We Seeks Only Initial Moves

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States indicated today it was 'aiming' in its peace efforts to seek an initial meeting with Warsaw on disarmament in the hope of reaching an agreement on the banning of nuclear weapons in short order.

The White House spokesman said the United States would seek an initial meeting with Warsaw to discuss the United States' proposal for a ban on nuclear weapons, which it hopes to begin negotiating when its treaty with the United States is signed.

IT'S GREAT TO LIVE IN MICHIGAN

MICHIGAN WEEK
MAY 19th. through 25th.

In recent times more and more people both in and out of Michigan have become aware of Michigan's leadership, not only industrially, agriculturally, and economically, but educationally, culturally, and politically. This progress and development has been recorded by a variety of people in different areas in the form of books on Michigan. The source material which inspired these people has come from every aspect of life and history in the state and is directed toward young and old alike.

We are proud of our state and happy to be able to present such a diversified choice of literature pertaining to Michigan.
Not only in our regular stock of hardbacked and paper bound books, but in "Your Room For Old Books" you'll find many interesting items on or about our state.

Hoosiers Fleetest

By Paul Flaherty

Indiana's Hoosiers should add some spice to their season at the Hoosier Track meet this weekend at the Indiana University field. The Hoosiers, who currently lead the Big Ten in track, will face some tough competition from the likes of Michigan State and Ohio State who are also leading the conference. Indiana is coming off a strong showing at the Penn Relays where they placed second overall. Michigan State is also expected to perform well, having recently won the Big Ten meet. Ohio State, on the other hand, is a strong contender with a solid track program. The meet will feature a variety of events including the 100, 200, 400, 800, 1500, and 5000 meters, the 4x100, 4x400, and 4x800 relays, and the long and short jump. The Hoosiers will need to excel in multiple events to secure a win.

Eminous Wins IM Track Title

In the IM track competition, Eminous emerged as the clear winner with a time of 1:55.4. He outperformed his opponents with a strong showing in the 800-meter event, securing his victory in the IM title. Eminous' performance was a testament to his hard work and dedication throughout the season. The IM track results are expected to have a significant impact on the team's overall standings in the conference.
