A Professor's Tribute To Robert Frost

By SHERN DUFFY

The following note was written by Dr. Bernard Duffey, professor of English at Michigan State University. Dr. Duffey met and knew Robert Frost after two weeks had passed in January. The note was written "in the familiar style of the best verses of that poet." The author says it is his tribute to Frost and the one in which he has written this verse about Frost: "By SHERN DUFFY..."

A career for exceptional men

Some notes about you, about us, and the advertising business

About you.

If you are the man we seek, you have an analyzing curiosity about yourself and the world around you.

You are alert and responsive to new ideas, new ways of doing things. You like to take on new problems—you see an opportunity.

You dig deep into the city of things. And the best answers you can come up with today are never good enough for you, tomorrow.

You are an individual. Yet you thrive on team spirit.

You have conviction about freedom of choice, commitment with the risks of others.

You are the kind of man who could be successful in business, in teaching, in public service, in any of the professions.

About us.

The J. Walter Thompson Company was formed 99 years ago. It has for many years been the largest advertising firm. Its stock is owned by more than five hundred active staff members.

In our experience, superior individual from every graduate and undergraduate educational institution and major agency in the United States, and throughout the world. Our backgrounds range far and wide. And, the world to which you may, if interested, assignment later on.

If you wish to be a candidate, you must be in a position to give the following notice by the end of May. You may obtain further information regarding the placement of office. Please consult them regarding the possibilities of "a personal interview." We will meet on February 14.

The Hatchets, meeting a tough test against an Iowa team which threatens a 20-year-old record by winning its 20th straight game, are scheduled to meet the University of Pittsburgh in a basketball game at 1:30 p.m. today at the University of Pittsburgh gymnasium.

The Hatchets have the advantage of having won in the last matchup in 1960 when they won 72-54 in Kalamazoo. The Hatchets, coming off back-to-back losses to Nebraska and champion Michigan, are favored in this match.

The Iowa team has won eight of its last 10 games, with two losses to No. 1 Ohio State and No. 2 Michigan. The Hatchets have a strong defense, which will try to prevent the Iowa guards from dominating the game.

The Hatchets are led by senior guard Don Mensch, who averages 15.8 points per game. Mensch is one of the best shooting guards in the nation and will be key to the Hatchets' success today.

The game is a part of the Big Ten Conference season, and the Hatchets are currently in third place. A win would boost their chances for a conference title.

Dunes Park Won't Take Owners Land

"There has never been a dispute between Dunes Park and the owners of the land," said Anthony A. Salvia, the president of the Dunes Park opponents. "We have always planned to allow the public to enjoy the park and carry on their activities within the boundaries of the proposed park."

His speech, written for a group of participants in the city council and resource development program during the previous week, was well-received by officials. The group held a meeting in Castle College.

Salvia was determined in Washington, D.C., by the first vote of the new Congressional session. The city council, however, ruled that the group could not be recognized as an opposition movement.

"Michigan should not be the only state in the nation to allow this kind of opposition," he said. "We need to be part of the solution, not the problem."

Lincoln C. Powell, professor of religious studies at Michigan State College, said Monday that Brigham Young University's Board of Trustees should consider appointing a Mormon theologian to the faculty of the college's School of Religious Studies. Powell, who was present at Monday's meeting of the Board of Trustees, said that the appointment would be in keeping with the university's policy of providing a balanced presentation of all major religious viewpoints.

An outstanding example of this policy, Powell said, is the presence of Jewish scholars on the faculty of the University of Chicago, which is located in the same city as the university.

Powell also said that the appointment of a Mormon theologian would be in keeping with the university's policy of providing a balanced presentation of all major religious viewpoints.
