Wrestlers Set To Take Fight Out Of Fighting Illini Team

By CARL FERGUS
Of The State News

The Spartans wrestling team will be fighting against the Fighting Illini at 2 p.m. on Saturday, February 9th, at the University Auditorium. The Spartans are looking forward to this match as it will be a key battle in their conference.

The Illini have been doing well this season, but the Spartans are determined to come out on top. Both teams have a tough schedule ahead of them, but the Spartans are confident in their abilities.

The match will be an exciting one, with both teams bringing their A-game. The Spartans are looking forward to the challenge and are ready to give it their all.

Hometown Church Isolates Youth

It's an Ivy University student's home, and it's a place where a student's take-of-the-moment attitudes are highlighted. This is the opinion of the Rev. Robert L. Moreland, Religion Prof., and University Chaplain.

"It is the experience of the Rev. Robert L. Moreland, Religion Prof., and University Chaplain, that students are often isolates, especially in the university's religious activities. The Rev. L. R. Moreland feels that the students are often isolated from the university's religious activities, and that this isolation is a problem.

The Rev. L. R. Moreland also feels that the students are often isolated from the university's religious activities, and that this isolation is a problem. The Rev. L. R.
