Jazz Quintet Slated to Play At Pep Rally

The Don Thompson Jazz Quintet will spark tonight's pep rally at the bandshell, according to Stan Star, Spartan Spirit director.

Dean of Students Tom King will speak at the rally, which begins at 7:30. Coach Hugh (Duffy) Daugherty and the team are scheduled for platform appearances. The cheerleaders will be there to lead the shouting.

Another feature of the rally will be the announcement of the winner in the junior class "Name the Band" contest. The person correctly identifying the band and intermission entertainers for this year's J-Hop will receive a mystery prize.

The only advance clue to the nature of the prize is that it will have a close connection with the personalities involved in the contest.

Spartan Spirit has scheduled a free dance after the rally. The dance, in the Aud from 9-12, will feature the music of Kenny Dunn.

In case of rain, the rally will be held in the Aud.

Major John Barson, the program's regular host, will have as his guests Dr. Arthur Smith and Dr. Bernard Duffey, both of the English Department.

Railway Exec Gives Views To Institute

Warns Against Four Day Week

An Eastern railway executive warned management of the tremendous economic effects of a shorter work week at an MSU conference Wednesday.

James W. Oram, vice president for personnel, of the Pennsylvania Railroad told more than 130 personnel and labor relations executives that, "overtime and overtime costs would rise sharply if labor's four-day work week becomes a reality."

"If the forty hour week is reduced to thirty-five," he commented, "this cutback of 12 per cent in hours would amount to about a 14 per cent boost in wages." That's substantial in anybody's book," he added.

Shorter hours would not be balanced by increased productivity and shift systems would have to be revised, Oram stated. Plus that, he surmised that labor shortages which are already acute in skilled fields would become worse.

"These considerations, alone, emphasize the tremendous problems a company would encounter in the operation of its business," he said. Sweeping changes in methods and production techniques would have to be made to increase productivity and compensate for a cutback in hours."

The MSU Labor and Industrial Relations Center and the American Society of Personnel Administration joined to present the eighth annual Personnel Institute at Kellogg Center.

13 Men Students Ousted by Judiciary

Indefinite Suspensions For Spring Drinking Party

By DALE FRANZ
State News Night Editor

Thirteen male students were suspended indefinitely Wednesday for violation of university regulations and public laws, the dean of students office revealed Thursday afternoon.

The students, involved in an illegal party spring term, were tried last week by the Student Judiciary, which recommended suspension in final action Oct. 10.

The Faculty Committee on Student Conduct then gave final approval of the recommendation, carried out Wednesday.

Student Judiciary also recommended "no cause for action" regarding four other students, according to Dean Tom King, because of insufficient evidence connecting them with the case.

These four student were cleared.

King explained that Student Judiciary tries all cases in which a student has violated university regulations, public laws, or both.

The university, King said, then gives final approval to the court's recommendation before action is taken.

If a student desires to appeal his case after being tried by the Student Judiciary, he must submit a written report, King said, explaining why he feels an appeal is justified.

The Faculty Committee then decides on the basis of the written report whether or not to hear the appeal.

King also stated that all students have the opportunity to appear before the Student Judiciary, even in "automatic suspension" cases involving alcoholic beverages.

King explained that students found violating the university regulation regarding possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages are given the choice of a Student Judiciary court hearing or a direct decision by the dean of students office.

Flu Cancels Trip By Purdue Band

An outbreak of flu has forced the Purdue University marching band to cancel plans for performing Saturday during the Michigan State-Purdue football game at Spartan Stadium.

Professor Leonard Falcone, director of bands at MSU, announced he had received word from a Purdue spokesman that too many members were sick with the flu to allow the band to perform a representative show.

'U. S. Plot' Alleged By Reds

Khrushchev Details Soviet Party Charges

LONDON (AP) — Aneurin Bevan disclosed Thursday night that Nikita Khrushchev had outlined to him an alleged four-stage plot by the United States for the Turkish occupation of Syria.

The left wing Laborite's account appeared to be the first detailed indication of what lies behind the Soviet Communist Party chief's repeated charges that Turkey, under American prodding, is about to attack leftist Syria.

Khrushchev, who received Bevan, the Labor Party's foreign affairs spokesman, at Yalta on Sept. 17, gave this version of what he called "American intentions" towards Syria:

1. Turkey and Israel, at first, will "be kept in the background because any moves by them would unite the Arab states."

2. But certain "gentlemen from Syria are in Istanbul" and are maneuvering under Turkish governmental protection to take over power in Syria. These favor the United States, Khrushchev added.

3. After they topple Syria's present rulers "something will happen—and if it doesn't happen it will be made to happen—of which the Soviet Union or elements favorable to the Soviet Union will be accused."

4. On the ground that Syrian independence is in peril, Turkish troops now concentrated along the Syrian frontier, will be "invited" to enter the country for its protection against "Communist domination," Khrushchev said.

British informants believe the Russians are trying to build up a fake crisis to enable them to pose as the defenders of the Arab world and to claim credit chev did not define what that "something" might be.

Numerous Activities Available

Union Board Centers Interests for All

By JUDI DIXON

Michigan State's Union Board recognizes the importance of the student's activities outside the classroom. This cultural, social, recreational, and service center is for all students, faculty, administration, and guests of the University.

Out of the sincere attitude of the Union Board come services to the campus community. A look at this 135-member board and its accomplishments shows organization, co-operation, and signs of initiative plus.

The Union Board office is the hub of activities originating in the Union. Committees intertwine to provide such opportunities as bridge and dance instruction for students.

The tournament committee plans programs for those who want to increase bowling, billiards and bridge skills.

Student services, another committee, is the home of UB's ride bureau. This free and newly revised system is open to both riders and drivers.

A new idea, the UB talent file, is a complete listing from an all-university audition. This will be a central clearing house for all-university projects.

The Browsing Room just off the main concourse is an annex of the Library which co-operates with the UB fine arts committee. The supply of light reading is for everyone's use.

Next week, a man posted at Union entrances will tabulate the number of people going in and out. Changes will then be made in connection with the building survey to correct congested traffic.

The fine arts committee is co-operating with the art, speech and music departments and Orchesis, the modern dance honorary, to present a free demonstration of the arts plus a complete understanding of each one. This presentation, the Creative Arts Festival, is scheduled this term.

Socially speaking, UB is on the ball. Dances are scheduled every Saturday night in the ballroom. A big dance Saturday night is the "Continental Club," featuring a night club atmosphere and the "U-Bettes," the UB chorus line.

Theater trips to Detroit for such productions as "My Fair Lady" and "The Diary of Anne Frank" are sponsored by UB's special events committee. These events include bus fare and theater admission at special rates.

"It's the Union" and other publicity or informative materials are publications of the Union Board.

"Union Board Week" is the time of the year when students review every action UB has promoted. Heading the 14-member board of directors are Dwight Ebeling, Almont senior, president; Larry Wills, Saginaw senior, vice president; and Marilyn Douma, Petoskey senior, secretary.

MSU's Union Board is a member of the proposed Big 10 Union Association whose purpose is to encourage the exchange of ideas, operations and programming for the improvement of each school. This self-supporting organization is here for you!

Middle East Main Topic

Ike, Macmillan Plan Washington Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Macmillian announced Thursday that they will meet in Washington next week for a conference. This, in turn, may lead to other top level allied talks.

There appeared to be no doubt that the Middle East crisis, which has recently brought blunt war warnings from both Moscow and Washington, will be the prime subject for discussion and possible policy decisions by the British and American government leaders.

The bare announcement gave no hint of the reason for the conference which caught most State Department officials and the Washington diplomatic corps by surprise.

Macmillan will fly here Tuesday. The White house said the meetings between Eisenhower and him will take place Wednesday through Friday. Secretary of State Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd will participate.

The announcement was made about three hours after Eisenhower welcomed Queen Elizabeth to Washington and escorted her to the White House for a visit which will continue through Sunday.

The White House said announcement of plans for the Eisenhower-Macmillan conference was held up until after arrival of the Queen in the city, because her formal approval was needed.

The Queen gave that approval shortly before sitting down to lunch at the White House with the President and Mrs. Eisenhower.

Hagerty was asked whether the fact that the Queen's approval was not sought until Thursday indicated that the forthcoming Eisenhower - Macmillan meeting has an emergency nature.

The press secretary replied it indicates only that the Queen has been "moving rather fast" the last few days since her arrival in North America, and that arrangements for next week's conference were completed only Thursday.

Coeds Requested To Sign for Rush

All coeds interested in participating in sorority rush must sign up with a Pan-Hellenic representative next week.

Rush sign-up will be held from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. in the Union Concourse, second floor, beginning Monday and continuing throughout the week. Friday will be the deadline for those who wish to sign-up.

Pan-Hellenic Council is stressing the importance of signing up for rush. According to Nancy Schiller, representing Pan-Hel's rush publicity committee, every coed planning to go through rush must sign up at this time.

Senior of the Week Petitioning Extended

Petitioning for outstanding seniors to be honored as Senior of the Week has been extended to Oct. 23 at 5 p.m.

Petitions may be picked up at the Union desk and are to be returned to the box specially placed there for them.

Edit Board Meeting Scheduled for Sunday

An important editorial board meeting is scheduled for 6:30 Sunday night in the State News office, according to Mel Reiter, editor-in-chief.

Editors and assistants are urged to attend. All other staffers are invited.

Faubus Rebukes Decision

Lawyer Instigating Court Impeachment

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) —A federal lawsuit seeking to stop United States troops from enforcing integration at Central High School was thrown out Thursday by U. S. District Judge Ronald N. Davies.

The Fargo, N.D., judge's action brought a rebuke from Gov. Orval Faubus who last month called Davies "prejudiced and biased" in the integration dispute.

The attorney who filed the suit released a blistering condemnation of the action and said the judge's "impeachment" should "be the first order of business of the next congress."

Faubus said the judge's action in dismissing the suit was "in keeping with his (Davies') former methods, but is more far-reaching than anything he has done in the past."

The suit asked for appointment of a special three-judge court and a ruling for Mrs. Margaret Jackson and her two teen-aged daughters that federal troops were being used here unconstitutionally in enforcing court-ordered integration at Little Rock Central high school.

Attorney Kenneth Coffelt issued this statement:

"Judge Davies' action in dismissing the Jackson case without notice to anyone and without a hearing and while the chief judge of the Court of Appeals was in the process of naming a three-judge court to hear and decide the case . . . is ample grounds for his impeachment, and this should be the first order of business of the next Congress."

JUDGE R. N. DAVIES
. . . kills law suit . . .

Davies came here in August to temporarily fill a vacancy, and before returning to Fargo on Oct. 1 he ruled on several phases of the integration situation. He ordered the Little Rock School Board to go ahead immediately with a previously-approved plan for gradual racial integration. And he issued an injunction against Faubus from

Rocket Passes Sputnik

Circles Nearer To Earth

Briton Predicts 'Catastrophic' End

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia's space rocket was reported by observers Thursday to be whirling along the skyways some 23 minutes ahead of the satellite it propelled into an orbit 13 days ago.

Those moonwatchers at the Harvard Observatory spotted the satellite at 5:17 a.m. (EST) at a point in the sky where the third-stage rocket had passed at 4:54 a.m.—some 23 minutes earlier.

Scientists have said this indicates the rocket itself is moving closer and nearer the Earth in ever smaller circles, that its speed increases as its orbit contracts.

British astronomer A. C. B. Lovell said in Manchester, England, he is convinced "something catastrophic" will happen to the rocket very soon—possibly in a day or two.

But Dr. Fred L. Whipple, head of the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory at Cambridge, Mass., said the rocket will stay up for at least two months.

A Russian scientist who cooperated in launching the Soviet moon said in Paris it would stay in the heavens "a very long time." The scientist, Prof. Leonid Sedov, also said he does not believe the satellite is equipped to photograph the Earth.

Scientists at Cambridge said that in a few days the rocket might be seen in the evening as it moves northward on the other leg of its orbit.

Dr. Whipple, observatory director, said Florida residents should be able to sight it in the southeast any evening now. In all evening sightings, he said, it will appear first in the southeast traveling north.

In about 10 days it may show up both morning and evening in New England.

Further information on Russian plans for future rockets came from Christian Clausen, science editor for the Los Angeles Examiner.

He said the Russians plan an attempt to hit the moon on Nov.

Clausen said the information came from a European scientist who talked with rocket experts who had escaped from a missile base in East Germany.

The Russians, Clausen wrote, will aim three rockets at the moon from a Caspian Sea base and if at least one hits that target they will announce their success. If they miss, he wrote, they will try three more and then three more. If these miss they will do further calculating.

MSU Experts To Air Sputnik

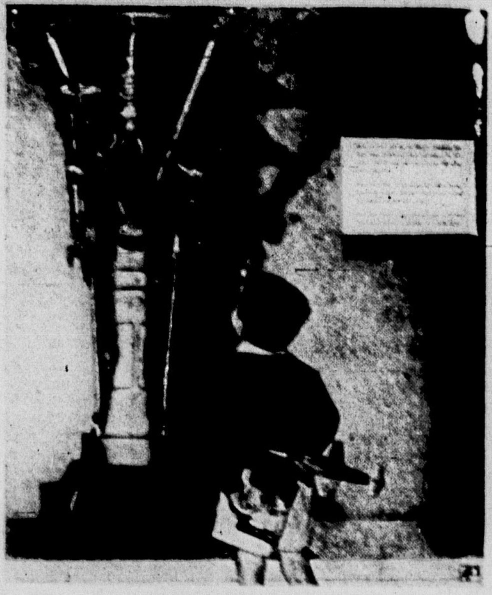
Sputnik, the Russian earth satellite, will be discussed by MSU authorities in a program to be heard at 3 p.m. Sunday over MSU stations WKAR and WKAR-FM.

A panel of experts is to describe psychological and political implications of the satellite — particularly its effects on the American people and its scientific value.

The broadcast is a recorded report of the "Panel Forum on the Implications of the Russian Satellite" that met Tuesday night at Kellogg Center.



John Kirby, five, looks at a rocket engine model displayed in Washington. The device will provide a 27,000 pound thrust for the first stage of the three stage satellite expected to be launched by U. S. in Project Vanguard.

Says Record 'Mournful'

Gov. Williams Blasts Eisenhower Program

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan said Thursday night "the chilling beep of Sputnik" raises "the ominous question whether America is to become a second rate world power."

Williams and Gov. Raymond Gary of Oklahoma were the main speakers at a banquet of Midwest Democratic conference for party officials of 13 states. Like other speakers at the rally, they said the Russian satellite and the Little Rock integration crisis demonstrated failure by the Eisenhower administration to provide leadership in domestic and foreign affairs.

"The record of the Eisenhower administration is mournful litany of failure," Williams said in his prepared text, "dramatized now before the world by the epoch making Russian achievement in outer space.

"In domestic affairs, the record of these 57 months is dismal; in foreign affairs it is disheartening, and possibly disastrous."

In foreign affairs, Williams said, "where the record borders on disaster, we face the ominous question whether the clock will run out on American security before Nov., 1960.

"The news from the Mideast is that victory is going rapidly to the Communists — by default."

Williams said the President didn't even murmur when the Republican party killed his Federal Aid to Education program. He said the Russian Satellite points up the need for scientific skills, and added:

"The youth discriminated against in education today for any reason — social or economic — might have been the scientists who saves Western civilization."

Traffic Plan Outlined for Ball Games

Students residing in married housing districts will have trouble getting through to their homes before the football game. The student traffic flow will go into effect at 12:00 noon, before every football game, and immediately following every football game.

The areas that will be blocked off to all traffic will be the following:

Kalamazoo road, between Harrison and Marigold Avenue, Cherry Lane from Birch to Chestnut Road, East Circle Drive, from Haslett Road to West Circle Drive, Cherry Lane entrance to Shaw Lane and Birch Road entrances to Shaw Lane.

Traffic will move one way only, toward the stadium before the game, and from the stadium after the game, on the following roads:

Harrison Road, North from Shaw Lane one way, and South from Shaw Lane going the other way; Shaw Lane, either way from Parking Lot "A," Birch Road; Chestnut Road; Marigold Avenue; Red Cedar Road through to the Beal entrance and Farm Lane, from Shaw Lane to East Circle Drive.

Additional information of the pre-and post-game traffic flow may be obtained from the campus police.

No Satellite Blame Put On Wilson

Ex-Secretary Denies Charges of Assistant

DETROIT (AP) — Former Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson denied Thursday the charge of a one-time assistant that he held back funds for the development of the Earth satellite program.

Dr. Clifford C. Furnas, assistant secretary of defense for research and development under Wilson for 13 months, said the Defense Department had apparently regarded the satellite as a "scientific toy." Furnas blamed shortage of funds for the failure of the United States to beat Soviet Russia with a man-made satellite. And he blamed the shortage of funds directly on Wilson, who retired as Secretary of Defense last week.

Furnas, now chancellor of the University of Buffalo, said he felt his requests for more funds for the satellite project "never got past the Secretary of Defense's office." He said Wilson had what Furnas termed a "so what?" attitude about the possibility that Russia would be the first to launch a satellite into space.

Wilson at his home in suburban Bloomfield Hills, said that when Furnas was at the Pentagon between November, 1955, and last January, Furnas did not know everything that was going on with respect to the satellite program.

"Furnas just didn't understand where the ball was," Wilson said.

Wilson said the satellite project was handled by the scientists and the money was appropriated by Congress.

"Of course," Wilson said, "the Defense Department was interested in the project but basically it was not the Defense Department's business." Wilson said the Navy had been working on the satellite for the scientists "but didn't set policy."

Wilson said he didn't intend to be drawn into an argument with Furnas "or anyone else" over the satellite. But he added:

Flu Troubles State Schools

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Flu continued to trouble many Michigan schools as the week drew to a close.

Many schools in widely scattered sections of the state were closed because of unusually long sick lists.

The latest schools to close:

Chelsea near Ann Arbor, all school closed until Monday.

Ypsilanti, one grade school shut down until Monday.

Charlevoix, closed until Monday.

Kinde, closed until Monday after an attempt to re-open Wednesday showed 46 per cent still absent.

Iron Mountain, Kingsford, Norway, Logan Felch and Foster City.

At the University of Michigan, officials at the crowded health service advised ill students to go home for treatment if they lived within 75 miles of campus. Dr. Morely Beckett said more than 1,000 students have reported for treatment since Monday. The infirmary has beds for 58 students.

UN Plans Discussion of Syrian Crisis

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The 82-nation general assembly and its steering committee Thursday night called meetings for today to arrange debate on Syria's demand for an inquiry in the Middle East crisis.

The immediate issue is Syrian-Turkish tensions.

The 17-member steering committee, composed of the president, vice presidents and departmental committee chairman of the Assembly, is expected to give quick approval to having an Assembly debate. It meets at 2 p.m.

The 82-nation assembly meets immediately afterward to ratify the steering committee decision and set the time for beginning debate.

The United States, Britain and other Western nations have said they welcomed the inquiry. The United States has already begun urgent consultations with others in an effort to spotlight the role of the Soviet Union behind Syria.

To set the stage the Assembly must ratify whatever action its steering committee takes. In view of both East-West and Arab-Asian support of the Syrian demand, there was no doubt that the debate on the inquiry would be authorized in some form by the entire Assembly.

There were indications that extraordinary sessions may be held in the weekend if the debate gets into full swing.

Syria claimed to be in danger of imminent attack from Turkey. The Soviet Union supported Syria and accused the United States of plotting aggression.

Sorority Sells Hellium Balloons At Homecoming

Sigma Kappa will again sell green and white balloons to Spartan rooters before the Homecoming Game with Illinois on Oct. 26.

One thousand helium-filled balloons will be released when the Spartans score their first touchdown. They will be sold by members of Sigma Kappa at all points leading to the stadium prior to the game. The price is 15 cents a piece.

In case Spartans do not score in the first half, the balloons will again be released at the kick-off of the second half, according to Rusty Smith, Oakhill, N.Y., senior and chairman of the event.

Telling the people of Lansing and vicinity that MSU has scored its first touchdown is well on its way to becoming a tradition of the college.

Harvest Ball Queens

Who Shall It Be?

Harvest Ball Queen To Reign at Dance

By MAGGIE McNISH

Highlighting the 26th annual Harvest Ball, to be held in Kellogg Center Saturday, will be the crowning of the Harvest Ball Queen by T. K. Cowden, dean of the school of agriculture. Four other finalists will make up her court.

The five finalists are: Nancy Speir, 21, a Detroit senior representing Delta Delta Delta; Pat Lund, 19, a Midland sophomore representing Phi Mu; Lee Harnett, 19, a Chicago Heights, Ill., sophomore representing Kappa Kappa Gamma; Sandra Copeland, 20, a Kewadin junior representing Snyder Hall and Dawn Schaeffer, 18, a Royal Oak sophomore representing East Yakeley.

The winners were chosen from a group of 25 candidates representing various campus living units by judges Richard Swenson, dean of resident instruction; D. N. Glick, of the landscaping architecture and urban planning department; H. A. Henneman, of the animal husbandry department and Miss Margaret McKeegan, TV editor for Information Services.

The judges based their decisions on the poise, charm and personality of each coed. As a group, the candidates were asked questions of a general nature. Eliminations were then made.

From a group of 10 semi-finalists, the five finalists were chosen, one of whom will be named queen, the rest, her court. They will reign over all Agricultural Council events this coming year including the Ag Honors Banquet and the spring term Ox-Roast.

The panel of judges alone knows who the queen is. Pictures of the candidates are being shown in the Union Concourse and in an East Lansing store window.

The dance, sponsored by the Agricultural Council, begins at 9 p.m. Saturday and ends at 12. Dress is semi-formal and corsages are not necessary for the occasion.

Tickets are on sale at the Union Desk for $2 per couple. Eldon Gates and his orchestra will provide the music for the dance. Decorations will be of a traditional fall nature.

At the north and south poles there are approximately six months of midnight daylight and six months of darkness at noon.

Gus's Guesses

By LARRY GUSTIN

State News Sports Editor

IT'S PREDICTION TIME and since we scored [illegible] last week, we'll try picking some of the nation's big games again. (The wrong guess for last week was Army over Notre Dame.)

IOWA over Wisconsin: This should be one of the best games on Saturday's schedule. The Badgers have shown up surprisingly well in their first three games. Hawkeyes have lived up to expectations as a Big 10 power. A clash of the unbeatens.

MICHIGAN over Northwestern: Wolverines looked bad against Spartans last week, but still have the traditional Michigan pride. Injury-ridden Wildcats will be facing the wrath of a maddened Wolverine squad.

MINNESOTA over Illinois: The Golden Gophers were lucky to get past Purdue last Saturday, but still may have the ability to go all the way. Illini could pull an upset.

OHIO STATE over Indiana: This is not a great Buckeye team but the Hoosiers will be lucky to win a game this year. Ohio State in a runaway.

ARMY over Pitt: Notre Dame surprised the Cadets last Saturday and Army will be ready for a comeback. Add the advantage of playing at home and the Cadets should scrape past a good Pitt squad.

OKLAHOMA over Kansas: Sooners will be trying to impress the pollsters in a bid to win back the No. 1 rating from Michigan State. Weak Kansas will be overwhelmed by an Oklahoma squad unbeaten in 43 games.

TEXAS A&M over TCU: Aggies now rank third in the nation, hope Spartans and Sooners slip up along the way. Texas Christian has a weak team.

NAVY over Georgia: Bulldogs have good passing attack but make too many mistakes. Middies by two touchdowns.

NORTH CAROLINA over Maryland: Tarheels have been romping over the conference. Terps could pull upset, but should lose by at least one touchdown.

WASHINGTON STATE over Oregon: Another one which could go either way. We'll stay with the Cougars on a hunch.

Toward Major League Status

International League Moves Back Into Jersey City, in Step

MONTREAL (AP)—The International League Thursday moved back into Jersey City in a bold stroke termed by President Frank Shaughnessy "the first big step in becoming a third major league."

The Triple A circuit claimed the New Jersey territory [illegible] Miami or Havana, which suffered heavy financial losses the past season. The Brooklyn Dodgers of the National League played 15 regular season games in Jersey City over the last two years.

"Becoming a third major league has been our goal a long time," said Shaughnessy. "I don't know how long it will take, maybe a year, two or five, but we are on our way.

"Jersey City is a good baseball town with a fine ball park which has adequate parking facilities. With television and radio receipts we could almost guarantee any club a successful operation.

"When we were in there before we had too much to buck with those major league teams in New York. Now we will have it all to ourselves when the Yankees are out of town."

Asked about the earlier reports that Jersey City was only a jumping off place before an eventual move to Brooklyn or New York, Shaughnessy said:

"At the present time Brooklyn is still the Dodgers' territory and the Giants, too, are in New York until they make their peace with the Pacific Coast League. After they leave it becomes the territory of the American League and the rules would have to be changed in order to claim either one.

"Sure I think New York can support at least two clubs. It should have baseball every day during the summer. The real question is whether the rule will be changed, and the major leagues will let us in."

In New York Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick said the matter of territorial rights in the New York area would be taken [illegible] until the Giants and Dodgers have come to an agreement with the Pacific Coast League.

"Until the Giants have completed their move to San Francisco and the Dodgers to Los Angeles nothing will be done," he said. "After they move, there will be a 15-day waiting period and then New York will become American League territory under terms of the present rule. It would take the consent of the American League clubs to permit a team from another league to invade that territory."

Jersey City last was in the International League in 1950. It was replaced the following year by Ottawa.

Last year, the IL, which is the oldest minor league, was represented in Montreal, Toronto, Richmond, Va., Columbus, Ohio, Miami, Havana, Buffalo and Rochester.

"Miami and Havana lost some money," explained Shaughnessy, "but otherwise we are in great shape. Our over-all attendance including playoffs (1,861,000) was our best in three years."

Rookie Notches 4 Points

Triumph Keeps Boston in First

DETROIT (AP)—The Boston Bruins struck for three goals within 89 seconds of the first period and coasted to a 5-1 National Hockey League victory over the Detroit Red Wings before 9,857 spectators, the smallest Olympia Stadium crowd [illegible]

After nearly seven minutes of even-spirited action, rookie Bronco Horvath started the Boston fireworks with a goal at [illegible]. Just 30 seconds later former Red Wing Vic Stasiuk made it [illegible] and 51 seconds later another ex-Detroiter John Bucyk poked in another score against Goalie Terry Sawchuk. The defeat was the third in four games for the Red Wings who have yielded [illegible] goals and scored only [illegible] in the last two contests.

Horvath scored his second goal of the evening in the second period to boost Boston's advantage to 4-0.

The rookie center, drafted from the Montreal Canadiens [illegible] collected two assists to come up with four points on the evening.

Still another former Detroit player Real Chevrefils put the Bruins into a 5-0 lead late in the second period. Detroit's only break into the scoring column came in the final period when rookie Bill McCreary got a puck through goalie Don Simmons' pads. The triumph enabled the Bruins to remain in a first-place deadlock with Montreal.

First period scoring: Boston, Horvath (Boivin, Chevrefils) 6:41; Stasiuk (Horvath) [illegible]; Bucyk (Stasiuk, Horvath) [illegible]; Horvath (Stasiuk, Mackell) [illegible]. Penalties — Burton [illegible]. Saves — Simmons 6, Sawchuk [illegible]

Injured Knee Sidelines Packer End for Year

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—The Green Bay Packers received a heavy blow Thursday when it was learned that first string end Gary Knafelc will be out for the remainder of the National Football League season with a cartilage injury in his knee.

Knafelc, who with Billy Howton forms one of the best offensive end units in the NFL, suffered what was described as a cartilage lock in his knee during practice Wednesday.

Coach Lisle Blackbourn said Knafelc apparently slipped and twisted his knee while practicing pass patterns. He spent the night in Green Bay Hospital.

Blackbourn said surgery would be required and that Knafelc, who has caught nine passes for 164 yards and 2 touchdowns, would not play again this season.

Spartans - No. 1 - Host Boilermakers

SAM WILLIAMS
standout against Wolves

Michigan State's football team, ranked No. 1 across the nation, will attempt to remove an old jinx Saturday when it plays Purdue at Macklin Stadium.

Coach Duffy Daugherty has warned his charges that the Boilermakers have given State a rough time ever since it entered the Big 10.

It was Purdue that ended State's 28-game winning streak in 1953, 6-0. The Boilermakers also defeated the Spartans, 27-13, in 1954, when State was suffering beatings from nearly everybody.

But in 1955 Michigan State overwhelmed Purdue, 27-0, and beat the Boilermakers again last year, 12-9, after a hard battle.

Last year a very promising Michigan State team dropped a game to Illinois the week after being voted No. 1 in the country by the Associated Press and United Press.

With these memories stressed by the MSU coaching staff, the Spartans will not be complacent about Saturday's game. Purdue, beaten three times already this season, will be facing probably the greatest team in Michigan State history. It will take more than precedent for them to win.

The Boilermakers, who have been much more impressive statistically than they have been in the won-lost column, are fully aware of the fact that it will take a supreme effort if they are to make a respectable showing against the Spartans.

Scouts have pointed out that Michigan State has two units which are practically even in total capabilities and that the Spartan multiple attack will provide a real problem for a Boilermaker defense that was woefully weak on tackling against Wisconsin last Saturday.

All of Purdue's three losses have been close. The defeats were against Notre Dame, 12-0, Minnesota, 21-17, and Wisconsin, 23-14.

The Boilermakers will present a somewhat revised and strengthened lineup, with two injured men coming back into the first string and two others moving up because of superior performance.

Star end Erich Barnes, last year a halfback, will be back at his regular left end post. Wayne Farmer, 232-pound giant, will start at his old right tackle spot.

State will start the same line-up which has been on the field at the opening whistle in all three games to date. Statistical leaders are quarterback Jim Ninowski in passing with 23 completions in 37 tries for 344 yards and five TD's, right half Walt Kowalczyk in rushing with 129 yards netted and a 5.5 yards per carry mark, and end Dave Kaiser in receiving with 10 catches good for 151 yards and a touchdown.

The Spartans have a host of good ends, led by Kaiser, Sam Williams and Bob Jewett. It was Williams who blocked Jim Van Pelt's punt for a safety and made a beautiful touchdown catch in last week's game against Michigan. Jewett also cashed in with a catch in the end zone.

Ed Machen To Fight Jackson

Bout Slated for Nov. in California

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Eddie Machen, the No. 1 ranked contender for the World Heavyweight Boxing Championship will fight a 12-round televised bout with Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson here on Nov. 13, matchmaker Bennie Ford announced Thursday.

Ford said the bout between Machen and the man who unsuccessfully challenged Floyd Patterson for the heavyweight crown last July 29 would be held at the Cow Palace. Co-promoters will be the International Boxing Club and the San Francisco Boxing Club.

Ford said the bout was scheduled for 12 rounds because "we feel this is the biggest fight that could be made in the heavyweight ranks with the exception of a Patterson bout."

Machen, 25, of Redding, Calif., is undefeated in 23 outings since opening his pro career in 1955. Jackson, 26, from New York, was the No. 1 contender until Patterson stopped him in 10 rounds after handing him a brutal beating.

Machen's manager, Sid Flaherty, has been seeking a title bout for Machen and a victory over Jackson would give him more verbal ammunition. However, Gus D'Amato, the man who pilots Patterson, has previously refused such a bout.

Jackson, now ranked 5th by the National Boxing Assn., hasn't fought since losing to Patterson.

Daughter Born To Gene Kenneys

Sharon Kenney, wife of Spartan soccer Coach Gene Kenney, gave birth to an 8 pound, one ounce girl, Jill Colette, at 3 a.m. Thursday. The Kenneys have two other children, a son Mike, 4, and a daughter, Kim, 1.

Booters Face Purdue. 'Toughest Foe of Year'

After Two Straight Deadlocks

Game Slated for 10 Saturday Morning

By PETE WALTERS
State News Edit Page Editor

Michigan State's soccer team, held to ties in its first two games, takes on what Coach Gene Kenney terms the toughest competition of the year when it faces Purdue at 10 Saturday morning on the Soccer Field.

The injury-riddled Spartans will go without the services of Al Southall, star forward who is suffering from injuries to the right knee and thigh and will probably be unable to play the balance of the year. "It is [illegible] absolute tops," Kenney [illegible]. "The whole team would collapse."

The Boilermakers, on the other hand, will be fielding a rugged team, including all of last year's lettermen and several strong additions to the reserves. In 1956 they lost one game—a 3-1 tilt with the Spartans—and finished second in the Midwest Soccer Conference.

This season they beat Indiana, 5-1, Wheaton, 4-1, and Purdue Alumni, 6-0, in their matches to date. Their star player is fullback Paul Coward, an All-America selection in '56.

"They have a very strong overall club and an outstanding forward line," Kenney said. "They rank among the best in the Midwest."

Dissatisfied with his team's previous scoring output, Kenney has shuffled his lineup slightly in hopes of obtaining a more productive combination. A new addition to the forward contingent is letterman Jordie Tatter, a former fullback.

'Too Much Tension'

Basketball Is Too Fast. Says One of 1st Players

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Basketball has become too exciting and professionalized, in the opinion of the only survivor of the first game of basketball played 66 years ago.

Now 87, Raymond Kaighn recalls vividly the cold December day in 1891 when he and several other football players trotted into the gymnasium at the YMCA Training School in Springfield, Mass., and played the first basketball game.

"We used a soccer ball," Kaighn said. "It turned out that all of the players wanted to shoot—just like today."

Kaighn, whose appearance belies his years, has a keen memory. He said, "Basketball is tremendously faster today. It's too exciting. The fast pace keeps you keyed up constantly; the tension is terrific. I have to take things a little quieter."

Basketball has become too professionalized, Kaighn declared, because of "overemphasis on the desire to win. Basketball has become a big business." In contrast to the early years of basketball, Kaighn recalled, "Today's coaches do all the thinking for the team as a whole."

Looking back to 1891, Kaighn said "we were all tired of Swedish calisthenics. We wanted a winter sport that would fill in between football and baseball. We wanted one with the excitement of football but without the danger."

So Naismith began working on the idea of the new game.

"He was going to use boxes for us to throw the ball in," Kaighn said, "but the janitor couldn't find boxes. Instead, a peach basket was installed at each end of the gymnasium. The baskets were fastened at the base of the balcony running track. There were 18 players in the first game, nine on each side and 13 rules to the game."

Theta Chi Blanks 2nd Straight Foe

By GARY GILDNER

Halfback Dale Quick found himself on the scoring end of two touchdown plays as Theta Chi downed Alpha Chi Sigma, 18-0, in intramural play Thursday for its second straight win.

In the closing seconds of the first half, Quarterback George Shufelt passed 18 yards to Quick for Theta Chi's first score. Shufelt also hit Quick for the point after touchdown.

Midway in the second half Dan Foster found Quick for a 22-yard pass play and paydirt.

Phi Delts Win

The Delta Theta's scored first just before the end of the first half and went on to defeat Farmhouse, 13-6.

Bob Mary opened the scoring for the Phi Delts on a pass from Quarterback John Davis. Mary also tallied the point after touchdown.

Midway in the second period halfback Bill Landsend brought down a scoring pass from Jerry Best to give the Phi Delts a 13-6 lead.

Toward the end of the game Bob Fox caught a scoring pass from Ed Fox to prevent Farmhouse from being shut out.

Delta Chi Cops

The first half of the Delta Chi-Phi Kappa Tau tussel ended in a scoreless tie with neither team staging any threats.

In the second half Delta Chi quarterback Bob Morrison passed 15 yards on a pass-run option to Halfback Bill Stone to score the game's first touchdown. Morrison [illegible] for the point after touchdown.

Handling the coaching duties for the alumni are Horace Craig, '51, and Fred Stillwell, '54.

A total of 14 events are scheduled for the meet, but the condition of the old timers will designate if all the events are to be staged.

Coach Chuck McCaffree will call on some top mainstays along with the frosh crop of last year and this season's freshman squad.

The public is cordially invited to attend and no admission will be charged.

In 19 seasons as football coach at Alfred University, Coach Alex Yunevich's teams have won 93 games, lost 37 and tied 6. Alex formerly played for Purdue.

Elizabeth Gets Warm Reception

Queen Describes Visit As 'Moving'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Great Britain's Queen Elizabeth won a warm welcome from Washington today and responded with every evidence that she was thoroughly enjoying herself.

[illegible]

There was the parade from the airport to the White House, in which she was cheered all along the way.

[illegible]

Elizabeth shook hands with about half the 2,000 persons who jammed a hotel ballroom for the reception.

[illegible]

This was a radiant Elizabeth that Washington saw. British correspondents who regularly watch her every public move were shaking their heads at changes they said they saw in her public demeanor.

[illegible]

Elizabeth's speaking voice seems pitched somewhat lower, too, the Britishers say.

[illegible]

Elizabeth told Eisenhower at the airport her visit to Williamsburg and Jamestown had been "a moving experience." She added:

"We are both looking forward greatly to our visit to Washington and to New York. It is going to be a memorable experience for us.

"I am very sorry that we cannot visit other parts of this great continent on this occasion but I would like the whole American people, north, south, east and west to know how happy we are to be here and I send them all my warmest good wishes."

Elizabeth earlier told the people of Canada during her four-day visit there that she hoped to be back in 1959 to help open the St. Lawrence seaway. American officials speculated that she might take advantage of that event to spend some time in the United States as well.

This will mark the first time the national organization has met on a university campus.

Casting is completed and rehearsals have begun for "Time Limit," the fall term play. Director Don Buell has cast the following students in the roles of the characters:

[illegible]

First Lt. Mike Livingston will be played by a freshman from New York City, Charles Odell. Warren Fuks, a senior in business from Detroit, will take the part of 2nd Lt. "Baxter" Mack.

The entire action takes place in the Judge Advocate's Office of an eastern Army Post in the United States in August, 1955, and in Camp GeeGee, a Korean Prisoner of War Camp, Dec., 1951.

Costumes will be designed by Agnes David, settings by Orville K. Larson, and Terry Wells will do the technical direction for the show.

Spartan Balloons To Ascend Again

Green helium-filled balloons, traditionally released after State's first touchdown at Spartan Stadium, will be sold by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity.

Balloons will be sold before the game Saturday outside the stadium for $.15 each. Profits go to charity.

This project was started last year by Sigma Kappa sorority, which turned the 1957 sales over to APO. Sigma Kappa will handle distribution for the homecoming game, though.

Picture Appointments For Yearbook to End

further interfering with integration at Central High, where Arkansas National Guard troops had kept nine Negro students from enrolling.

Faubus withdrew the guard—although he was not required under the court order to do so—and rioting erupted outside the school when the Negroes entered. On Sept. 24 federal troops were sent to Little Rock and the National Guard was federalized. The soldiers have since protected the Negroes in their attendance at the school.

Six of the nine Negro children attended Central High Thursday without incident. Three were ill, including Elizabeth Eckford, who was absent for the first time. Melba Pattillo and Terrance Roberts have been absent for several days.
