Why are some girls prouder of their rings than others?

It's because it comes in a box, and it's a metal ring. This is what some people think: that a girl is"proud of her ring" because it's expensive. But the reality is that these rings are mass-produced and sold at a lower price. The real value of a ring is not in its price, but in the memories and emotions that come with it. A ring made with love and care will always be more valuable than one made for profit. So the next time you see someone showing off their ring, remember that the real value is in the story behind it, not the price tag.
