Eve of Congress Reds Stress Collectivism

MOSCOW (AP)—On the eve of the 21st Soviet Communist Party Congress, Moscow's most important theoretical magazine strongly emphasized the theme of collective leadership.

But scores of top Communist leaders from around the world, ready on hand for the meeting, are expected to see a demonstration of Premier Nikita Khrushchev's unchallenged leadership in foreign and domestic affairs.

The latest issue of Kommunist, the monthly journal, surveys events since the close of the last congress two years ago. The party has "condemned" any violation of inter-party democracy, and infringements of the rights of communists, and substituted provisions for administrative measures.

"The re-establishments of collective leadership as the supreme principle of the party was of utmost importance," the magazine said.

The article indicates new laws will be struck at those points the party who opposed Khrushchev's policies.

Jose Stalin, the USSR's rulers have been insisting they have become entirely on the concept of V.I. Lenin, founder of Bolshevism.

The 21st Congress is being held as a milestone of a "great social and labor upsurge," members of the ruling party are urged to stamp approval on Khrushchev's seven-year economic program to overtake the United States both in consumer and heavy industrial production. Undoubtedly the party also approved Khrushchev's program for changes in the USSR's cultural and educational systems.

Senate Starts Racket Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate members launch a third round of hearings to explore alleged racketeering in the labor-management field today.

The special investigating committee said it hoped in four days of hearings this week to complete a picture of wrongdoing developed in last year's testimony.

Chairman John McClellan (D-Ill.) said the group would begin on Feb. 3 into a new round of major investigation he presiding will show a nationwide survey of gangsters and some high-ranking union officials to show how the juke box and slot machine industry.

The committee in an official report has denounced the Transport International president, Louis Hoffa, as being closely tied with notorious gangsters and racketeering.

Priceless Congo Stripped in Capital From Indonesians

WASHINGTON (AP)—Soviet agents at Washington's high society ball became high society again—by stripping the priceless Congo from Indonesians.

The U. S.-Indonesian relations were carried off four irreplaceable bronze gongs forged in Java about 200 years ago. The gongs had been in the possession of the 46-piece Indonesian Orchestra out of business since the gongs were taken.

The Arts Club of Washington announced the gongs were held at the Sheraton Hotel. Indonesian Ambassador, Harry Salsman, made a formal appeal to the members to return the gongs as a 20-question-asked the club was notified.

Park Free Courtesy Of Snow

Although it isn't "Be Kind to Student Week," free parking is now available in all the metered lots on campus.

It will continue until the snow is removed according to the campus police.

Due to the heavy volume of snow which has been falling since early last week there is limited parking space in the lots. Since the correct amount of cars can't get on the lots the gates operate improperly.

To eliminate trouble and confusion the gates have been locked in an upright position temporarily.

As soon as the main streets on campus have been cleared of the snow attention will be directed to clearing the lots by the men behind the plows. Thus eliminating the free parking.

116 Red Chinese Flee to Hong Kong

HONG KONG (AP)—Spokesman for 116 Chinese fishermen who escaped from a people's commune in Kwangtung Province earlier this month said Monday they fled Communism because they were underpaid and overworked.

They told a news conference they worked at least 18 hours a day and had been paid six JMP (12.30) per month since the commune was organized in September.

Their entire catch, they said, went to the government, whereas before the communes they were allowed to keep 30 percent.

Spartan Spirit Meet Has Changed With University

There will be a meeting of Spartan Spirit tonight at 7:00 in 229 Student Services.

At the turn of the century, Morrill Hall, then called the Women's building, was the roosting place for 120 "chickens."

The "chickens" rather than the egg laying variety were the women who lived in the "coop," the nickname given to the dorm.

By the 1890's it became evident that Abbott Hall, now the Music Practice building, would be insufficient for housing due to the increased female enrollment.

In 1908, the first coeds moved into the Women's building.

The three story red-brick structure provided rooms for 120 women. A typical room had a high ceiling and plain wooden floor, and was furnished with a pair of army cots, a table, two

CIO Urges Teachers Pay Hike

Calls for Doubled Pay, Classrooms

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Labor leader James Carey Monday called for an immediate doubling of teachers' salaries and construction this year of 132,000 classrooms.

Carey, addressing the annual convention of the National School Boards Assn. called the problem of teachers' salaries one which needs a drastic solution.

The AFL-CIO vice president and president of the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, said:

"We have waited far too long now to try to solve our dilemma by piddling salary hikes of 10 percent and 15 percent. Teachers' salaries must be doubled now or else they will have to be tripled in a very few years. And then it might be too late."

Earlier another speaker, Adlai Stevenson, titular head of the Democratic Party, said:

"Personally, I doubt if we ever again will have enough teachers, let alone enough good ones. Happily, the American teacher, no longer dependent on the printed page, can now draw from a vast library of remarkable educational films to open the doors of a child's mind."

Stevenson said there was an imperative need for improving the nation's education system, noting "the anti-intellectualism of so many communities, the inertia of so many pupils and the poverty of so many school districts."

Carey said organized labor viewed the crisis in education as the need for more and better schools; more and better pay; and complete abolition of segregation; a revision of curriculum to meet new challenges of the space age and the atom era; improved health safeguards for students, expanded medical protection, and enlarged benefits under the milk and lunch program; and education of the American public to the fact education is now a national problem and no longer of purely local concern.

Gen. J. E. Hull, president of the Manufacturing Chemists Assn., Inc., suggested to the school board members that they investigate the possibility of industry and business grants to the nation's junior and senior high schools.

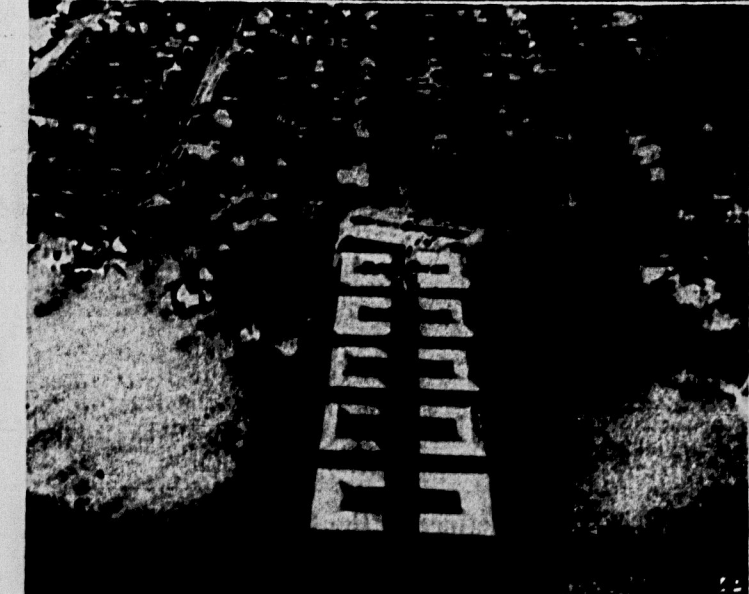

Hull also suggested that the National School Boards Assn. set up an advisory agency to assist business and industry in their programs of aid to education.

Morrill Hall Was Chicken Coop

marked the change in the name, from the Women's building then became known as Morrill Hall. Appropriately, the Dean of Liberal Arts found his office in a building named for a man whose legislation endowed colleges "where the leading object shall be, without excluding other scientific and classical studies . . . to promote the liberal and practical education" of the people.

This man was Justice S. Morrill of Vermont, who was chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture and author of the Morrill Land Grant College Act.

Morrill Hall today houses the offices of the Dean of Business and Public Service, and other faculty members. It is also the home of the new language laboratory.

January Payroll Guaranteed MSU Finances, Book Theft Hashed at Spartan Roundtable

By BILL CALLAHAN
State News Editor-in-Chief

University finances, MSU-Oakland and the problem of book thefts from the library were the main topics of discussion at Monday's meeting of Spartan Roundtable.

When questioned about the state of university finances, President John A. Hannah said that MSU has enough money to pay the January payroll at the end of this week, but predicted possible trouble in getting funds to cover February salaries.

"The state has failed to pay us for three months and is $4.3 million in arrears now," Dr. Hannah said.

"By the end of February, if no payments are made, the state will be in arrears about $5.4 million."

Hannah also explained Gov. Williams' plan to transfer securities from the Veterans Trust Fund to U of M's Board of Regents and MSU's State Board of Agriculture to be used as collateral in borrowing additional funds for operation.

Under this plan, the securities would be kept intact and returned to the Trust Fund when the state resumes payments to the two universities.

Hannah reaffirmed his stand that the university will "do everything possible to see that salaries are paid in full and on time throughout the year."

Geordan Smith, president of Union Board, then asked Dr. Hannah how he justified asking the Legislature for funds to operate MSU-Oakland in the present financial situation.

Hannah replied that the plans for MSU-O had been formulated before the financial crisis had arisen.

"The nation faces the problem of being able to educate 2 1/2 times as many students in 1970 as there are in colleges today," Hannah said.

"And 1970 is now only 11 years away."

He emphasized the need for more higher education to maintain and improve the national standard of living.

"We are not going to divert funds from MSU to operate MSU-O. We understand that the Legislature will appropriate separate funds for that operation."

Smith then asked about book thefts from the library. William Combs, dean of university services, said that 5,000 volumes

Fire Cheats Demolishers Out of Job

Fire cheated the demolition team out of a job Monday night as a Meridian Township building scheduled to be torn down was burned to the ground in three hours instead.

The former Ward's Flower Ranch building, just south of the Poplar on Grand River, was serving temporarily as a storage place for construction.

Meridian Fire department officials estimated the damage at $4,000. There were no injuries, the department said.

Firemen guessed that the blaze, which began shortly before 8:05 according to department records, probably originated in the fireplace of the former business residence.

Charred construction lumber was the only other damage reported. Officials have not determined whether the building was insured.

Extension Approval Expected

Present Bill Due To Expire June 30

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department told Congress Monday the draft law must be extended to prevent a dangerous drop-off in enlistments.

Asst. Secretary of Defense Charles Finucane gave this argument in urging that the draft be extended for four years. It now is due to expire on June 30.

After listening to Finucane's chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee said "we have no choice . . . I hope there will be no 'handcuffs' in extending the draft."

This was one of several indications that the Committee would vote to prolong the draft. But there was no assurance it would be continued for four years, as the Defense Department asks. There have been suggestions that the extension be limited to two years.

And before the Committee acts, it appeared likely Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy and other officials of the armed forces will have to do some explaining about military manpower cutbacks put into effect despite objections from Congress.

Vinson said that when the Defense Secretary speaks later on Monday he will be asked to explain why he ordered the Army cut to 870,000 men after Congress had provided funds for 990,000 and had made clear it wanted the Army kept at that size.

The committee chairman suggested suggestions might be forced to "take a mandatory position on the strength of the Army."

Rep. Peter Harbo Jr. (D-Va.) told Finucane the Defense Department still has to make a case for the four-year draft extension. The view of cutbacks and reductions of both the active and reserve forces.

Rep. E. Edward Herbert (D-La.) said that because of the reductions "I can't explain to people the necessity for the draft."

But Finucane insisted that without the draft the armed services would fall short "700,000 or 800,000 from our total of about 1 1/2 million."

He told the committee the draft also has an effect on the supply of officers. Many young men apply for commissions rather than wait to be drafted into the enlisted ranks, he explained.

At the same time, Finucane asked for extension of legislation for drafting doctors and dentists. He said "draft-inspired volunteers" comprise the chief source of such officers.

Finucane testified that recent efforts to make military careers more attractive are beginning to show results. But he said the gains are not enough to justify dropping the selective service system.

Court Frees Ex-Circuit Judge

Charge of Contempt Dismissed

Rules Wallace Was 'Pretending'

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A federal judge who ruled that Wallace only pretended to obey a court order refused to let him to jail Monday for failing to obey the U. S. Civil Rights Commission.

U. S. Dist. Judge Frank Johnson dismissed a contempt of court charge against the fiery Alabama ex-circuit judge. Johnson issued a reprimand and accused Wallace of actively helping the commission in its investigation of Negro voting rights.

Johnson made no direct accusation of political motives behind Wallace's conduct, but said that were the case, this court would allow its authority to be bent or swayed by such politically generated demands.

Wallace was runnerup in the state primary race for governor last spring, and is regarded as a likely candidate for office again in 1962 or perhaps the U. S. Senate next year.

Wallace, a practicing attorney, was held as a judge expired his term. He left the courtroom without comment and walked to his home two blocks away, leaving a crowd of onlookers.

Johnson accused his former law classmate of using deceptive methods to turn registration records over to hastily summoned grand juries in Barbour and Bullock counties instead of giving them to federal agents in compliance with a federal order.

The federal judge added that although it was accomplished through means of subterfuge, Wallace did comply with the order when the records were made available by the grand jury.

Johnson recalled testimony at Wallace's contempt hearing in the day which showed that the ex-judge himself who notified the commission that the voting records would be made available.

U. S. Criticized

Baghdad Pact Council Meets Without Iraq

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—The Ministerial Council of the Baghdad Pact met here Monday—without Iraq—and the U.S. attitude toward the alliance came under immediate criticism.

The opening session brought into the open sharp differences among the delegations attending—Britain, Pakistan, Iran and the United States.

The absence of U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd was singled out as a cause for regret by the spokesman for the Muslim group. Prime Minister Manmohan Singh of India said "their wise advice and counsels could have been of great advantage."

The Iranian premier complained the Pact had failed to accomplish its most important tasks. He said the alliance, set up to counter Communist expansion, has neither set up a program of economic development. He expressed concern that too much of the Pact's activities so far have been theoretical.

Lois Henderson, undersecretary of state and leader of the U. S. delegation, emphasized in his opening speech that the target must remain Communist expansion.

The Americans insist privately the United States is not favoring the Pact. The Muslim nations want the United States to pledge separate bilateral treaties of aid against aggression from any quarter.

U. S. officials fear such a pledge would complicate "border-area" problems, such as India's quarrels with Pakistan, and decline to go beyond a specific pledge against Communist aggression.

Blue Key Petitioning Closes Wednesday

Petitioning for Blue Key, Junior-senior men's honorary, will continue through Wednesday.

Red Power Worries U. S. Navy

Senate Studies Naval Situation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Navy is worried that "Red" submersibles could pose a serious threat to the nation's maritime power.

The navy's chief of operations, Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, testified in a closed briefing session.

Part of the testimony was made public. It included the navy's growing nuclear power, especially the fleet's ability to attack submarines from under water and from carrier-based jet attack planes.

Burke emphasized the navy needs more subs, jet attack carriers and fighting ships in general.

The admiral said the navy will have 113 active submarines by next July 1 but Russia will have about four times as many.

Of greatest concern to the navy is their submarine force numbering about 450. Burke said.

Since World War II the submarine has progressed faster than the antiaircraft warfare capability to combat it, he said.

Khrushchev Advises Graduates on Future

MOSCOW (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev has advised Moscow University physics graduates to keep their feet on the ground about everyday work, though some of you likely will participate in future space flights.

The Soviet Premier attended the graduation ceremony in a grand mood. He spoke up after Prof. A. N. Tikhonov touched in an address on possible space flights by the graduates.

It is quite possible to remain on Earth, too, Khrushchev said. "I wish to advise you not to have contempt for the daily work which comes in every field, every profession. Your future tasks do not place you above from earthly mortals."

Title Bout Location Disputed

NEW YORK (AP) — Promoter Bill Rosenzohn and his lawyers met with lawyers representing Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson Monday to iron out final details of a June title match with Sweden's Ingemar Johansson.

It is expected that the official signing of the match will be announced today or Wednesday. There have been no hits since the principals got together Friday afternoon a few hours after Johnson's arrival.

The site has not been determined and will not be set for about 30 days.

New York, Los Angeles and Colorado Springs all have a strong pitch for the fight. Rosenzohn said he received a wire from Arch Hindman, a National Boxing Assn. official from Indiana, asking that he give serious consideration to Indianapolis as a site for the fight. He wanted the show to be held on Friday, May 29, the eve of the 500-mile automobile race.

In a news conference at Denver, Gov. Steve McNichols referred to his conversations with D'Amato about a defense.

"The only person I've had any dealings with was Cus D'Amato," he said. "He said Patterson would defend his title in Colorado Springs in June or July. I am still relying on his word."

Bob Turley Wins Award, Pro Athlete of the Year

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Bob Turley, fireballing pitching star of the World Champion New York Yankees, Monday was named winner of the Ninth Annual S. Rae Hickok "Professional Athlete of the Year" Award for 1958.

The 28-year-old hero of the World Series received the $10,000 diamond-studded, gold-buckled belt that goes with his selection by a national panel of sports writers and sportscasters. Turley was presented his trophy at the annual Rochester Press and Radio Club Dinner for the Polio Fund.

The choice was the ease with which Turley dominated the vote which was unexpected. He finished far in front of Jimmy Brown, record-shattering back of the Cleveland Browns, and old Archie Moore, the light heavyweight boxing king. Those two had a close battle for second and third with Johnny Unitas of the Baltimore Colts not too far behind in fourth place.

Following the big four came Stan Musial, the great St. Louis Cardinal hitter, jockey Willie Shoemaker, Bob Pettit, of basketball's St. Louis Hawks, and middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson, Tommy Bolt, U.S. Open Golf Champion, and slugger Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox, and Ernie Banks, Chicago Cubs.

During the season the 6-2, 218-pound Turley posted a 21-7 record, the only American Leaguer to win 20 or more games. In the series he shut out the Milwaukee Braves in the fifth game, preserved a 4-3 victory in the sixth game, and finally pitched three-hit ball in the last 6 1/2 innings of the decisive seventh game to win the series.

Assault Charge Faces Cepeda

SAN JUAN (AP)—Orlando Cepeda, the National League's Rookie of the year with the San Francisco Giants, was charged with assault Monday after Sunday's Santurce-Mayaguez Puerto Rican League playoff game ended in a riot and a forfeit.

All the action came after right-hander Ruben Gomez of the Philadelphia Phillies, Cepeda's Santurce teammate in winter league play, hit a Mayaguez batter with a pitch. A similar incident in Pittsburgh last May when Ruben was pitching for the Giants, set off a 15-minute brawl and wound up in $100 fines for Gomez and Cepeda.

Cepeda was released in $500 bail on the assault charge Monday while Carlos Garcia Noceda, President of the Puerto Rican League, studied umpire reports of the incident.

The game, fifth in the semi-final playoff between the two clubs, was halted and forfeited to Santurce in the eighth inning because of fan demonstration against Cepeda and Gomez. Santurce, which led 4-0 at that point, now has a 3-2 lead in the best-of-seven playoff.

The fuss began when Gomez hit Joe Christopher, Mayaguez and Pittsburgh Pirate outfielder, in the first inning. Christopher was hit in the head and left the game, but was not seriously injured.

Gomez was brood every time he came to bat, and fans began to throw fruit on the field. When Cepeda protested a decision at first base, bleacher fans shouted for his removal from the game.

In the eighth inning, Cepeda was bombarded by fruit, beer cans and bottles while trying to catch a foul fly near the bleachers. The young first baseman missed the fly, picked up the ball and threw it toward the bleachers. It appeared that the ball struck a railing and bounced back onto the field, but one fan claimed he had been hit. More fruit, cans and bottles bombarded the field and the umpires forfeited the game.

Alex Olmedo Borders on Greatness

ADELAIDE (AP) — Alex Olmedo stood on the threshold of tennis greatness Monday, a tired and aching champion looking for no new worlds to conquer. All he wants is peace and rest.

"Now I take it easy for a while," said the 22-year-old Peruvian court sensation after adding the Australian National Championship to his recent Davis Cup conquests.

Although favoring a strained stomach muscle, Olmedo crushed Neale Fraser, Australia's best remaining amateur, in the singles final Monday at the packed Memorial Drive Courts 6-1, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3.

The handsome, chisel-featured descendant of the Incas immediately was hailed as the new king of amateur tennis, and there was talk he might duplicate Don Budge's unequalled feat of winning the Australian, Wimbledon, French and U.S. titles in a single year.

But Olmedo merely shrugged his shoulder and looked disinterested.

"My main aim now is to get back home and enroll at the University of Southern California," he said. "I have been away from my books too long. Not much tennis for me for a while. I hope to play at Wimbledon and Forest Hills, but I can't play in the French tournament because it would interfere with my school work."

Perry Jones, U.S. Davis Cup captain, who has had a part in the development of the young Peruvian's tennis, said he felt sure Olmedo could achieve the "grand slam" if he remained under his (Jones') direction.

"I don't mean to sound conceited," the 19-year-old Los Angeles tennis executive said. "I simply know that Olmedo often is inclined to relax, sometimes he must be pushed."

Jones said Olmedo undoubtedly is the best amateur player in the world today and he added:

"Alex has athletic 'it' to the highest degree. He is an artist to his fingertips. He is like poetry. Poetry is the spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings." Harry Hopman, Australian Davis Cup captain, was less dramatic but no less emphatic in his appraisal of the Peruvian youngster as a certain future champion.

Succeeds John McHale

Detroit Tigers Name Ferrell to GM Post

DETROIT (AP) — Rick Ferrell, one of baseball's all-time great catchers, Monday was named temporary General Manager of the Detroit Tigers at the club moved quickly to replace John McHale.

McHale resigned suddenly Sunday to become Vice President and General Manager of the Milwaukee Braves. Just 24 hours later the 33-year-old Ferrell, who has been Director of Minor League Personnel under McHale, became at least an interim replacement.

Chairman of the Board John Fetzer, President Harvey Hansen and Executive Vice President Harry Sisson met with Ferrell Monday and an hour later made the announcement at a hastily called news conference.

Ferrell had his suitcases packed planning to leave his home in Greensboro, N.C., Monday for Lakeland, Fla., where he was to join other Tiger personnel and instruct young baseball players. Instead he got word to catch a plane for Detroit.

Fetzer's announcement said Ferrell, who with his brother Wally formed one of the game's most famous brother batteries, will "assume all of the duties of the General Manager as acting manager."

Ford Frick Fines Kirkland, Wagner

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick Monday fined Willie Kirkland and Leon Wagner, San Francisco Giants outfielders, $250 each and banned them from winter baseball for one year for breaking their Puerto Rican contracts.

Frick announced this action, the first he ever has taken against a player in Caribbean baseball, at his office after investigating the situation.

Kirkland was playing with the Santurce team and Wagner with Ponce in the Puerto Rican League. Both were among the leading hitters.

executive until such time as we name a General Manager."

He did not rule out the possibility that Ferrell could make it a regular job.

"Anything is possible in baseball," he said. "We will weigh this thing carefully. We will not hurry the matter. The Detroit club is fortunate to have a man like Ferrell in the organization to step into an emergency situation like this."

McHale's resignation stunned club officials. He said he took the Milwaukee job because it meant a bigger job and more money.

Although it has been club policy in recent years to promote people within its organization, Hansen indicated the door is wide open for candidates for General Manager's job who said "it is not for us to see it. It's up to them to see us now."

Ferrell, who has worked with McHale the last few years in various capacities, have full authority to trade. His first job will be to get the 40 players on the roster under contract for the 1959 season.

Six signings have been announced but several more are expected to be made.

Ferrell holds the American League's record for caught with 1,606 and has a batting average of .280. He coached four seasons in Detroit but was let out of the 1953 season.

He said the immediate fifth-place Tigers finish in the first division. "I hope to do well enough on my new job so I will be considered for the full-time position."

Gophers Beat Illinois, 81-70

Spartans Still Lead Big 10 Race

Ohio State Dumps Hawkeyes, 86-72

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota's overpowering might and a 28 point salvo by Ben Johnson whipped Illinois 81-70 Monday night and kept Michigan State safe in the Big 10 basketball driver's seat.

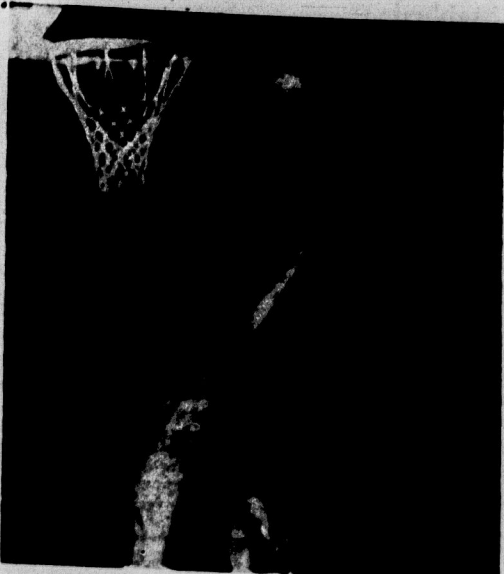

The Gophers confronted Illinois with a continuous relay of ball men—6-foot-5 and over—and the Illini speed and hustle couldn't counter Minnesota's rule of the backboards.

Johnson, the Gophers' 6-foot-11, 200-pound center, grabbed 16 rebounds and wrecked Illinois with his second half scoring.

The loss, the Illini's second in three conference games, deprived them of a share of the Big 10 lead. Minnesota moved in hot contention by beating its record to 4-2.

Illinois' only answer to Minnesota's towering rebounders was sophomore John Wessels at 6-foot-7, and he drew his fourth foul before the end of the half. The Gophers snared 48 rebounds to 34 for Illinois.

Illinois led through the first five minutes before Jerry Butler and Johnson moved the Gophers into a 13-12 advantage. The Gophers never trailed after and had a 41-33 lead at halftime.

BRUCE PETERSON, captain of Emmons 5 and high scorer of the first intramural basketball game in the Men's IM Building, puts in two points for his team. Despite his efforts, Emmons 7 was victorious, 50-38.

Beat Emmons 5 Emmons 7 Gets First Victory in IM Building

EMMONS 7 became the first team to be victorious on a basketball court in the new Men's Intramural Building as they routed over Emmons 5, 50-38, Monday night.

The first game in the new building IM Building setting started promptly, but increased pace. Two men were in double figures for Emmons 7. Roger Price with 14 and Bob Garvin with 12.

High for the losers and both teams was Bruce Peterson, shooting 18. Peterson played the best ball in the game, shooting well, helping with pass interceptions and rebounding.

When all the baskets are set up in the three gym in the Men's IM Building, intramural games will all be played here.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Basketball's Roy Campanella, who fought back from what must have appeared to him a losing death loss, led his team to a victory Monday night as the most courageous athlete of 1956.

The honor, annual feature presentation of the Philadelphia Sports Writers' Assn., tonight actually was presented to the marlin fisherman, former catcher of New York's Dodgers, as he has been named "Thursdays" Campanella, executive Philadelphia, decided against making a drive to the city for the occasion.

In his absence, a motion picture of the annual presentation to the 36-year-old Campy was shown to the more than 1,000 diners. Campanella was the first of the 26 recipients of the unusual award to be honored who didn't return to play again.

Campanella said in the film: "It's quite an honor to receive something like this, the most courageous athlete of the year, although I didn't even pick up a baseball. But I was fighting my own battle in another way and I did miss baseball last year. Any fellow would that played as much and as hard as I did in the 21 years that I played professional baseball.

"But I say it's another type of battle and I've been fighting. Sure, all of us like to live, and I'm one of them. And I hope to continue to live. And to live, you have to battle, or be courageous, just as this plaque says so.

The Los Angeles Dodgers recently signed him as a coach. He will head for Florida shortly to help get the Dodgers ready for the 1959 pennant race.

Ohio State pulled even with Iowa in the Big 10 Basketball Monday night with a relatively easy 86-72 win. It gave the Buckeyes an identical 2-4 record with the Hawkeyes. Iowa forward Dave Gunther was the game's top scorer with 23 points. But Ohio State's man-man defense held Big 10 scoring leader Clarence Wordlaw to 11.

Larry Siegfried with 22 and Al Roberts with 21 led the Buckeyes' attack.

Iowa jumped into a quick 4-0 lead on two baskets by Gunther and stayed in front until 8:11 in the first half. A six-point run by the Hawkeyes sent the Buckeyes ahead 20-19.

Ohio State was never headed for that stretching its lead to the points twice during the first half and building it to 14 as early as the first five minutes of the second half.

Instrumental in the Ohio win was the defensive work and rebounding of Dick Furry, who in the first half helped limit Wordlaw to only two points. In the second half, he shifted to Gunther and stuffed him with eight rebounds and poured in 13 in the first half.

Furry grabbed 11 rebounds, scored only on the Ohio squad as Roberts who picked off 15.

Philadelphia Downs Pistons in NBA Tilt

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP) — The Philadelphia Warriors handed the Detroit Pistons their seventh straight defeat 102-98 in a National Basketball Assn. game here Monday night.

The Warriors rallied from an 81-78 third period deficit to cash the victory, their third straight over the Pistons who won the first four games between the two teams this year.

Pacing the Philadelphia attack was Joe Graboski who hit for 30 points and Paul Arizin, the league's No. 2 high scorer, who collected 29 points.

In the final period it was Graboski who provided the Warriors with the lift that gave them the victory. He scored six of his team's first eight points in the opening minutes of the fourth period to push Philadelphia into an 86-84 lead.

Detroit tied it again at 88, but Graboski came right back with a fast-break basket to send the Warriors to a 90-88 lead which they never relinquished. During the final 12 minutes Graboski pumped in 11 points.

Detroit played without the services of its top scorer, George Yardley, who suffered a broken left hand in Boston Monday. Bill Jordan was high for the Pistons in scoring with 23 points.

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Don Newcombe doesn't just toss fast balls, the state charged Monday. He hurled a former policeman out of his tavern here and sped him along with some knee action, Assistant Essex County Prosecutor Maurice McKeown said.

Newcombe, former pitcher with the Los Angeles Dodgers and now with the Cincinnati Redlegs, is on trial with his two brothers on assault charges.

McKeown said in his opening statement that Ulysses Rose, 33, of East Orange, was ushered out of the tavern abruptly on Dec. 22, 1957. McKeown said Rose was trying to talk to Newcombe about a friend who had been supposedly barred from the tavern a week before.

When Newcombe denied it, Rose crossed the point and then Don's brother, Norman, snapped "get the heck out of here." McKeown said Don then threw Rose out into the street.

INDIANA HOOPSTERS

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Bob Wilkinson, Indiana University's only carryover starter from the 1958 Big 10 Basketball Championship squad, was decorated scholastically inept Monday.

Wilkinson and two other players will be benched for the rest of the season. Other casualties of mid-year examinations were Leroy Gamble, 5-foot-10 sophomore from Gary, Ind., and Glenn Butte, 6-foot-4 junior from Milan, Ind.

Wilkinson, 6-foot-1 junior from LaPorte, Ind., had started in 11 of Indiana's 12 games this season and had played in all of them. He had scored 96 points.

Yardley Sidelined 3 Weeks With Broken Left Hand

DETROIT (AP)—George Yardley's broken left hand was fitted with a new cast Monday and the Detroit Pistons' scoring ace will be sidelined for at least three weeks.

Doctors at Detroit Osteopathic Hospital, where the hand was x-rayed Monday, said Yardley would have to wear a light cast when he returns to the National Basketball Assn. grind. They said he would have to wear a heavy cast for three weeks.

Yardley broke his hand Sunday in a scramble under the basket as the Pistons lost their sixth straight game 119-118 in over-time to the Boston Celtics.

The scoring star, who set an NBA record last season with 2,001 points, flew here Monday night from Boston.

THE INN OF THE SIXTH HAPPINESS

BEFORE

MAJ. JESUS SOSA BLANCO, 51-year-old army man with 32 years of duty with Cuban forces, enjoys a bite of lunch in La Cabana fortress Thursday a few hours before he was to face a military trial in Havana. He was captured by revolutionary forces in Oriente Province and is accused of various "war crimes." This picture was made by AP Photographer Harry Harris who, with newsman William Glover, had an exclusive interview with Blanco just before the trial.

AFTER

SOSA BLANCO stands with his hands clasped as he hears his sentence of death before a firing squad after war crimes trial in Havana at the sports stadium Friday. The Cuban army officer was convicted by a Revolutionary military tribunal after a 13-hour trial on charges including that of murder.

Ex-General Talks Today On Campus

Lt. Gen. John Wilson O'Daniel, U.S. Army, Ret., will address student and faculty groups around the campus today. Better known as "Iron Mike," O'Daniel will speak on "Ambassadors in Uniform" at a noon meeting of the MSU Men's club, a faculty organization. Then at 4 p.m. he will speak on "Competing Strategies in the Cold War" at a meeting of the International Relations Club in room 33 of the Union.

All political science majors are requested to attend the International Relations Club talk, and everyone is welcome. Refreshments will be served. He also will visit MSU officials engaged in the university's assistance program in Vietnam during his one-day stay.

Among O'Daniel's numerous American and foreign military decorations are the Distinguished Service Cross, the Distinguished Service Medal with three oak leaf clusters and the Navy Distinguished Service Medal. He earned his nickname, "Iron Mike," because for years he has been one of the Army's top trouble-shooters. A career Army officer with service in both world wars and Korea, O'Daniel was military attaché with the American Embassy in Moscow from 1948-50, and chief U.S. military adviser in Saigon, Vietnam, from 1954-1955.

Since his retirement in 1956, O'Daniel has served as chairman of the American Friends of Vietnam, a civilian group dedicated to aiding the Vietnamese.

The cats listened, swayed, kept time by hand or foot as the contagious rhythm of the beat got through to them. It was Birdland, Broadway's cellar citadel of jazz, at 2:40 o'clock Monday morning.

"Then we heard a fight start near the bar," said one of the musicians, Hal Kusick. "We could hear shouting and scuffling but the bandstand lights were in our eyes and we couldn't see what was happening out there. From the bandstand, you can't see more than a yard in front of you. As the scuffle continued, we went into our finale, "Cherokee," a real wild arrangement. A woman yelled, some glass crashed. We finished the number, left the stand and learned Irving was dead."

Irving was Zachariah (Irving) Levy, 36, assistant manager of Birdland and brother of one of its owners. He was stabbed once near the heart during the scuffle at the long main bar of the club. He staggered back through a service entrance and there, out of view of most of the patrons, collapsed in death near a service bar.

The killer was believed to be a heavy set man of about 45 with blue eyes and sandy hair. A hat check girl described him as "a hopped-up jazz enthusiast."

The man slipped from the club immediately after the killing. With him was a dark-complexioned, heavily made up woman of about 30, with a long pony tail hair-do and a long white coat. To the hat check girl, she seemed a typical Broadway chorus-girl type.

A 15-state alarm was sent out for the couple.

Clinics Planned To Aid Freshmen

The usual summer Counseling Center program is being planned by the Counseling Center, MSU students who have participated in clinics are invited to encourage their high school senior friends and relatives to attend one of the summer clinics. Fifty-eight percent of the fall 1958 freshmen attended last summer's clinics. This program is available only to those who are tentatively accepted at MSU. The clinics give incoming students an opportunity to learn about campus life, get personal counseling and take some of the tests required for freshmen.

Truce Team Investigates

Jordan Border Guards Kill Israeli Soldier

JERUSALEM (AP)—Jordan guards shot and killed an Israeli soldier Monday. It was the first serious Jordan-Israeli border incident in months and United Nations truce team began immediate investigation.

The Israeli version of the incident said fire was opened from a Jordanian position in the Arab sector of Jerusalem near the Mandelbaum Gate. A spokesman said the dead soldier's comrades had to extricate his body under fire.

A Jordan military spokesman said the soldier was shot while trying to cross an unpatrolled area near the gate, official checkpoint between the armistice lines dividing the city, and because he ignored a warning to withdraw.

The spokesman said the Israeli used smokebombs to enable them to reach the body and also fired on Jordan positions, but without hitting anyone. Jordan complained to the UN Truce Supervision Organization. The shooting occurred only a short time after Israel instructed its UN delegate, Abba Eban, to request a special Security Council meeting to discuss "the series of Syrian acts of aggression." This stemmed from the fatal shooting of an Israeli shepherd on the Syrian border last Friday, and other previous incidents.

Radio, TV Ban Placed on War Crimes Trial

Chauffeur of Cuban President Arrested, Suspected of Dealing With Batista Thugs

HAVANA (AP)—Revolutionary authorities Monday announced the arrest of Heriberto Hernandez Esponda, chauffeur for provisional president Manuel Urrutia. He was accused of having been in contact with two ex-Batista gunmen now in the United States. Hernandez, described as a lieutenant in the rebel forces, was arrested by Socarras Trujillo, chief of the presidential palace police. Trujillo said Hernandez was charged with contacting ex-police Col. Esteban Ventura, now in Florida, and ex-Son Rolando Masferrer, now in a U.S. immigration detention center in McAllen, Tex. Amaury Noria, chief of the police department's legal division, said a letter addressed to ex-President Fulgencio Batista was found in Hernandez' home seeking that the latter be promoted for services rendered to Ventura and Masferrer.

The revolutionary government Monday banned radio and television broadcasts of the second trial of Havana's alleged war criminals.

It also moved the trial from the sports arena to a 200-seat courtroom and permitted the defendant's counsel to begin a study of the charges 5 1/2 hours before the start of the proceedings.

These arrangements for the trial of Capt. Pedro Morejon, 38-year-old career officer of the Cuban army, marked several changes from the trial of the first defendant, Maj. Jesus Sosa Blanco.

Sosa Blanco was convicted at 6 a.m. last Friday and sentenced to die before a firing squad after a 13-hour trial in Havana's 17,000-seat sports stadium.

Frequent interruptions by the hoots, jeers and laughs of the crowd and the radio and television broadcasts of the proceedings brought criticisms from abroad that the trial was more like a Roman circus than a court of justice.

Capt. Aristides Dacosta, the regular army man appointed to defend Sosa Blanco, met him for the first time at the arena and had only a 15-minute interview with the defendant to prepare the case.

But Capt. Dacosta, who also is defending Capt. Morejon, went to army headquarters at 8:30 a.m. today to begin studying the file of charges of assassination, homicide and robbery.

About 100 witnesses have been summoned to testify to the charges.

The scene of the trial was moved to the hall of justice of the Superior War Court just outside Havana.

The courtroom seats about 200 persons. A court official said seating preference would be given to the press.

Lt. Jesus Miguel Guerra, secretary to the revolutionary tribunal said the "suspension of television and radio (coverage) was ordered to avoid harming the sensitivity of the Cuban people."
