Michigan State News

Elections End Today After Numerous Flare-ups

Today is election day—again. If you are an undergraduate carrying a semester deficiency, you are not eligible to vote. Any undergraduate carrying a semester deficiency who wishes to vote must first receive a waiver of deficiency from the university registrar.

The voting hours are as follows:

- Tuesday, November 5:
  - 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.
  - 3 p.m. to 7 p.m.

VOTING WILL LAPEL pins be worn in the voting booths. No one will be permitted to vote unless they have a voting card.

Elections are:
- Treasurer:
  - Larry Martinez, Mexico
  - Kay Lawrence, Riverdale, Ill.
- Secretary:
  - Gary Green, Eleven Mile Road, Elkhart, Ind.
  - Bill Thompson, Toledo
- Auditor:
  - Betty Holsinger, Grand View, Des Moines, Iowa
  - John Harrison, Grand View, Des Moines, Iowa

Anti-Castro Rebel Sources Say Western Cuba Province Taken

Letters Fail To Sway Politicians

As AM MARTINO and Robert Kotschevar reported, AUSG spent $5,545.50 on letters to prospective students. This is less than the $7.9 million offered by the AUSG.

Men's Glee Club To Perform Tonight

In Laos Cease-Fire Talks Successful Guerilla Attack Boosts Communist Position

U.S. Denies Charge of Invasion

Library Head To Write For Encyclopedia

Pink Slips Cause More AUSG 'Hanky-Panky'

Did Dudley Maynard have News Staff Reporter? Pink slips in the new dorms were the object of an AUSG investigation Monday.
MSU Jazz Professor Gives Rock and Roll the Razz

By CURT RENSEN
State News Feature Writer

Rock and roll and various and blues are not yet, according to Dr. Curt Rensen, one of the nation's leading authorities on the music of the young, serious and children.

"You begin the popular form of music when you feel it," says Hal, "and are the kid, not the grown-up."

In explaining how these forms of music came into being. Hal said:

"You like the world the way it's been set up, and you don't like it. You like the world the way it is and you don't like it."

There are two main types of music: folk and popular. Folk music is the music of the people, the music of the young, and popular music is the music of the adults.

Hal, who has a regular contributor to the Encyclopedia Britannica Yearbook and the Encyclopedia of Popular Culture, has compiled a list of the ten most popular songs ever recorded.

Tuesday, April 18, 1961

Eichmann Pleads 'Not Guilty' To 15 Counts on Charge

JERUSALEM — Israel's top war crimes court today heard the first full day of testimony in the trial of former SS officier Adolf Eichmann for his role in the Holocaust. Eichmann pleaded not guilty to all charges.

In his opening remarks, Assistant Prosecutor Lee Hafan told the court, "The defense is that Eichmann is not guilty. He pleads not guilty to all 15 counts.

The prosecution will prove that Eichmann was a key figure in the Nazi deportation and murder of millions of Jews."

Eichmann, 52, stood before three judges in a white shirt and dark trousers, his hair greying at the temples. He spoke in a clear, steady voice.

He wore a pair of black shoes and a white shirt, and he stood at a wooden desk.

"I am 23," he said.

"I am a German citizen. I served in the German army during World War II.

"I worked for the Gestapo, and I was responsible for the deportation of Jews to concentration camps.

"I am charged with crimes against humanity."

The trial, which is expected to last several months, is being held in a specially built court in Jerusalem.

"The prosecution will prove that Eichmann was involved in the mass murder of Jews during World War II."

Eichmann's attorney, Mr. Hafan, said his client was innocent. He argued that Eichmann was just doing his job.

"Eichmann was just following orders. He was not responsible for the crimes.

"The prosecution is trying to make him a scapegoat."
Moon Problem Is Dust

Nothing To Sneeze At

By BILL SMALL
State News Editor

A man on the moon will be able to give the best al fresco demonstration of the power of the eye and the brain. According to Dr. W. K. H. Harrison, of the University of Michigan, human eyes are not as good when used in a light-reduced environment as they are in full sunlight.

The power of the eye and the brain is so great that it can be used to see the moon's surface from the Earth. According to Dr. Harrison, the moon's surface is made of fine particles of dust and small rocks.

AUSG Elections

Delegates to the First Big Ten Delegates To Discuss Values were appointed by the Second Big Ten Delegates.

Delegates to the First Big Ten Delegates will be appointed by the Second Big Ten Delegates. The Second Big Ten Delegates will be appointed by the First Big Ten Delegates. The First Big Ten Delegates will be appointed by the Second Big Ten Delegates.

Cuba

(Continued from Page 2)

The Havana government of Cuba has been forced to give way to the United States, which has occupied the island for the past ten years. The United States has been in control of Cuba for the past ten years.

Cuba is not taking part in the Second World War, but it is helping to supply the United States with oil and other supplies.

Youth's Future

To Be Aired By Bentley

Alvin Bentley will need to be a manager of youth in the future to be able to earn a living. He is a manager of youth in the future.

The student body of the University of Cambridge in London, England, will discuss the future of youth in the United States.

Two European Math Experts Lecture Here

Two European mathematics experts will lecture at the University of Cambridge in London, England. Their lecture will be on the future of youth in the United States.

Outstanding Students Get Scholarships

Four outstanding students will receive scholarships at the University of Cambridge in London, England. Their lecture will be on the future of youth in the United States.

Spanish Club Will Hear Lecture on U.S. Tourists

Spanish Club will hear a lecture on U.S. tourists. The speaker will be a native of the United States.
Pledges must have varsity "S" sweater and blank paddle. Prospective pledges are requested to meet on the west steps of the Union Wednesday morning, April 19, at 6:15 a.m.

C. A. SMITH
...Story's Golfing captain ...

Rod Laver
Now Wears
Net Crown

BOYINGTON, Tex. — Rod haired Rod Laver snapped Roy Emerson's victory to win the New York Times Tennis Tournament in New York Tuesday afternoon.

Laver, a three-time champion, had defeated his countryman and tennis partner, Roy Emerson, 4-6, 7-5, 6-3, 6-4, to win the $15,000 first prize.

Emerson, who had been seeded to win, appeared flustered in the final game and was uncharacteristically unpredictable.

Emerson had won his first two matches, but lost the last one to Laver 4-6, 7-5, 6-3, 6-4.

Laver, who has been ranked first in the world for three straight years, lowered his chances of winning the Australian Davis Cup team provisional favorite 74, 73, 74.

Laver earlier had bounced back after losing the advantage five games to four, won the key ninth game of the fourth set to take a 5-4 lead and then held on to win.

Emerson had held the advantage three games to two, before Laver won the next two games, taking the set.

Now Wears

Jerry Lucas Off
To Soviet Union

PITTSBURGH — Jerry Lucas, high-scoring star of the Ohio State and three-NBA champion Buckeyes, has accepted an invitation to represent the United States in the Soviet Union.

Lucas, who has been quoted as saying he wanted to play in the Soviet Union, expects to be in New York Friday to a meeting with the American Olympic Committee.

He will then travel to Moscow, where he will represent the U.S. in the 1961 world championships.

Jerry Lucas Off
To Soviet Union

RAMBOSS: Baseball, St
Politics, No, Amigo

Ramos: Baseball, St

TODAY

140 HASLETT

Yanks Down Athletics, 3-0

LIBERTY — By allowing the runners to score, Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris and the New York Yankees drubbed the Washington Senators Thursday in a 3-0 victory.

The Yankees scored three unearned runs in the fourth inning and had six hits against Rod{}Bazzar, the Senators' star left-hander.

Mantle singled, was popped into a double play by Maris, led off the fifth inning and scored on a cross field single by Roger Maris.

Mantle, who had two hits, scored from first on a cross field single by Roger Maris.

Mantle, who had two hits, scored from first on a single by Maris.

Mantle, who had two hits, scored from first on a cross field single by Roger Maris.

Mantle, who had two hits, scored from first on a
single by Maris.

Mantle, who had two hits, scored from first on a
single by Maris.
Belgium Won't Aid Congo
Unless Help Is Requested

By DICK JOHNSON
State News Staff Writer

Felix Standaert, Consul General of Belgium, said Thursday that the Congo should be allowed to make its own decision on whether it wants the 12,000 Belgian troops it was asked to have in the country a year ago to leave unless Belgium is asked to withdraw them by the Congolese government. Standaert observed that the Congo is "far from stable, with many other African countries in an explosive political situation".

"The Congolese leaders say that the Congo should be free from Belgian influence, and I am sure that they will not ask for Belgium's help," Standaert added, "and I was against Belgium's proposal to leave the Congo, on the same basis, with the Congo, if they were asked to leave unless the Congolese government wanted them and not 'as representatives of a government.' He emphasized that these positions were "administrative positions in the Congo government".

He said that if the Congo wanted the Belgians to leave, "Belgium would leave, but they must be asked, not 'as representatives of a government.' Standaert said that the Belgian government would provide the Congo with the support it needed. He added that there are many Belgians living in the Congo, and many want to stay, but they must be asked to leave unless the Congolese government wants them.

Standaert said that the Congo should be allowed to make its own decision on whether it wants the 12,000 Belgian troops it was asked to have in the country a year ago to leave unless Belgium is asked to withdraw them by the Congolese government. Standaert observed that the Congo is "far from stable, with many other African countries in an explosive political situation." He said that if the Congo wanted the Belgians to leave, "Belgium would leave, but they must be asked, not 'as representatives of a government.'"

He emphasized that these positions were "administrative positions in the Congo government." He added that there are many Belgians living in the Congo, and many want to stay, but they must be asked to leave unless the Congolese government wants them. He said that the man Belgium is "really the person who is in charge of the Congo, and we want to make it clear to the Congolese government that they should be able to make their own decisions without Belgian help." He added that the Congo should be allowed to make its own decision on whether it wants the 12,000 Belgian troops it was asked to have in the country a year ago to leave unless Belgium is asked to withdraw them by the Congolese government.

"The Congolese leaders say that the Congo should be free from Belgian influence, and I am sure that they will not ask for Belgium's help," Standaert added, "and I was against Belgium's proposal to leave the Congo, on the same basis, with the Congo, if they were asked to leave unless the Congolese government wants them and not 'as representatives of a government.'"

He emphasized that these positions were "administrative positions in the Congo government." He added that there are many Belgians living in the Congo, and many want to stay, but they must be asked to leave unless the Congolese government wants them. He said that the man Belgium is "really the person who is in charge of the Congo, and we want to make it clear to the Congolese government that they should be able to make their own decisions without Belgian help."