Detroit Lions Clobbered By Chicago Bears, 31-17

For the second week in a row, the Detroit Lions were clobbered by the Chicago Bears. This time the Bears scored 24 points in the first quarter, taking the lead by a 23-10 score at halftime.

The Lions, who were leading 10-7 after the first quarter, failed to score in the second half and were outscored 24-3 by the Bears. The game was played before a crowd of 48,311 fans in Tiger Sta­dium.

In other games, the New York Giants won their third victory of the season. They defeated the Los Angeles Rams, 28-14, in a game played in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The Giants scored 21 points in the first half and held the Rams to only three points in the second half.

The Green Bay Packers rout­ed the Chicago Bears, 36-14, at Wrigley Field in Chicago. The Packers scored 14 points in the first quarter and held the Bears to only two points in the second half.

The Detroit Lions have lost nine of their first 11 games this season and now find themselves in last place in the National Football League's Western Division.
Sanitation Methods Published by Profs

Two University professors have needled an article which appeared in the October issue of Water, Sewage Works &mg; Industrial Wastes, written for chemical engineers.

W. L. McNab and Frank L. Mott, Department of Microbiology and Public Health combined to write the technical article, discussing the use of chemical and physical methods to purify drinking water in small communities.

The article, labeled "A Study of Sanitation Methods," was written by McNab and Mott. It is based on their research and findings in the field of sanitation.

The information presented in the article is intended to provide guidance to those involved in the field of sanitation and public health.
