Civil Liberties: Do Students Have Any?

By DUDLEY MAYNARD

State News Staff Writer

The State News learned Friday that legislators were pondering the recent, "provocative, fight incident" involving students and police and that the current approach to legislating the rights and freedoms of students is "entirely the result of neglectful administration of university affairs and the political files on its students." It is right for the university to keep the record of this university to concern itself in student affairs and thus to inform on students and faculty? x

THE AIR FORCE had hoped in late city and state laws and the more important than an education. Records office, 253 Student Services, bldg. Tickets will be available by June 1. But technical troubles have delayed this. The Air Force has learned that 3,000 space-borne missiles are on station in California, 2,000 miles from Cape Canaveral.
