3 Other Companies Draw Fire

Gives Information On Welfare Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—AFL-CIO President George Meany Tuesday cited to Congress four firms, including the General Electric Co., which he said provide examples of "corruption and malfeasance" in employer handling of worker welfare funds.

Meany gave the testimony to Senate labor subcommittee in asking that proposed legislation dealing with disclosure of information on welfare funds, be applied to management-operated as well as union-run or jointly administered employee benefit plans.

He said about 92 percent of employees covered for health-welfare benefits and 86 percent of employees covered for pensions are under plans run wholly by employers.

These facts alone, he said, are a good argument for including all plans under policing legislation if employee benefits are to be fully protected. Some employer groups have been seeking exemption.

"It's not necessary," Meany said, "to rely upon an abstract assumption that corruption and malfeasance can conceivably occur in the operation of employer-administered plans. We know, from our own experience that they have occurred."

Meany said General Electric has refused to submit its $5-million-dollar annual health insurance contract for employees to competitive bidding, but awarded it to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. He said two of its directors, including the board chairman, also are directors of Metropolitan.

The AFL-CIO chief also said a GE pension trust agreement for employees has been sharply criticized by a commission of the Massachusetts legislative because it revealed trustees in advance of responsibility.

Meany said GE's welfare fund practices are like those of the National Assn. of Manufacturers, which he criticized in labor unions. He said GE's welfare fund handling "violates" the AFL-CIO's own ethical practices code in many respects.

In New York, GE said in a statement that Meany apparently had been "misled" by James Carey, president of the international union of electrical workers, with which the electrical firm has a contract.

The statement read: "Mr. Meany has made himself ridiculous in his unwarranted charges as a result, presumably, of his being misled by his union associate, Mr. Carey."

Zanghi Receives Post For Water Carnival

Peter A. Zanghi, Buffalo, N.Y. junior, was selected as the public relations chairman for the 1958 Water Carnival by the officers of the '58 senior class.

Zanghi was recently selected as a member of Excalibur, senior men's honorary. He has served as social chairman for Veterans' Association and is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity.

On Oct. 27, Mrs. Ralph H. Van Deman made a four-minute flight at College Park, Md. She was the first woman to fly as a passenger in an airplane. Wilbur Wright was her pilot.

As Mary Lee's closed its doors to business this week, students began to wonder where it would be "smart to be seen" next fall.

Proposes Compromise

Knowland's Statement Causes Domestic Stir

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican Senate Leader Knowland said Tuesday a proposal of his to trade Hungarian freedom for Norwegian neutrality in the cold war has been misinterpreted.

The California lawmaker told reporters he made the suggestion to Secretary of State Dulles and told about it on a television program last Sunday, only with the understanding that Norway would agree to such an arrangement.

Knowland's proposal already has been brushed off by Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard M. Lange as too "careless and superficial" to merit comment.

In addition, Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore) voiced hope in the Senate Tuesday that Knowland withdraw the proposal "lest it do incalculable damage to our prestige abroad."

Then Secretary of State Dulles told a news conference he did not think it proper to suggest, as Knowland appeared to do, Norway's withdrawal from the North Atlantic Treaty Organization if the Soviet Union withdrew its troops from Hungary.

Knowland proposed on CBS' "Face the Nation" program, on which he replied to the program's interview a week earlier with Soviet Communist Leader Nikita S. Khrushchev, that the East and West "make a test of Hungary."

He said that if Russia withdrew its forces from Hungary, the United States would agree that Russia's near neighbor, Norway, become a member of the Baltic bloc of neutral nations.

Knowland made public Tuesday a June 8 letter he wrote Dulles.

Referring to Khrushchev's proposal that the Russians would pull out of East Germany, Poland, Hungary and Romania if the United States gave up its bases in Europe, Knowland said in his letter:

"With the consent of our associates in the North Atlantic Alliance including, of course, Norway, I would hope that we would confront Khrushchev and the Soviet Union with the challenge to live up to their prior commitments and obligations by giving the people of Hungary the opportunity for a government of their choice in secret free elections under United Nations supervision."

Jordan Broadens Severance From Egyptian-Syrian Axis

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Jordan broke away further Monday from the Egyptian-Syrian axis and claimed a large part of the Arab-Moslem world is going along.

The government said it has proof of assassination plots by Egypt and implied the main targets might have been King Saud of Saudi Arabia and Jordan's King Hussein.

King Saud meanwhile continued his regal visit here with the young Jordan monarch and apparently approves the defiant rejection of Egypt's presumed Arab overlordship.

has asked Syria to remove its military attaché in Amman and it demanded Monday that Egypt withdraw its army emissary and break the liaison of military alliance.

In a follow-up of its expulsions Monday, Jordan said it decided that similar action is being taken by Libya, Tunisia, Iraq, Lebanon and Saudi Arabia.

"All these governments have requested the Egyptian government to withdraw her military attaches when it became evident these attaches were preparing plots of violence, sabotage, destruction, terrorism and assassination," an official statement said.

Tigers Sign Mendyk To Second Pro Sport

Dennis "the Menace" Mendyk, former MSU left fielder and halfback, has signed a contract with the Detroit Tigers to play baseball. This will make two sports for which Mendyk has agreed to play professionally.

Mendyk is also the third draft choice for the New York Giants football club. Last fall Mendyk played left half back for the Spartans on the gridiron.

He alternated at third base and left field under John Kobs on State's baseball team this spring.

Ed Katalinas, the Tigers' chief scout, said Mendyk would be trained as an outfielder in the Tigers system.

Katalinas also explained that the Tigers are waiving a rule forbidding their players to play other professional sports, because of Mendyk's potential.

Tracksters Enter AAU Competition

With the Michigan State track season already concluded Head Coach Karl Schladerman plans to enter two thinleads in the NCAA meet at Austin, Tex., and another at the AAU meet at Dayton, Ohio.

Dave Lean, Big 10 indoor 440-yard and Big 10 outdoor 800-yard title holder, will be scheduled to run in the 880-yard event.

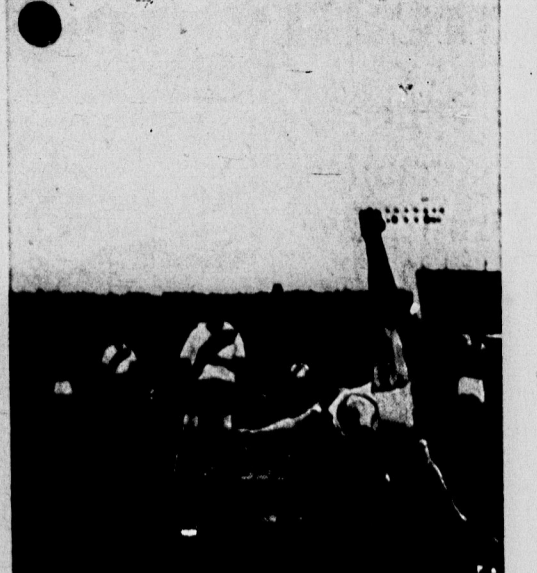

Capt. Selwyn Jones, last year's 10,000 meter run champ, is to defend his title against some of the nation's top distance runners.

In previous NCAA competition the Spartans have copied eight individual crowns dating back to 1927.

Last year's 3,000 meter steeplechase winner, Henry Kennedy, who was sidelined early in the season because of illness, will be ready to run during the cross country season.

Entered in the AAU meet is William Aitberry, fabulous fresh runner, who had established early in the year a world record for the 600-yard dash, will see action in the 300 and 600-yard events.

Also making the trip to the Austin meet will be Schladerman, who is to be speaker at the national track clinic this Thursday, along with assistant coach Fran Dittrich, who will function as secretary-treasurer of the NCAA Track Coaches Association.

Colombia's Raphael Pardo makes a spectacular backward-over-head kick to reverse ball direction in a championship soccer game with Peru at Bogotá. Peru won.

Plays in 822 Tilts

Stan the Man Ties Mark For Consecutive Games

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Stan Musial, the durable all-time great of the St. Louis Cardinals, played in his 822nd consecutive ball game Tuesday night tying the National League iron man record set by Gus Suhr 10 years ago.

When the Domoica, Pa., native forced Alvin Dark at second base in his first turn at bat in the first inning of Tuesday night's game with the Philadelphia Phillies, he equaled the Suhr, former Pittsburgh first baseman from Sept. 11, 1931 to June 4, 1947.

Barring a hitch, the 36-year-old Musial will break Suhr's record tonight.

Musial began his string on opening day, 1952, and since has played in every Cardinals' game either as an outfielder or a first baseman. Assorted injuries, the amiable, easy-going star from the lineup.

The iron man record doesn't particularly impress Musial, who already holds the league record for most extra base hits and is among the all-time leaders in almost every department of hitting in the game.

"I'm far more interested in getting my 3,000th hit," said Stan prior to Tuesday night's game. "That's my chief target in the record books now."

He started Tuesday night's game with 2,850 safeties which gives him 17th place on the all-time list.

He should reach his hit and run record next season.

Musial now ranks second only to the late Lou Gehrig in the number of complete seasons played.

He has nine, while Gehrig, who holds the Major League record for consecutive games played in of 2,130, from June 1, 1925 through April 30, 1939, took part in all of his club's games for 13 consecutive years.

A total of 13 players have been able to play through 500 through the years, including Gehrig, Everett Scott (1,907), Joe Sewell (1,103), Eddie Ved (829), Suhr and Richie Ashburn (730). Ashburn ranks behind Musial and Suhr as the most durable National League players.

After forcing Dark in the first inning, Musial scored the first run of Tuesday night's game.

Maxwell's Homer Lone Run

Hoelt Takes Loss, Fails to Pitch Nine

DETROIT (AP)—Tall Connie Johnson gave up a first inning home run to Charlie Maxwell and pitched shut-out ball the rest of the way Tuesday night as the Baltimore Orioles whipped Detroit 4-1 and dropped the Tigers back into fourth place.

The Tigers, who had won three or four in a weekend against the New York Yankees, collected three hits off the right-hander in the first inning but got only five more in the last eight.

Winning his fifth game against the same number of losses, Johnson struck out two and didn't walk a batter.

The Orioles scored three times in the seventh inning off Bill Hoelt, who failed to go the route for the eighth time in nine starts.

Home run-craze Jim Peburn struck his first homer of the season and drove in two of the seventh inning runs. Bob Nieman and Gus Teindos singled ahead of Peburn's clout into the upper left field stands.

The Orioles scored off reliever Lou Sleater in the ninth when Nieman walked and Al Plazek, running for him, stole second and came home on Bob Hoelt's third single of the night.

MSU Rowers Take Second In Regatta

Michigan State's rowing team took second place in the Detroit Boat Club Invitational Regatta Sunday on the Detroit River.

The rowers finished 1 1/2 lengths behind the DBC's own crew in the closing meet of the new crew club's first season.

The Spartan team, consisting of Milan Savich, Jim Tyler, Ron Weston, Al Beaulieu and coxswain Pete Juliano understruck the other teams with 22 strokes per minute compared to the DBC's 28. The course was a mile in length.

Juliano, the most important single man on the team according to Savich, was cox for the Buffalo, N.Y., Rowing Club for two years and his team came in third in the National Schoolboy Regatta while he was with it.

The team hopes to have equipment by next fall to begin the '61 season.

Titles Go to Snakes, West Shaw, Bower

By DAVE KULZMANN

The 1956-1957 Intramural sports program draws to a close tonight with West Shaw, Sigma Nu and Bower topping their respective leagues for the year.

West Shaw piled up a total of 126 points to 84 for Butterfield, its nearest competitor. Bailey, Emmons, Armstrong, East Shaw, Rather and Bryan followed in that order.

West Shaw picked up its points by finishing first in the turkey trot, table tennis and tennis competition, with second place finishes in track, football, bowling and the free throw contest.

Butterfield's points came from a first place finish in football competition, second place in basketball, softball and tennis, and a third place finish in the swimming meet.

In the independent league, Bower wound up with 477 points to 450 for the Vikes who finished in second place. Evans Scholars, Vets, I. Asher and Howland finished out the top six.

Bower picked up its points with first place finishes in softball and free throw competition, second in football, turkey trot and basketball, and a third place finish in bowling.

Sigma Nu, with 707 1/2 points, was followed by ATO with 677 1/2 points in fraternities competition. DTD, SAI, Sigma Chi and Lambda Chi Alpha rounded out the top six in fraternities competition, finishing in that order.

Sigma Nu picked up first place points in football, basketball, tennis, and free throw competition. Second place finishes in the turkey trot and softball and third place points in track and golf also added to their total score.

Interview on WKAR

Sports Editor to Speak

Air Force Major John Barron will interview George Albertson, State Journal Sports Editor, Sunday at 2 o'clock on his radio show over WKAR radio.

Barron and Albertson will discuss the possibilities of the Dodgers and Giants moving to the West Coast. The discussion will take the form of an informal interview with Barron asking the questions and Albertson providing the answers.

Besides discussing the Giants and Dodgers, the two men will talk on the effect of the reserve clause on baseball and the role tennis players play in the game.

During his many years as a sports reporter for the State Journal, Albertson has become a well-known personality in MSU sports. He was official scorer for State's home baseball games last spring.

House Votes on Civil Rights

Major Test On Bill Delayed

Various Opinions Stated on Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—Supporters and opponents of President Eisenhower's civil rights legislation held their major test on Tuesday as the House voted on amendments to the bill, but the major test was put off at least until Thursday.

The House defeated 122-85 a measure to amend the bill to require the president to report to Congress on the progress of the bill. The amendment was proposed by Rep. James P. Cannon, D-Mich., and was supported by 122 House members.

The original bill would have given the president authority to suspend the law if he believed it was necessary to maintain national security.

Opponents said the original bill would have allowed a veto to be called more than 2,000 miles from El Paso, Texas, to Miami, Fla.

A statement by Rep. Andrew C. Mason, D-Mich., said he would support the amendment if it would allow the president to suspend the law in cases where the president believed it was necessary to maintain national security.

Opponents say such a measure is out of line with other federal statutes and would spike civil rights enforcement in the south.

The House gave through the bill without reaching the amendment. It will not again consider civil rights before Thursday.

Rep. Skiles (D-Mich.) presided at the meeting and said the end of its career is that to help both the proponents and the opponents to get re-elected.

Wingarden Honored At Dinner Tonight

Dr. Herman J. Wingarden, dean of MSU's College of Business and Public Service, is to be honored at a testimonial dinner tonight at 6:30 at Kellogg Center.

Dear Wingarden is to begin a sabbatical leave at 6:30 on July 1. After a tour of Europe he will return to the campus next fall as Dean Emeritus of the university.

To show how large Michigan is, it is as far from Ironwood to Detroit as it is from Detroit to New York.

Extension Classes Set

MSU Continuing Education officials have arranged for most of the fall term extension courses, to permit early planning by both Michigan adults and university faculty members.

Michigan teachers, engineers, business, home economists, journalists and others can start selecting their fall term off-campus studies now, reported Dr. H. R. Neville, acting director of the Continuing Education program.

Not all arrangements have been completed, but details are set for 102 of the off-campus fall courses. Last fall MSU presented 181 courses, and this September totals are expected to top 200.

According to officials, all courses are offered to meet local needs. Courses are proposed at Adrian, Alma, Alpena, Bad Axe, Battle Creek, Bay City, Belknap, Benton Harbor, Berkley, Birmingham, Chelsea, Clarkston, Crystal and Danville.

Classes will also be presented at Escanaba, Flint, Fremont, Galesburg, Grand Rapids, Grosse Pointe, Hastings, Hemlock, Holland, Howell, Howard City, Iron River and Ithaca.

Other towns include Jackson, Leland, Manistee, Marquette, Mason, Midland, Muskegon, Niles, Okemos, Oak Park, Oshtemo, Pontiac, Quincy, Saginaw, Traverse City, Van Dyke and Warren.

Joseph Kusmin was recently named as the new director of Michigan state economic planning commission. He'll run the Kremlin's drastic new program of decentralizing Soviet industry.

Michigan's Griffin Suggests Action on State Tax Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Griffin (R-Mich.) Tuesday called for an immediate state legislative action on Michigan taxes and their effect on unemployment.

Griffin said the investigation should either substantiate or discredit the charge that state and local tax policies are discouraging industrial expansion in Michigan.

He made the request in a letter to the presiding officers of the Michigan legislature, Democratic Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart and Republican House Speaker George M. Van Pelt.

For more than a month, Republicans have accused the Democratic administration of Gov. G. Mennen Williams of adding to the unemployment problem by proposing high taxes on business.

To Start July 1 Summerfield Outlines Series of Postal Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postmaster General Summerfield Tuesday outlined for Congress a series of cuts in postal service which he plans to put into effect July 1, if his department isn't given more money.

The list of service curtailments which Summerfield presented to a House appropriations subcommittee wasn't made public. But the list, submitted at a closed meeting, was reported to include:

- Elimination of Saturday mail deliveries, closing of first and second class post offices on Saturdays, ending sale of money orders in first and second class post offices, closing of some 2,000 small fourth class post offices, a ban on starting any new services during the year, and restriction of star rural route deliveries.

Summerfield is asking Congress to give his department an extra 140 million dollars for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Rep. Gary (D-Vt.) subcommittee chairman, told reporters at the end of the day-long hearing that Summerfield had presented a detailed explanation of why he needed the extra money.

"I think we'll have to give him some of it," Gary said.

Gary said the subcommittee will start deciding on the funds Thursday or Friday. After that, Gary said, it would be up to the full appropriations committee to proceed with the matter.

Summerfield made his first appearance before the House group last Friday.
