment for a minor offense and does not do justice to the students or the act.

The Seahawks Have Flown

At last it seems we've hurried Down the "ringing groves of change" To a cyclotron stadium That puts peace just out of range. Our ancient friend, Great Britain, With her common English phrase, Has proclaimed her great decision To increase her atom pace. Her taxes (overbearing) Have ben opt Her draft will end. The defense of her "home islands" Will depend on what we'll lend. The money saved on foot troops Will be spent on things at home. Our planes, and not her soldiers Will defend the British loam. Well, we hid behind their navy For a hundred years or so. And we let them tackle Europe Before our troops would go. Of course, we lent them money (Some of which we did get back) But we missed the V-2 rockets And the German bomb attack. So they think they'll cut their army By a quarter-million men. And withdraw a few commitments (Guess you'll fulfill them then?) Paraphrasing British statesmen, This may open up a chapter When the "coming war" is finished Before instead of after. If they couldn't topple Nasser, Perhaps reduction's right. But I wonder where Korea'd be If there'd not been troops to fight?

Letters to the Editor Student From Indonesia Raps Roberts' Article

In spite of this up till now, the "Big Five" in the business are still Dutch corporations. As a result of the colonial governmental and educational system, we now have to face many difficulties and in a material sense we are now no worse off than we were under the Dutch rule. But we do cherish independence. And I am sure that everyone who loves freedom will not give it up, for only achieving material satisfactions. If this article is considered as coming from a person with racial bias and bitterness against the white race, I can refer Mr. Roberts, for more objective information about our country, to Mr. James McMahon, a graduate of MSU who has been working as a training officer in Indonesia for two years, and who is now on leave in the States.

2 Swedes Called Spies

Sub Plan Conspiracy Charged

Russian Espionage Battle Continues

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—A legal expert of the Swedish Atomic Energy Commission and a former Navy draftsman were formally charged Monday with espionage for "a foreign power" — meaning Soviet Russia.

The indictment accused the APC expert, Robert F. Damstedt, 29, and draftsman Gosta T. Jakobsson, 35, of conspiring to ship out blueprints of Swedish submarines. It made no mention of any transmission of atomic secrets.

"They are people with somewhat extravagant drinking habits who talked a little bit too much about things they intended to do, but may not have done it," a foreign office spokesman said. "These men have confessed to the police that they intended to sell these blueprints to the Russians."

The Swedish law on espionage is so broad that mere substantiation of prosecutor Werner Ryhninger's contention that Jakobsson took the blueprints to his home would be conclusive.

Damstedt and Jakobsson were arrested April 1, opening another round in a stormy exchange of spy charges and countercharges between Russia and Sweden since World War II.

Three other Swedes were indicted with them for failing to report the blueprint case to Swedish authorities.

The Soviet Union, no match for the big Western powers in surface warships, is concentrating on expansion of its submarine fleet, already by far the world's largest.

A team of NATO experts headed by U.S. Vice Adm. James M. Thob Jr. reported only last fall that Soviet shipyard workers were completing three new submarines every two weeks.

These swell a fleet which Jane's Fighting Ships authoritative British reference work on world navies, said numbered not less than 400 at the start of 1956. Some of the older craft are war booty from Germany and Italy. The Soviet units run in size from 161-ton coastal submarines to long-range craft of more than 1,200 tons.

Among the most modern of Sweden's 27 subs are six schnorkel-equipped, fast-diving 800-tonners turned out last year.

Sweden protested to Moscow last month against Soviet espionage in this traditionally neutral country. The protest was coupled with rejection of a Soviet complaint that 14 spies for Sweden had been found — and sentenced — in Russia.

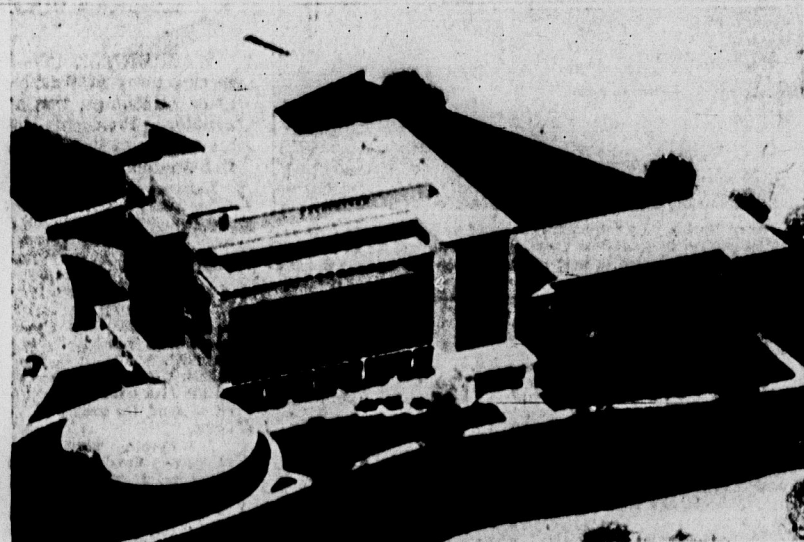

Chest X-Ray Unit Here Wednesday

A mobile chest X-ray unit will be located behind the married housing office Wednesday and Thursday to conduct free chest examinations, according to Mrs. Beverly Rule, Spartan wives president.

Hours in which the unit will be open to the public are 1:30-4:30 in the afternoon, 6:30-8:30 in the evening.

Those experiencing baby-sitting problems can have them handled at the Spartan Village Hall located at Harrison Road and Willow Street.

The public service is sponsored by the Spartan wives.

A model shows how the four million dollar College of Education building will appear when completed in 1958. An unusual feature will be a circular auditorium classroom (shown in left foreground) for use by large groups and experimental instruction. The building also will include facilities for closed-circuit television.

To Spur Buying Interest

Senate Passes Bond Hike

WASHINGTON (AP)—After only 10 minutes debate, the Senate Monday passed by voice vote a bill to increase the interest ceiling on government savings bonds from three to three and one-quarter per cent.

The measure, aimed at spurring lagging sales of the bonds, now goes back to the House which passed it earlier with a three and one-half per cent ceiling.

President Eisenhower originally asked Congress to hike the limit to four and one-quarter per cent on the Series E and H bonds, to permit the same return as other government obligations.

The Senate acted after a brief explanation of the bill by Sen. Byrd (D-Va.), chairman of the finance committee which cut the figure to three and one-quarter per cent.

Byrd said some increase in interest rates appears necessary because redemptions of the bonds have been exceeding sales for several months.

He said he sponsored the measure with "a certain amount of regret" because of the burdensome effect of high interest rates on many sectors of the economy.

However, he pointed out that the only interest rate increase on E bonds since 1941 has been one-tenth of one per cent. Meanwhile, Byrd said, other forms of savings have become considerably more attractive.

The Treasury had said it plans to apply the 3 and one-quarter per cent rate on all Series E and H bonds sold after Feb. 1, 1957.

Under the treasury's plans the

Afghanistan Policemen In Course

Six police officers from Afghanistan are among the 33 registrants for the 21st Basic Police Training Course being held now through May 3.

The Afghanistan policemen, members of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, and the other officers from 17 Michigan cities are receiving instruction in the basic elements of the police profession.

"The training and equipment of an officer should be the same regardless of the city in which he works," points out Harold Haun, of the School of Police Administration and Public Safety.

"This does not mean any attempt should be made to standardize police administration, but rather that the public has a right to expect that every police officer knows thoroughly his duties and responsibilities," he maintains.

During the past five years, 598 officers from more than 80 Michigan cities have been enrolled in previous courses.

Once again, the School of Police Administration and Public Safety and the Michigan Police Academy are cooperating with the Michigan State Police, Michigan Department of Public Instruction and other state and national agencies.

Montreal Needs Reviving Shot

MONTRÉAL, Que.—The Montreal Canadiens... We're disappointed, naturally... not winning Sunday night.

Blake felt that not only was the Montreal power play weak... three of four of our big scorers couldn't even get a decent shot on goal.

Maybe it figures out big goal maybe it figures out that both teams got away with stuff. Anyway, there's no use squawking about the refereeing.

Kobsmen Continue to Improve

Even though the team has a lot of new members, we hope to keep improving and be a factor in this year's Big 20 race.

Palamara is still looking for an extra outfielder who can combine good hitting and fielding talent.

Several pitchers were used in the intra-squad action. Southpaw Bill Mills, who did not go south, hurled three innings, and worked mainly to improve his control.

Orioles Edge Senators, 7-6

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles kept hammering away at Washington pitchers Monday and finally after 11 innings, won a 7-6 opening day victory over the Senators.

Eisenhower sat through all three hours and 17 minutes of the game. He cheered the Senators in vain after getting the contest started by throwing out the traditional first ball.

At the finish it was a 29-year-old Baltimore rookie, Carl Power, who knuckled in the winning run with a sacrifice fly to center field.

Bill Mansfield, a senior who won his letter in his sophomore year, and Bob Rabias, exhibiting a real good fastball, also were given a workout.

Triandos also drove in the Orioles' two fifth inning runs with a single and added a two-bagger after Power had ushered Williams home in the 11th.

Starting Lineup Has 4 New Faces

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Frank (The Bulldog) Lary, the American League's winningest pitcher and one of its fiercest competitors, leads the Detroit Tigers into their season's opener at Municipal Stadium today against the last-place finishers of a year ago—the Kansas City Athletics.

Winner of 21 games in his sophomore season, Lary will seek revenge for the 2-1 defeat he suffered at Briggs Stadium in the 1956 opener against these Athletics. That defeat got Lary off to a terrible start, and at the halfway point of the campaign he had a 4-10 mark.

The 26-year-old right-hander added a season knuckleball to his already attractive assortment of pitches and won 17 of his last 20 decisions to become the club's first 20-game winner since Hal Newhouser in 1948.

About 31,000 fans are expected for the contest, first in a two-game series. The Tigers return to Detroit after Wednesday's game and will open their home season Thursday against the Cleveland Indians. Upwards of 50,000 fans are expected to see the first game in Briggs Stadium.

Last season Manager Bucky Harris opened with this line-up: Harvey Kuenn, shortstop; Earl Thompson, first base; Al Kaline, right field; Ray Boone, third base; Bill Tuttle, center field; Chuck King, left field; Frank House, catcher; Reno Bertoia, second base; and Lary, pitcher.

Tiehe has switched Kuenn from the leadoff to the third position in the batting order. Thompson is a reserve first baseman and may be traded before long. Kaline now bats in the cleanup position with Boone batting sixth and playing first base instead of third. Tuttle will bat seventh instead of fifth. King was traded during the winter. House will share the catching duties with Wilson. Bertoia is a third baseman who of the moment is trailing Jim Fineman in the battle for the regular job.

This is the lineup Tiehe is expected to field today, together with 1956 performances:

Frank Bolling, 2B	281
Jim Fineman, 3B	216
Harvey Kuenn, SS	332
Al Kaline, RF	314

Tyra Is Top Choice

Basketball Draft Picks Poorest in Many Years

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The National Basketball Assn. will have what generally is considered one of the poorest crops of college players in years from which to draw on at its annual draft here Wednesday.

Rochester, entitled to first draft because of the poorest NBA season record percentage-wise, is expected to go for Charles Tyra, a 6-8 Louisville University center.

The Detroit Pistons, formerly at Ft. Wayne, Ind., have traded their second draft spot to the New York Knickerbockers in a recent deal involving the rights to five players.

Rod Hundley, a 6-4 West Virginia University frontliner, is expected to be the Knickerbockers' first choice although they might name Len Rosenbluth, North Carolina University forward who probably is the most publicized of the draft-eligible college seniors.

Rosenbluth formerly lived in New York and was the big spark in the North Carolina's drive to the NCAA basketball championship.

Rosenbluth also has been mentioned as a possible first draft of the Minneapolis Lakers. The availability of Rosenbluth to the Lakers will depend on New York's decision, however, since Minneapolis is third in line.

New York will have both the number two spot, originally Detroit's, and their own fifth place draft on the first go-around.

Bill Ebben, a 6-4 Detroit University frontliner, also is a first round draft possibility for Minneapolis.

George BonSalle, a 6-8 Illinois University center who became ineligible for college basketball in midseason, might end up as New York's draft. He also has been mentioned as a possible first draft for Syracuse but the fact BonSalle has shown some interest in playing AAU basketball for a Denver trucking firm may cool the NBA offer on him.

Boston's Celtics, the NBA champions, have been playing their first draft talk eagerly. They say they may come up with a surprise choice which could mean a "sleeper" from some small college.

The Hawks of St. Louis, who battled the Celtics right down to the finish in a seven-game playoff for the NBA championship, will be fourth in the line of draft.

The Hawks have been eyeing Jim Krebs, a 6-9 St. Louisian playing with Southern Methodist, and Win Wilfong, a Puyallup, Mo., boy who played with Memphis State. Wilfong was chosen most valuable player of the National Invitational Tournament in which his team finished second.

Philadelphia's first draft choice appeared to be the most uncertain of all but Wilfong's name has been one of those mentioned.

The draft will be held in connection with the NBA Board of Governors' annual three-day meeting. It opens tomorrow and that's when the player choices are expected to crystallize.

In the New York-Detroit trade, the Knickerbockers sent veterans Harry Gallatin, Nat Clifton and the rights to Dick Atha to the Pistons for Mel Hutchins and Detroit's first choice Wednesday.

Varsity Club to Meet

The Varsity Club will hold its regular meeting Wednesday, April 17, in room 31 of the Union Building, at 7:15.

Major Leagues Swing Into Action

Baltimore and Washington, neither a serious challenger for the American League Pennant, had the stage all to themselves as the 1957 Major League baseball season got under way today with the traditional solo opener in the nation's capital.

Following this sneak preview, the majors will roll into high gear today with all teams, active on the National League starts its 82nd season and the American its 37th.

As is customary, a new year brings new players, new managers and new rules but one thing hasn't changed. The New York Yankees remain a prohibitive favorite as they set out for their third straight pennant and eighth in nine years under Manager Casey Stengel. In fact, most experts are predicting the Bronx Bombers will have an easier time than last year when they spread-eagled the field by nine games. The odds-makers have made them 2-5 favorites, shortest on record.

Selecting the Yankees' World Series opponent, however, is another matter. All observers expect another tight race in the National League with Milwaukee a slight favorite over Brooklyn and Cincinnati. This trio fought it right down to the wire last year with the Dodgers ending out the Braves by one game and the Redlegs by two.

The experts don't give the other teams much of a chance unless the Yankees should run into an endless run of injuries or a "dark horse" team like the St. Louis Cardinals should get hot and receive the maximum out of its players.

By a strange coincidence, the three clubs expected to provide the sternest opposition to the Yankees, will be under the leadership of new managers. Kertis Farrell, after a 10-year apprenticeship in the minor leagues, has replaced Al Lopez in Cleveland. Lopez, who never finished lower than second in six years with the Indians, has moved over to Chicago. Jack Tighe, a hustling fiery-type, has succeeded mild-mannered Bucky Harris at Detroit, moving up from his job as Tiger Coach.

The other new manager is Bob Scheffing, who has inherited Stan Hack's last place problems with the Chicago Cubs. Old familiar faces like Bob Feller and Al Rosen are gone to be replaced by eager newcomers like Tony Kubek of the Yankees, Roger Maris of the Indians, Jim Landis of the White Sox, Brooks Robinson and Carl Poxis of the Orioles, Haywood Sullivan of the Red Sox, Bobby Gene Smith of the Cardinals, Andre Rodgers of the Giants, Bob Bowman and John Kennedy of the Phillies, Casey Wise of the Cubs and some dozen others.

Seven of the 16 pitchers who had opening day assignments last year were slated to be back on the mound today and tomorrow. The group is headed by Bob Roberts, who will be handling his eighth straight inaugural job when the Phillies open at home against the Dodgers. Roberts will be opposed by 27-game winner Don Newcombe, whom he defeated 8-6 last year in the 1956 opener.

The same pitching rivals who faced each other last year also are due in the Yankees-Pirates game at Pittsburgh. Johnny Antonelli (26-13), who will be opposed by Bob Friend (17-17), Pittsburgh's brilliant right-hander, who dropped a 4-3 decision to the Giants, ace southpaw last year.

Milwaukee will send veteran southpaw Warren Spahn (20-11) against Bob Rush (13-10) in Chicago. Last year Lew Burdette defeated Rush, 6-0.

In contrast to last year when a pair of southpaws were the rival starters, the Cardinals-Reds game in Cincinnati will feature two right-handers. Herman Wehner (12-11) will start for St. Louis. He will be opposed by Johnny Klippstein (12-11). The Cards won 4-2 last year as Vinegar Bend Mizell outpitched Joe Nuxhall.

In the American League, the opening day roster will be Billy Pierce (20-9) of Chicago and Frank Lary (21-13) of Detroit. Manager Farrell selected Herb Score (20-9) over Bob Lemon to oppose Pierce as Manager Lopez leads his White Sox against his former Indian hero in Cleveland.

Goodman, Parnell, Jensen To Miss Red Sox's Opener

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Red Sox, beset by misfortune for the fourth straight year, were minus Jackie Jensen, Billy Goodman and Mel Parnell Monday night on the eve of their opening season game with Baltimore.

Jensen, Boston's No. 1 power batter from the right side of the plate, remained at home to undergo a series of tests for an ailing back at Lathrop Clinic.

Goodman's father died Sunday and the handyman has left the club for Concord, N.C. He will be gone for the rest of the week.

Parnell, the only veteran southpaw pitcher on the question-mark Red Sox mound staff, has been put on the disabled list because his arm has refused to respond to treatments fast enough.

Jensen does not recall taking the back but began to complain of a stiffness when the Sox headed north last week. He has been taking heat treatments.

Foreign Aid Cut Advised

Chamber of Commerce Wants Long Range Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—An $800 million dollar cut in President Eisenhower's foreign aid program was advocated Monday by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

A chamber spokesman recommended to a special Senate committee that foreign aid appropriations be held to $3,400,000,000 for the fiscal year starting July 1 and that the whole program be placed on a "longer range" basis.

Eisenhower has asked for $4,200,000,000 to continue the foreign aid program through fiscal 1958. Many members of Congress are proposing cuts a good deal deeper than the $800 million suggested by the Chamber of Commerce.

James Tanham, retired vice president of the Texas Co., outlined the chamber's position to the Senate group. He said the military assistance program could be cut by $13 million dollars and the economic aid section by $60 million.

An additional $60 million could be saved, he said, by looking for "economies" in the program.

Monday's testimony, the special committee concluded the public hearings. The administration's foreign aid bill still has to go before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

The national chamber urged that the Congress authorize the foreign aid program on a longer range basis, Tanham testified.

"Within limits stipulated by Congress, greater flexibility in authority to make long range commitments of funds should be accorded the President."

Secretary of State Dulles has been asking for such authority for the last two years.

Another witness Monday, Mrs. Charlotte Peterson of the American Association of University Women, also recommended a longer range program.

She urged two vital appropriations, giving administration an annual appropriation on the actual and program, they are expected annual printing of proposals and had to hand positioning of Congress.

Eastland Not Eager

Senate Committee Drops Civil Rights Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee put off action on the civil rights issue again Monday, but Chairman Eastland (D-Miss.) said it probably would begin considering the legislation April 29.

Eastland would not predict when the committee might take action, but Sen. Neely (D-W. Va.) offered an estimate that it would.

Neely, who supports the proposed legislation, said that if action depends on what the committee does "You are going to get judgement on judgement day."

Two motions were reported to have been made at Monday's session, with neither of them coming to a vote. Sen. Hennings (D-Mo.) offered a motion to take a vote on May 6 and Sen. Ervin (D-N.C.) offered one to postpone consideration.

The chairman also said it was doubtful that the committee will order any new hearings. Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) had suggested recalling two witnesses who testified for the bill in hearings before a subcommittee headed by Hennings. McClellan said there had been allegations they had under oath.

The principal legislation being considered is a bill offered by the Eisenhower administration and aimed primarily at the protection of Negroes' civil rights in the South.

Norse Back NATO; Resist Red Threat

OSLO, Norway (AP)—Norway replied calmly and firmly Monday night to Soviet nuclear threats by declaring she intends to stay put in NATO. She said great powers such as the Soviet Union can do most about relieving world tension.

Premier Einar Gerhardsen published a 2,100 word reply to the letter of Soviet Premier Niko- la Bulganin received March 21. That letter threatened atomic destruction for Norway in case of war if she permits NATO to locate guided missiles and atomic bases on her territory. Gerhardsen's reply was delivered in Moscow Saturday.

Authoritative Norwegian sources have said the Soviet threat against this northern flank of NATO is backed up by 1,500 planes, 530 naval craft and six to eight army divisions close to Norway's Arctic frontier.

In his reply, Gerhardsen did not touch on the question of equipping Norwegian forces with guided missiles and atomic weapons by NATO. He told Bulganin, Norway was carrying out her proclaimed intention of not permitting foreign forces to be stationed on her soil in peacetime.

"You say, however, that in the present situation this is not sufficient because, as you assert, Norway might, as a consequence of her membership in NATO, be forced to have for-

What's doing... at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft

Cutaway model of P & W A J-57 engine. This twin-spool, axial-flow gas turbine powers the country's newest fighters and bombers and is slated for Douglas DC-8 and Boeing 707 jet airliners. Engine was the first to be rated at more than 10,000 pounds thrust

A LOOK at the record

From its founding in 1925, Pratt & Whitney Aircraft has been essentially an engineering company. Its primary objective has been the design and development of new aircraft engines of superior performance and dependability. The guiding policy has always been, simply, that technical excellence must be the paramount objective, attained through constant effort to improve upon the best.

As early as 1928 Pratt & Whitney Aircraft's Wasp engines powered Navy seaplanes which brought back world records in altitude, range and speed from competitions in Switzerland, Germany and France. The following year, Wasp-powered Army Air Corps airplanes were flying combat formations at 30,000 feet.

All through the 1930s the power, range and fuel economy of the Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Wasp and Hornet engines were developed, and the engines seasoned with experience. Wiley Post, the Lindberghs, Martin and Osa Johnson, Amelia Earhart, Admiral Byrd and Roscoe Turner were among the host of famous pilots who made aviation history with Wasp power.

During World War II, 50 percent of the aircraft powerplants for the American air arms were engineered by Pratt & Whitney Aircraft. Three of the five key fighter airplanes, a host of medium and heavy bombers, and 98 percent of all the military transports used Pratt & Whitney Aircraft engines.

The postwar development of the J-57 gained the company a position of engineering leadership in the jet field. It powered the first jet aircraft to fly faster than sound in level flight, and is now used in six supersonic fighters, three bombers and the first two American commercial jet transports.

World's foremost designer and builder of aircraft engines

Broadly diversified engineering careers at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft offer truly fine opportunity for young men equipped to deal with challenging assignments. You will find many answers to important questions about careers at P & W in our informative booklet, Jet Engineering. For a copy, write to Mr. F. W. Powers, Engineering Department.
