Dulles Gets Bipartisan Support

Promissory Notes Meet Disapproval

State Democrats Voice Opinions

By LYN SHEPARD

House Democrats are poised and ready to kill a plan by Rep. Willard Bowerman, Jr. (R-Lansing) to have state college and university students sign promissory notes providing funds for campus building projects.

A week-end poll of a dozen legislators indicates Bowerman's joint resolution stands small chance of gaining a necessary two-thirds majority when it comes up for floor debate Tuesday.

Here are some capsule comments from Democratic representatives interviewed:

Rep. Gilbert Wales (Stambaugh)—"It's going to create an additional cost to the students. I'm against it all the way."

Rep. Dominic Jacobetti (Marquette)—"I'm not only 100 percent against it, I'm 1,000 percent against it. I'm bitterly opposed and I'll do all I can to stop it. From my observations, I don't believe it's going to pass."

Rep. Einar Erlandisen (Escanaba)—"I'm opposed. It violates the principle of free public education we have set up in this state."

Rep. Charles Raap (Muskegon)—"Personally, I'm against it. This is nothing more than a raise in tuition."

Rep. Edgar Currie (Detroit)—"I'll vote against it. I don't think Bowerman is going to get all those votes (73) he needs."

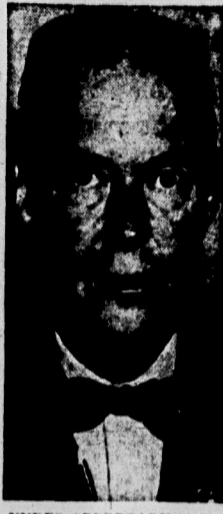

Republican George Sallie (Ann Arbor) also voiced his intent to vote against the Bowerman plan saying he "opposed it from beginning to end." Rep. Russell Strange (R-Clare) said he "intended to encourage" the resolution along with most other Republicans.

WBRS Tonight

Dr. Hannah To Discuss Regulations

President John A. Hannah will discuss the reasons, standards and effects of student regulations tonight at 7 p.m. over WBRS, Brody Radio. This may concern clothing, housing, ROTC and liquor, according to Duane Chapman, program moderator.

Hannah said Friday that if the program proves effective, he would consider a series of discussions over WKAR.

WKAR Production and Facilities Manager Jim Finucan said the station would welcome such a series.

Chapman, Muskegon Heights sophomore, said he hopes the program will shed light on what some people consider a high level attempt to create a high student uniformity.

"Inquisition" is his brain child. He said its future is to present interesting and perhaps unusual programs, among them, atheism, bio-physics, sex, astronomy, mental hygiene and communism.

Since WBRS broadcasts only to the Brody dorms, students are invited to attend Monday's broadcast from the Brody movie room. Time permitting, floor questions will be allowed. Over 150 seats are available, Chapman said.

A Bailey hall representative to Student Congress, Chapman has a $1,000 Alumni Distinguished Scholarship award. He also has a $500 Ford Foundation scholarship for debate and carries a 3.9 average.

Studio Theater Tryouts Tonight

Tryouts for the touring company of "The Imaginary Invalid" will be tonight and Tuesday, in the Studio Theater, 49 Aud from 7-10 p.m.

The technical crew, limited to four by touring restrictions, will also be selected during tryouts.

This Moliere comedy of three women and five men, will be staged in three-quarter arena by the director, Patton Lockwood. The tour of Michigan cities will be during the third week of the spring term. Enrolled students with 2-point averages are eligible for roles.

BLOB Deadline

Today is the last day of BLOB, IFC's "Bring Lots of Books" campaign, according to chairman Bill Durrell. Books will be collected today in all dormitories and sorority and fraternity houses.

Federal Crackdown Proposed

20 Percent Cut Asked on Payroll

WASHINGTON (AP)—The chairman of the House Appropriations Committee called Sunday for a crackdown on what he described as payroll padding by government agencies.

"Untold millions of dollars can be saved by getting rid of some of the thousands of unnecessary jobs," Rep. Clarence Cannon (D-Mo) said in an interview.

"Since the agencies themselves aren't likely to cooperate in an employment curtailment move," Cannon said, "Congress must step in."

He proposed that Congress use its power of the purse string to get results.

Cannon said he would urge the House to include in its next appropriation bill a provision which would have the effect of cutting payrolls an estimated 20 percent without anyone being fired.

It would require that three out of every four vacancies occurring during the year be left vacant until an agency's overall personnel roster dropped to 80 percent of what it was in the preceding year.

The only exceptions would be vacancies occurring in policy-level jobs requiring Senate confirmation.

"Payrolls constitute one of the largest items of expense in the federal budget," Cannon said. "If we are going to cut down the budget, the payrolls are the best starting place. All the agencies have more employees than they need. There is not a single one of them that couldn't do its job efficiently and effectively with fewer employees to get in each other's way."

Spanish Club Sets Comedy Wednesday

"La Tia de Carlos," the Spanish version of "Charley's Aunt," is scheduled for Wednesday evening at 8:30 in the Fairchild Theater. Sigma Delta Pi, national Spanish honorary society, will sponsor the play.

Anyone interested in foreign languages particularly Spanish is invited to attend.

The comedy, which is based on the hilarious situations of the English original, centers around the efforts of two young Ecuadorian students, Carlos and Jorge, who are in love with two winsome and willing sisters.

The students' prime objective is to get the girls' over-protective tutor to consent to their marriage.

As the story unravels, Carlos' aunt, whose presence is needed at a private luncheon given for the girls, is detained, and the boys prevail upon their young actor friend, Telesforo, who is in rehearsal for the role of a woman, to substitute for the real aunt. The complications arising from this situation are familiar to those who know the English comedy.

RENOWNED PIANIST Leon Fleisher will perform tonight at 8:15 on the Lecture-Concert Series.

Bach, Brahms, Ravel

Fleisher Concert Slated Tonight on L-C Series

Music by Bach, Mozart, Brahms, Kirchner and Ravel will be performed by concert pianist Leon Fleisher on the Lecture-Concert Series at 8:15 in the Aud tonight.

Fleisher, the first American to win the famed Queen Elizabeth of Belgium International Music Competition award, will open program with a chorale-include, "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach-Hess, and will continue with "Sonata in C Major" (K-310) by Mozart and "Variations and Fugue on a Theme of Handel" by Brahms.

The second half of his program will include "Sonata" (19-48) by Kirchner and two selections by Ravel, "Sonatine" and "Alborada del Gracioso."

Making his debut with the San Francisco Symphony under Pierre Monteux in 1942, Fleisher has since played recitals throughout the United States and appeared with most of the major orchestras. He also has concertized extensively in Europe.

It was in 1952 that Fleisher competed with 71 talented young pianists of America and 27 other countries and won the Queen Elizabeth of Belgium International Music Competition award at Belgium's International Concours, a tournament for young musicians.

Students may pick up tickets at the Union Ticket Office by exchanging activity book coupons.

International Club Sets Dinner Date

If you have a yen for shish-kabob, arroz con pollo or even petit fours, there's a chance to sample all these dishes at the International Dinner scheduled March 7, at 6:30 p.m. in the Short Course Cafeteria on south campus.

Besides the afore mentioned delicacies from Arabia, South America and France, the menu will also include exotic dishes and deserts from Ceylon, Germany, Viet-Nam, Iran, Turkey, and Hawaii.

Food for the annual dinner sponsored by the International Club will be prepared by foreign students and faculty.

To add cosmopolitan flavor, foreign students will attend in native costume and entertainment will feature performers from India, China, and South America.

Tickets for the international affair are $1.50 per person.

Legislators Disapprove Of Removal

'Immediate Talks Need Substitute'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles got fresh bipartisan support from Congress members Sunday in the face of proposals by Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) and the American Veterans Committee that he be replaced.

Democrats as well as Republicans generally voiced disapproval of suggestions that President Eisenhower appoint a new secretary of state because of Dulles' illness with cancer. Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn) was one of the few exceptions.

Symington proposed in St. Louis Saturday that a successor to Dulles be named to "continue such delicate negotiations" as those over Berlin and the current Geneva conference. He said "I don't think Dulles can run the state department from a hospital."

The national board of the American Veterans Committee adopted a resolution here Saturday urging Eisenhower to appoint a new secretary of state without delay.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, assistant Democratic floor leader and a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, disagreed. He said he regards Dulles as almost indispensable at this time, and added:

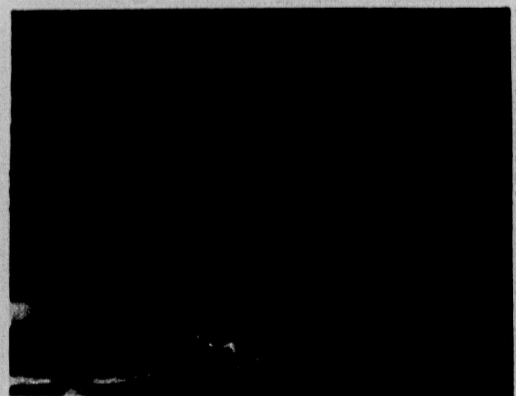

"It is my hope that this man, with his great knowledge, his capacity for leadership and his understanding of the situation will be able to continue to lead the Western nations."

The Montana senator said that if it is possible for Dulles to continue to function as secretary of state, he hopes the forthcoming Western foreign ministers conference—and any East-West meeting that results—will be held in Washington to conserve Dulles' strength.

SAE Roman Toga Blaze P's Estimated $1,000 Damage

A fire which broke out Friday evening in the SAE basement caused an estimated $1,000 worth of damage.

The fire was discovered at 8 p.m. by John Probst, Detroit grad, SAE, who was visiting for the weekend. He had gone to look at the decorations for a Roman Toga party which was to be held later that evening.

Two fire engines arrived within minutes and fought the flames and smoke for 35 minutes. The three-year-old dog Brandy, a St. Bernard, remained faithful to his house and stayed in it while the firemen fought the blaze.

SAE's had decorated their room Roman style with a water fountain in the middle of the floor. Two hoses squirted water by means of an electric water pump. The fire marshal has not yet determined the cause of the fire which started near or in the fountain.

The Toga party was still held, but in the living room. The food was unharmed.

A FEW THOUSAND fans increase tension as Saturday night basketball game with Purdue nears end.

In 'Must' Game

94-87 Win Cops Big 10 Title Share

By CHUCK RICHARDS

Many things go into making a championship athletic team. But nothing is so important as the ability to react in a crucial situation.

Under this premise Michigan's basketball team is a champion.

They proved it Saturday night with the best pressure performance of the year in defeating Purdue, 94-87, before 12,312 fans in Jonsson Fieldhouse to assure at least a share of the Big 10 basketball title.

Michigan is now 9-2 in the conference and 15-3 over-all.

Everything pointed to the game as a "must" contest for the team—and both played well.

Before the players took the court they knew Indiana had won the Illinois, 100-98, to drop to a second-place tie with Purdue, leaving only Purdue a chance to win.

Indiana took the lead—but Coach Freddy Anderson's Spartans refused to yield.

But despite shooting problems in the first half (only 28 percent), the Spartans led at the conclusion, 42-39. The reason: hot hustle and rebounding. Michigan's edge on the boards was 23 in the half and 71-49 in the game.

But when the choice of victory or defeat looked the Spartans in the face, they came through.

Michigan continued its good hustle, while rebounding, and scored in the field at a 53 percent rate to stop Purdue.

When all the credits to a championship team are set aside, however, there must remain a desire for recognition for a determined fellow named Tom Hand. Hand has had his troubles this year, especially with Dave Hand waiting on the bench. But the job had to be done, and did it.

The Boilermakers collapsed to allow John Green from getting in under the basket and Hand left open. The 6' 3" senior had the chance and capitalized on the time of 16 points, a career high.

He can overlook Bob Anderson's big co-captain repeating worked his way under the basket and with just one shot, the CAGERS, page 5)

'Viva Peron' Now Heard

Mysterious Voice Yells On Radio

Police on Alert For Broadcasters

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Now you hear it... now you don't.

A mysterious little radio station with a strange voice that kept up something like "Viva Peron" has captured the Argentine public in a way that the cops are going crazy. They don't allow that kind of talk around here.

Juan Peron is the dictator who was ousted by revolution in 1955, but is now in exile in the Dominican Republic.

Peron left behind what they call his "Peronistas." They are the ones who adore the fallen man and dream of the day when aging Peron might come back again.

The Peronistas caused all sorts of trouble for the military regime which ran the country for two years after Peron was ousted out. They kept on stirring up trouble for the constitutional government now headed by President Arturo Frondizi.

Several weeks ago a monitor of the communications department of the federal police picked up an eye-opening broadcast which suddenly popped up on the air with all sorts of "Vivas" for Peron and heaps of insults to the Frondizi government.

The alarm was sounded but the dragnet failed to catch its prey. The cops are irked. The police is thoroughly enjoying the chase.

An reduction has been done.

Speaks on Viewpoint

Vice President Miller Urges University Non-Conformity

Dr. Paul Miller, vice president for off-campus education, Sunday urged universities to resist the tendency to be like other universities.

Such a drift, he said, might lead to a standard definition of the American university and find one university living according to another's rules and definitions rather than trying to discover its own mission and individuality.

Speaking on Viewpoint at WKAR radio with Dr. John Payne, professor of philosophy, and Major John Baran, the university's regular host, the MSU vice president also expressed concern about a set of standard substitutes for "academic quality," "academic responsibility," "fundamental research," "intellectual level of classes" and "scholarly production."

The trouble with these symbols, he said, is that they may conventionalize knowledge on the one hand and make more exclusive the focus on the teacher and scholar on the other.

What is wanted, he said, is

Spartacade: Campus Aid To Charities

Spartacade is held under the auspices of Campus Chest. This is Campus Chest's main money-making project each year.

Campus Chest is MSU's equivalent of the Community Chest or Red Feather Agencies. The students at MSU will be able to have fun at Spartacade as well as donating to charity at the same time. Audience participation booths in Jenison will offer such things as dunking coeds in tubs of water, gambling in a casino, throwing cakes at coeds, playing miniature golf, or being hauled into court for various reasons. Business Executives Flock To Campus for Kellogg Meet

Joining the thousands of students on campus today will be a group of seasoned business executives.

While many of the young students are working toward graduation and a crack at the business world, these successful business leaders are heading back to school.

This extensive conference provides these men the opportunity to not only consider the general administrative problems of top management, but also the chance to gain additional knowledge of problems encountered in areas other than their special fields," explains Ward McDowell, associate professor of business administration and director of this executive program.

"Continuing self-development is a very real and personal thing with the men who attend this annual program," he continues. The conference is designed to help the executives function more effectively in their present positions and to prepare them for the possibility of assuming greater future responsibilities.

"In brief," McDowell says, "the program is designed to encourage the development of the individual and his ability to think creatively to meet new and changing conditions."

Music by Muzak Reduces Tensions of Olin Patients

Music may have charm to soothe the average beast, but it also has charm to soothe the weary and ill student.

It is because of this belief and a desire to reduce the tension of patients who must wait before seeing a doctor, that Olin Memorial Hospital has installed a prerecorded music process called Muzak throughout the building, according to Hospital Director James Feurig.

Soft pleasant music such as that of Muzak often acts as a sedative upon those patients in a waiting room and helps make their wait more comfortable, said Feurig.

The expense involved in this process was quite small, as the hook-up used "is the same as that at Kellogg Center and the Union Building," he said. No amplifying system was needed, as the paging system which runs throughout the hospital has been hooked up to carry the music.

Alumni Uprising Beats Varsity

The Alumni team, composed of ex-Spartan stars, proved Saturday it could match the speed and endurance of the Varsity by winning, 5-3, in a dual meet.

The Alumni split the singles winning three and losing three. But the Alumni displayed poise and mastery in taking two straight matches after dropping the opener.

After the Varsity's Bill Hotchkiss bested Bill Bisard, 11-9, 3-6, 7-5, the Alumni rallied to win three consecutive catches.

Tom Belton, of the 1953 team, played a skillful game in defeating State's No. 1 player, Foster Hoffman, 6-2, 3-6, 6-4.

Dave Mills, star of the 1952 squad, disposed of State's No. 2 player, Bob Sassack, in easy fashion, 6-2, 6-4.

Jack Singleton, of the 1949 team, lost only two games in whipping Roger Plagenhoef in straight sets, 6-2, 6-0.

The Spartans rallied to regain some of their lost prestige by winning the next two matches in hotly-contested affairs.

State's Doug Smith found Dave Brogan, of the 1956 squad, a formidable opponent. Smith lost the opening set, 3-6, but won the second 6-2, and struggled to a 11-9 win the finale.

The oldest member of the Alumni entry, Rex Norris, of the 1934 team, gave Ron Mescall a good tennis lesson but lost, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4.

The Varsity's No. 1 doubles combination of Hotchkiss and Hoffman ran into some stiff competition against the twosome of Belton and Bisard, and had to settle for a draw, 6-2, 9-11.

Frank Beeman, IM director, State's Mescall and Sassack, 6-2, matched with Singleton defeated 6-4.

Mills and Howard Trier dumped Plagenhoef and Smith, 6-2, 1-6, 6-3.

In the first meeting between the two respective teams, the Varsity edged the Alumni, 5-4.

The selection of Michigan State and Sam Williams as All-American in 1956 marks him as the 25th Spartan football player to gain the honor.

Modine Breaks Seven Records In 64-41 Loss to Wolverines

IN THE LAST RACE of the meet, Michigan State's Billy Stewart is already gone, as this picture testifies, leaving Michigan's Harry Huffaker behind. And that is exactly where the Wolf stayed as the Spartans won this one in 3:23.7, new Big 10 record.

By SUZETTE RAMSEY
 Frank Modine gave the performance of the night ridday in casting aside all records in the 200 yard reastroke. His 2:22.4 me surpassed seven records, including the American record of 2:23.3 set by Charles Griffin, Hill School 1958.

Modine beat Cy Hopkins and on Clark of Michigan. He established new NCAA, pool, and SU varsity records set by Modine; bettered the NCAA championship record, also set by Modine; bettered the Big 10 record, 4 by his opponent Hopkins, and set a dual meet record set by Hopkins.

MSU lost the meet to the University of Michigan, favorite, the Big 10, but by a not-louppressing score of 64-41. Many the races were lost by tenths a second as champions on th squads met each other.

Don Patterson, captain for the artans, and Carl Wooley, had d it out in two "photo finish" races.

The 100-yard freestyle race the dual meet record, and ttered the Big 10 and NCAA championship records.

Billy Stewart beat Michigan's ick Hanley and Pete Fries in the 220-yard freestyle, establishing a new MSU varsity and pool records, and a new dual meet record, set by his opponent Hanley.

Stewart also beat Hanley and John Urbansook, who came in second in the 440-yard freestyle to establish MSU varsity and dual meet marks, both set by Stewart with a 4:32.4.

Eight Wins for Young

Woodin's Pin Gives Matmer 16-14 Win Over Minnesota

By JIM WALLINGTON

Tim Woodin had a job to do. His team was on the short end of a 14-11 score and it was the final bout of Friday's MSU-Minnesota wrestling match. State needed a pin to defeat the Gophers. A decision would result in an undesirable 14-14 deadlock.

It was Woodin's turn. His opponent was Pete Veldman, an undefeated 220 pounder. Despite size disadvantage, the Spartan heavyweight swarmed all over the Gopher and pinned him in two minutes and 16 seconds to give State a 16-14 victory and a 6-4 season record.

Woodin wasn't the only Spartan that did his job.

Jim Ferguson also gained a pin over Gopher Joe Paddock in winning his fifth straight match. The 4:53 fall was his first for the State 167 pound captain.

Alling Norm Young finally climbed back into the winner's seat downing Minnesota's Dan Board. Young was down 1-0 going into the third round but scored four points to win. It was his eighth victory.

Bob Moser chipped in three points to the Spartan cause taking a decision 5-0 triumph over Harry Schieff. The 137 pound Schieff, who now has a 4-2 record, kept running away from the Spartan junior all night. He repeated attempts for point-of-sounds brought him a point per ally.

The other four MSU wrestlers didn't fare as well.

John McCray had his for match skin blasted when he was pinned in the third round of his 177 pound match with Bill Wright. Actually McCray improved as the same wrestler pinned his in a tournament in 2:49.

Joe Marchal (123), Bill Guernario (137) and Gordon Johnson (147) all were soundly beaten in their bouts.

The defeat was only Minnesota's second this season. The other one was administered by Iowa state averaged last year's defeat when Minnesota won 21-12. Early this year Minnesota was third in a quad-tournament won by MSU.

State travels to Ann Arbor Friday for a meet with Michigan the final bout of the dual season before the Big 10 championships March 6 and 7 in Iowa City.

WED MEET Michigan State's Lance Olson (No. 30) seems to say as the referee signals a foul as State beat Purdue, 91-87. The wild scramble for the ball involves Purdue's Willie Merriweather (left, No. 43) and Wilson Elson (No. 21) and State's Horace Walker (No. 15), John Green (on floor) and Bob Anderreg.

Just Ask Fordy

All Victories Are Not Easy

Fordy Anderson looked calm standing in the hallway outside the Michigan State locker room. You talked to him.

Anderson's gaze kept looking up on the wall as if he were somewhere else. It is easy to guess where. The outstanding coach of Michigan State's basketball team had just watched his team clinch at least a share of the Big 10 title. The national championship game was long enough to answer a few questions.

Both teams kept the pressure on and we kept not to be so good as it to come up the game. We just got not when it counted.

This was the key one. If we lost, the psychological and mental pressure would be against us.

Anderson was forced to stop repeatedly to mechanically recognize the congratulations of well-wishers.

John Green came out of the locker room looking not at all like a winner.

"How do you feel, John?" Anderson asked as Green passed.

Green just shook his head with a pained look.

"Maybe it was that fruit you ate before the game," offered Anderson.

Bucks, Irish Hand Fencers Two Worst Stabbings

The MSU fencing team suffered two of its worst defeats of the season this weekend as they bowed 10-9 and 20-12 to Ohio State and Notre Dame respectively.

The Spartans couldn't find one winning combination as they lost 8-1, 6-1, 3-4, and 3-4 against Ohio State. The pattern was almost repeated as they lost to Notre Dame 3-4 in open, 7-2 in foil and 8-1 in epee.

Art Dowd compiled the best record for the epee squad as he had 4-2 for the day. Doug Jewell and Carl Knight both had 1-4 records.

The foil team found too much experience in the three Notre Dane lettermen as Chuck Schmitt, Jr. and Terry Glenn gained only one win apiece. The trio did a little better against Ohio State as Glenn and Schmitt were each 2-1, and Doug Lawrence was 0-2. Larry Backus also saw some action and looked promising, although he lost his bout 3-4.

The epee team couldn't find the range in either meet. Steve Armstrong captain came up with the only victory against Ohio State and Don Johnson accounted for the lone win against Notre Dame.

Next week the swordsmen will be competing in four dual meets with Indiana, Case and Wayne University at Detroit.

EYE HI-LITES

by Dr. Joseph B. Gutstein

Questions about eye problems will be answered by Dr. J. B. Gutstein in this column every Monday

QUESTION:

How old must a patient be before he can wear contact lenses?

ANSWER:

There is no age limit for contact lenses. Patients have been fitted as young as 5 years of age and successful fittings have been made on patients past 70 years of age. As long as the patient's eye are suitable for contact lenses, and he is old enough to be trained to handle the lenses, age is no barrier.

QUESTION:

I am coming from out of town and expect to be in Lansing for 10 days. Can I be completely fitted for contact lenses in that time? I have heard that one should be in the same city as the doctor for 1 month at least.

ANSWER:

Yes! to all parts of your question. You can (and will) be completely fitted to contact lenses in the 10 days. We do this by increasing the frequency of the visits (every day) and complete cooperation of the laboratory, patient and doctor.

Second in Triangular Thinclads Trampled By WMU Broncos

Revenge is sweet. One would think Western Michigan's thinclads coined this phrase in view of their 92-point performance in Saturday's triangular meet with Michigan State and Marquette at Kalamazoo.

Taking 12 of the scheduled 15 events, the Broncos outscored the Spartans, who managed second with 44 points, and Marquette, last with 35. Last week Western lost to Michigan, 112-49 1/2, in a dual meet.

Last fall, Michigan State's cross country team, winners of the Big 10, IC4A and NCAA championships, lost a close 27-30 dual meet decision to Western early in the season.

But the Spartans turned the tables in the nationals, scoring 79 points to Western's 101, to take their seventh title in the twenty-year history of the meet.

Even MSU's Fordy Kennedy, the first Spartan runner to cop the individual crown at the NCAA, was beaten by Bronco runner Jerry Ashmore in the two-mile run Saturday.

Kennedy's 9:16.7 run, his best time indoors this year, failed to match Ashmore's 9:13.6 effort. Kennedy beat Ashmore twice last year, once in a dual meet and again in the nationals. The Bronco runner placed third in the NCAA.

But all was not lost. Despite Western's domination of the meet, two Spartan sophomores, Jason Harness and Al Neuman, once again stood out in the Spartan's defeat.

Harness, an end on the Spartan's football team, tied for first in the high jump with a 6' 2" effort. Entered in five different events, the Spartan speedster sure strength, put in basket after basket.

The result was the highest scoring total in his career, 29 points.

No one missed the contribution of Green, either. The heart of the Spartans overcame a case of butterflies to seize 25 rebounds (half Purdue's team total) and score 34 points.

Horace Walker had trouble finding the range but still scored 11 points and took 16 rebounds. Lance Olson, playing with a reinforced heel, fouled out early in the first half but contributed three important baskets.

Fahs relieved Olson and chipped in with eight points.

The officials saw to it that there was a parade to the foul line in the first period by calling 34 fouls.

The second half was entirely different. The game turned into a rough-and-tumble affair in which a few fights threatened to break out.

It was a wild affair in which the lead changed hands frequently until the halfway mark of the second half. Then the Spartans took a three-point lead. The margin was trimmed by Purdue to one, then State returned it to three, then back to one. It looked many times as if Purdue would finally win under the pressure but it didn't.

Anderson called time and the Spartans went into a stall. Anderreg was fouled with 18 left but missed the first of a one-and-one situation.

Green made a great leap, seized the ball, came down, and jumped again to put it in. He then stole the ball from Merriweather and threw a long pass to Fahs who missed the layup. Rand tipped it in as the buzzer sounded.

Blood Drive Ends Without Reaching Goal

The annual winter term blood drive ended Friday without reaching its goal of 300 pints each day. Final percentages are still in the revision stage. East Shaw won the AWS-Men's Activity Council plaque for the men's dorm with the highest percentage of blood given. Butterfield was second. For women's dorms, West Mayo will be presented with a plaque from AWS-MAC. East Mayo was second. Sigma Phi Epsilon and Farmhouse will share the Phi Delta Theta trophy for reaching 100 percent and will also share a MAC-AWS plaque. Elmworth House will also receive a MAC-AWS plaque. Winning ticket stubs for Friday are: 03927, 03834, 03888, 03904, 03861, 03917, 03906, 03869. Winners must pick up prizes by 8 p.m. today in the Union Courtyard.

Home Ec Coeds Attend Conference

Others who attended the workshop are: Karen Clinton, Pontiac junior; Ann Dunwell, Kalamazoo junior; Jean Dupuis, Pittsburg senior; Carol Rathbun, Flint junior; and Eudna Smith, Lansing sophomore. They were accompanied by Miss Rosalind Mentzer, assistant to the dean of Home Economics.

WE'RE LOOKING FORWARD TO MEETING YOU

Last year we had the pleasure of meeting many engineering and science seniors during our visit to the campus. As a result of our discussions, a gratifying number chose to join our company.

We'll be back on the dates below, and this notice is your invitation to come in and see us. If you're interested in joining a company that's a leader in fields-with-a-future, you'll be interested in the advantages Boeing can offer you. Boeing is in volume production of Bomarc, the nation's longest range defense missile, and is a prime contractor on Minuteman, an advanced solid-propellant intercontinental ballistic missile system. Boeing also holds a Phase I development contract for Dyna-Soar, a boost-glide vehicle.

Research projects at Boeing include celestial mechanics, hypersonics, energy conversion, solid state physics, nuclear and plasma physics, advanced propulsion systems, space flight, and the effects of high temperatures on structures and materials.

Boeing is also the nation's foremost designer and builder of multi-jet aircraft. Production includes eight-jet B-52 global bombers, KC-135 jet transport-tankers and America's first jet airliner, the famous Boeing 707.

Expanding programs at Boeing offer outstanding career opportunities to graduates in engineering, science, mathematics, physics and related fields. Boeing's continuing growth, in addition, offers promising opportunities for advancement.

We hope you'll arrange an interview through your Placement Office. We're looking forward to meeting you.
