Davies Dismisses Lawsuit Seeking Troop Restraint

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. — The U.S. government today dismissed a lawsuit seeking to restrain the deployment of U.S. troops to the border with Mexico.

The suit was filed by a group of citizens who claimed that the deployment of troops was unconstitutional and violated their rights under the First Amendment.

The government argued that the deployment of troops was necessary to maintain law and order along the border.

The court heard arguments on the matter and ruled in favor of the government.

The decision ended the lawsuit and allowed the deployment of troops to proceed.

Ike, Macmillan Plan Washington Talks

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. — President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Macmillan are expected to meet in Washington this week for a conference.

The meetings will focus on the Middle East, with both leaders expected to discuss the situation in the region.

The meeting is expected to be held at the U.S. Embassy in Washington.

Faunus Rebukes Decision

Lawyer Indicting Court Imposition

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., Oct. — A lawyer in Little Rock has indicted a court decision in a recent case.

The lawyer, who is representing a plaintiff in a case, claimed that the court decision was unfair and violated the rights of his client.

The case involves a dispute over a piece of land and the lawyer believes that the court decision is not in the best interest of his client.

The lawyer said that he will appeal the decision and continue to fight for his client's rights.

The case is expected to be heard in the near future.
