Campus U.N. Fulfills Needs

All too often, the University environment, rather than broadening the scope and outlook of a student through a myriad of discussions in a classroom of books and study totally unrelated to the world’s happenings.

This evening some students will be doing something to escape this narrow rut, as the Campus U.N. has conducted its first meeting of the new year. Organized four years ago, the Campus U.N. has provided more than any other student organization a forum for intelligent debate and deliberation.

In this respect the Campus U.N. serves itself as a dual function: that of a commentator on both the international and local scene. Thus its resolutions are often without practical pertinence to life on campus.

The knowledge and understanding gained by representing the political positions of various nations, be they East, West or neutral, can rarely be gotten in any better manner.

East Lansing, Michigan, Saturday, October 4

The MSU Bonnies, also known as the MSU Bonnies, was founded in 1947 at the University of Michigan. The group is composed of five members, all of whom are female. The group's name comes from the word "bonnie," which is Scottish for "beautiful." The Bonnies perform at various events throughout the year, including football games, basketball games, and other University of Michigan events.

Protestants Observe World-Wide Day

The idea of observing the day began with some time over the globe spread rapidly and the President of the National Council of Churches immediately wrote to the various Protestant leaders in the world, including the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Rome, and the Director of the World Council of Churches with the request that the idea be carried in the world.

Cornerstone Set Sunday

The English and Michigan Division of the National Council of Churches in America has issued a statement calling upon the Christian Churches in the United States to establish a world-wide observance of the Second Sunday in October as a day of reflection on the theme of Christian unity.

Church Teachings Offered

The Rev. Arthur Riewald, guest speaker at All Saints Episcopal Church, will be the featured speaker on Sunday at 11 a.m. As usual, the service will include a brief homily on the scriptural reading of the day, the hymns to be sung, and the prayer of the day.

New Soccer Lineup For Go With Wheaton

Several key players will be missing from the Michigan soccer team as it prepares to face the Spartan hostilities this week. Coach Kenney has decided to give the team a rest in order to avoid any potential injuries. The team will be missing several key players, including the captain, who will be unavailable for the upcoming match.

The Michigan team is currently ranked third in the Big Ten Conference and is looking to maintain its position in the standings. The team has a tough schedule ahead, with several key matches against top teams in the conference. The team will be relying on its young players to step up and contribute to the team's success.

The Michigan team's next match is scheduled for next weekend, when they will face off against the Penn State Nittany Lions. The team is looking forward to the challenge and is ready to give their best performance.

The team's head coach, Kenney, has expressed his confidence in the team's ability to succeed in the upcoming season. He has high expectations for the team and is looking forward to seeing them perform at their best.

The team's fans are also looking forward to the match and are excited to see the team's performance. They have been supportive of the team throughout the season and are looking forward to seeing them win.

The team's upcoming match is set to be an exciting one, with both teams looking to make a statement in the Big Ten Conference. The team's fans are looking forward to seeing the team's performance and are confident that they will come out on top.

Versatile Lettermen On Key, Color
By Jackie Korona
State Student Staff Writer

Fun without limits on the philosophy of the Letterman in Concert. And this is just walking by of a world young men play a game that produces 0,000 students in the automobile.

With a program which ranges from the comfort of rock and roll to the old standards of today's more popular recording

Dancing is a strong appeal;
Furniture and the best of what the young boy is.
Joke and on what the famous singers are. It's the true entertainer style of the Lettermen.

All was smooth, well-organized, and proper enough for the most proper.
It would be hard to believe than any student was seamless from the audience.

Progress takes many shapes in the Bell System. And among the shutterers are young men, not unlike yourself, impatient make things happen for their companies and themselves.
There are few places where such restlessness is more wellchews. The singers performed Wednesday in the auditorium for a crowd of over 1,000.

Suggestions for a Sport series

By Sue Joby

From the viewpoint of athletic directors, the University of Michigan athletic directors' meeting was a success. Michigan Athletic Director Homer Smith, the University of Michigan's athletic director, and other athletic directors of Big Ten Conference schools discussed possible financial aid programs for athletes. The directors agreed to meet again in the future to discuss the matter further.

Today's Last Day

For I-D Pick-up

This year's pick-up day for the I-D program at the University of Michigan will be on Tuesday, October 8, at 9:30 a.m. The I-D program is for undergraduate students who have been accepted for admission to the University and who have submitted their application materials.

Drums To Laud Nigeria

African drums will be on display at a series of events in celebration of Nigeria's Independence Day. The University of Michigan is hosting the event, and speakers from Lansing and the surrounding area will be among the performers. The event will feature African dances on October 19 in the Union Building.

they need to renew the loan. Each student should take care of this before the deadline. If it is not renewed in time, they may miss out on the loan.

All students must renew their loan by the deadline. We encourage all students to renew their loan as soon as possible.

The student should contact their financial aid office to renew their loan. They will need to provide their student ID number and date of birth.

The loan fund can be renewed through a variety of methods. Students can renew their loan by calling the financial aid office or by visiting the financial aid office in person.

The loan fund is available to all full-time and part-time students. It is a loan that does not have to be repaid.

The loan fund is important for students who need financial assistance. It helps students pay for college tuition and fees.
