Guy Mollet Defeated in Assembly

Defeat Perceived Sunday Night

PARIS (AP) — The National Assembly easily Monday defeated former Socialist Guy Mollet to head a new socialist government.

The crushing defeat of the Mollet government shows the demand for a change in government was expected to sweep the country.

A majority of the members turned down Mollet's plea to continue in office, according to the French news agen-ties.

The defeat was not due to new legislation but to a vote of confidence in the government, which has been asked to step down.

The government has been asked to resign in order to make way for a new government led by Prime Minister Jacques Chaban-Delmas, who has been elected by the National Assembly. special Assembly meeting.

The vote was 389 against, 113 in favor and 41弃
ing, with 58 members abstaining.

Mollet, who had been Prime Minister for 11 months, said he would not seek re-election.

The government's failure to pass a bill to extend unemployment benefits was a factor in the defeat.

In the debate, several members opposed the government's economic policies.

Further, Mollet's failure to meet the economic goals could have contributed to the defeat.

The government has been accused of not acting fast enough to stimulate the economy.

French Premier Mollet

The government's defeat came amid a wave of political instability in France.

In recent weeks, the governing coalition has lost several key members, including several Socialist Party leaders.

Many analysts believe the government's defeat is likely to lead to the formation of a new government.

The new government will be formed by the Socialists, who have been in opposition for much of the past decade.

The Socialists have promised to focus on social issues, including education and health care.

They have also promised to continue the economic reforms that have been started by the current government.

The new government will be led by Prime Minister Jacques Chaban-Delmas.

President Francois Mitterrand has been considered likely to appoint a new Prime Minister to lead the government.

The new government will likely be more centrist than the current one, which has been tipped to the left by the Socialists.

The new government will likely have to work closely with the Socialists to pass legislation.

The Socialists have been urging the government to focus on social issues, including education and health care.

They have also been pushing for tax reforms that would benefit the middle and lower classes.

The new government will likely have to work closely with the Socialists to pass legislation.

Noisy Crowd Costs Colorado 2 TDs

DENVER (AP) - Colorado Coach Del Ward said Monday he has learned a lesson about handling the noisy fans who inundated Empower Field after the school's 34-27 loss against Oklahoma. The Buffs have struggled to cope with raucous crowds this season.

"I think we've learned a lesson," Ward said. "We've got to get back to the basics of football. We've got to make sure our players are focused on the game and not the noise." He added that the team needs to work on improving its defense and special teams.

Transplanted Dodgers Get Welcome in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Los Angeles, already a hub of Hollywood glamour, now has a new attraction: the Los Angeles Dodgers. The team has moved from Brooklyn to Los Angeles, bringing a new level of excitement to the city.

"We're excited to have the Dodgers here," said Mayor Eric Garcetti. "This is a new chapter for the team and for Los Angeles." He added that the city is working to ensure that the team is well accommodated and that fans can enjoy the games.

Sarasota Fans Honor Burdette

SARASOTA, FL (AP) - The fans in Sarasota turned out to honor Bob Burdette, the former pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds. The fans gathered at a special ceremony to pay tribute to the former star.

"Bob was a true legend," said Mayor Paul Instructor. "We're proud to honor him in such a special way." He added that the city will continue to honor Burdette and his contributions to the sport.

Menderes Opponents Call Foul in Election

Istanbul, Oct. 24 - Opposition leaders here said today that Menderes died Monday night after a previous series of political and personal attacks on him by the government.

A handout photo showed Menderes' body lying in state in his home. The government official said Menderes died of a heart attack at 10:45 p.m. Monday.

The government had decided to hold the election on Nov. 17, the day before the end of the legislative term, to prevent the opposition from gaining an advantage.

The opposition leaders said Menderes' death was a result of the government's deliberate actions to prevent him from running in the election.

They also accused the government of using its power to block opposition candidates from gaining a foothold in the political arena.

The opposition leaders called for an investigation into the circumstances surrounding Menderes' death and for action to be taken against those responsible.

They also demanded the resignation of the government and the immediate release of all political prisoners.

Donoghue Admits Auto Destruction

WASHINGTON, D.C. - James J. Donoghue, a Senate confidant, admitted Monday he altered the internal sensors and ignition switch on his car before it was stolen and caused a fire that destroyed a Senate office building.

The Senate Transportation subcommittee, which Donoghue chairs, was scheduled to meet Tuesday to investigate the incident.

Donoghue's admission raised questions about the integrity of the panel, which conducts oversight of transportation issues.

The subcommittee was expected to delve into the circumstances surrounding the incident and the role of Donoghue in the investigation.

The subcommittee's findings were expected to be made public in a report later this week.
