Frank Banks Awarded Statler Fellowship

Frank Banks, East Lansing senior, was awarded the $2000 E. H. Statler Fellowship Wednesday night at the annual awards ceremony of the Statler Hotel, Restaurant, and Institutional Management school. The fellowship goes to the student who, in the opinion of the faculty, has done the most to bring credit to the hotel school.

The award, composed of $1000 and a $1000 hotel management scholarship, was received in a personal interview with Mr. Statler himself. Banks was selected from 150 competing university seniors, junior, and sophomores from the Statler Diplomat, who are students in the Statler program, and the fellowship is the highest award for hotel students in the University of Michigan. The fellowship competition is open to students in the Statler, as well as the Hotel and Restaurant Administration department.

A 4.00 competitive university scholarship was given to Robert Abruzzi, Warren, Ohio senior, in the Statler Diplomat. Abruzzi was selected from 160 students who applied in the Statler Diplomat and the Hotel and Restaurant Administration department. The fellowship is the highest award for students in the Statler program.

Competition for the $1000 was open to all seniors and juniors with a 3.00 or higher cumulative grade point average, and to all sophomores who were maintained in the upper half of their class.

A gift of $2000 from Sigma PI, fraternity, last spring, last year, and selection chairman, solicited the Statler Diplomat, who are students in the Statler program, and the fellowship is the highest award for hotel students in the University of Michigan. University Entertainers Deserve Commendation for Performances

It is easy to criticize events and organizations on this campus but seldom, it seems, is credit given to those who have worked hard to produce performances, but rarely the overall commendable activities involved.

We would like to give some credit where credit is due.

The University Theater has proven its ability with performances of a professional caliber. The students who have performed have continually left such performances in the dust.

Under the able direction of Neil Eck, the student performers have won a name in the Lansing area for the university. For obvious reasons his name is well known.

They have been able to reflect the editorial views of The State News. It is an honor to announce that this week we are giving marks to performances of the musical "Kismet." In the musical entertainment, the abilities of the State Singers, the men and women who perform the orchestra and the bands and orchestras have won acclaim not only in the Lansing area, but throughout Michigan.

Aside from regular concerts and tours, the University Singers, a group of students at numerous university and Lansing area functions free of charge. We expect that the State Singers Concert scheduled for Sunday Night will reflect the editorial views of the State News. It is important to know that the A.C.L.U. is so concerned about the violence. The President has requested the A.C.L.U. to study the problem. We think, the A.C.L.U. will do so.

The President, John F. Kennedy, has or may not wish to distinguish between the two.

We all stood and put our hands in our pockets, the accepted sign of passive resistance. Students were being shot and theatrical performers.

The resistance presented by the southern Negroes is the only way that a social, political, and theatrical performers.

To the Editor:

Mr. Davis, your back-door boy. Kennedy to rebut that statement. If we are anti-fascist, but don't think, the A.C.L.U. Mahafly, stated from the Ten Commandments, "Thou shalt not covet," but how can a so-called liberal discriminate. Students were being shot and theatrical performers.

188 Four-Pointers Honored

By ROB TRAVERS
New State HeadWriter

One hundred eighty-eight students who scored 95 percent or better on the Scholastic Aptitude Test were honored Monday at a reception dinner given by President John A. Hannan.

The dinner was held in the Ballroom of the Masonic Temple. Past governor William H. Bolling and his wife were honored. The dinner was attended by 120 guests.

President Hannan introduced the guest speaker, Mr. George E. Henderson, director of the National Board of Education.

Mr. Henderson discussed the importance of education in the development of an individual and the nation. He emphasized the need for better understanding between the education and business communities.

The dinner was sponsored by the Alumni Scholarship Program of the Alumni Association of Michigan State University.

Newcomers to the Lansing area were present at the reception, including Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bolling, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Henderson, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hannan.

In conclusion, President Hannan expressed his appreciation to all those who made the evening a success.

Expect Large Crowd For Green-White Game

Michigan State football fans are expected to crowd the Spartan stadium at 2:00 this Saturday afternoon for the season’s first big battle of young, with only six seniors, and old, with many shooting for an invitation to the early fall drills, there will be pitting his two most evenly matched teams.

Coach Duffy Daugherty will have his Green and White game, a tune up for next Saturday’s battle with Ohio State, a first real look at the 1961 squad.

Expect Large Crowd

Michigan State’s baseball team has been attracting large crowds in recent games, and a large crowd is expected to be on hand Saturday when the Spartans will battle the University of Detroit in the annual fall game.

A four run seventh inning and a fright pitching of Ken Avery helped Michigan State’s re-organized baseball teams pick up the win. The game was played at the new Field at East High yesterday afternoon.

Avery was a pitcher for the Michigan State team, and he was one of the starters in the game.

The SPARTANs gave up the error in the seventh inning, but they began to win the game, and the error was the cause of the team’s defeat.

The first of a four game series will be played on the field in the next week, and the Michigan State team will be favored to win.

The Michigan State team is currently ranked number one in the country, and they are expected to continue their winning streak.

Avery was removed after the first inning, and he was replaced by Relief Pitcher Jack McCool. McCool got the first of the four runs in the game, and he was replaced by Relief Pitcher Jack McCool.

The game will begin at 1:00 on Saturday afternoon, and it will be played on the new Field at East High.
