U.S. To Send 1 Million Tons

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy has given his long-awaited “yes” to the sale of American wheat to Russia. Kennedy told a news conference Wednesday that he had approved the sale of four million tons of wheat to Russia and her East European satellites.

The President said private American grain dealers will sell $85 million of wheat to the Communist nations at prevailing world prices.

According to Kenedy, Russia will pay the sale price with gold or dollar or in any other form of the United States.

Viet Nam Report Disappointing

President Kennedy has re- solved to send a South Viet Nam from Defense Secretary Robert McNamara and Gen. Maxwell Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

It is a disappointing docum- ent characterized by ambigui- ties, vague conclusions and careful language.

The President's personal emissaries found that the war in Viet Nam is at an impasse. It may be won by the end of 1965 if the players make an effort to end it.

Wisconsin Class Officers Fail

A recent and significant proposal brought before the student senate of Wisconsin State College at Green Bay was defeated in a mass organization of class govern- ment. This proposal would abolish the class officers which have no real purpose or re- sponsibility. The officers are class president, class treasurer, and class secretary. In place of these officers the senate would appoint chair- men to coordinate various ac- tivities, such as homecoming celebration and the spring prom.

A propo- nent of the senate would be made to coordinate various ac- tivities of its executive group. This situation is not singular because some other class has not had a class meet- ing the past scholastic year. This inactivity of the class officers is a new problem, but one that has existed for a long time. The results of the elections last spring shows the lack of interest the student body has in them.

Probably the main reason for this lack of interest in class elections is that the posts being filled have little meaning. It does not really matter who gets the office.

The spectator feels that the idea of having chairmen as co- ordinators of frown and senior activities would be a suitable replacement of the class offices to be abolished. The position would have far more meaning and would be a representative designed to aid the student body. The position would have far more meaning.

The Acid Test

Dick Wolfe

Every enjoyment of our basic civil liberties by the govern- ment is a fine just cause for action. As members of a democratic society we are particularly concerned when the vague criteria are used for naming, speech and press.

The attack on the student leaders is an attack on the reputation of all the students who have shown interest in student affairs. The student leaders are the first to admit that the student body is far from united, but the leadership is necessary to bring about the unity that is so badly needed.

Radio, TV Must Work With FCC

Today’s broadcasters have a sense of discipline if they are able to work effectively with the Federal Communications Commission, which is serving an informed American audience. Tuesday’s meeting of the FCC’s Men’s Club was of interest to those broadcasters who are responsible for the broadcast programs that reach American homes.

E. H. Emery, chairman of the FCC and who has served three terms in the House of Representatives, pointed out that the FCC has had difficulty regulating communications because of the many factors and its limited personnel. “It is impossible,” he said, “to provide America with complete communications. The FCC has the responsibility of determining the broadcast standards that will be heard in the future.”

The FCC has the responsibility of determining the broadcast standards that will be heard in the future.”

Radio, TV must work with the FCC, and that means they must not only be concerned with the welfare of the American public, but also with the welfare of the people who listen to the programs. The FCC has the responsibility of determining the broadcast standards that will be heard in the future.

The Michigan State University's 'Singing Statesmen' are an organization known for their enthusiastic and lively performances. The group, under the leadership of Dr. George Steinmetz, has been a part of the university community for many years. The group's repertoire includes a wide range of music, from classical to contemporary, and they are known for their energetic performances on stage. The 'Singing Statesmen' also perform at various events throughout the year, both on and off campus, bringing joy and entertainment to audiences. The group is open to all students, regardless of musical background, and provides an opportunity for students to express their love for music and connect with others who share their passion. Whether they are practicing for a upcoming performance or simply enjoying a day at the university, the 'Singing Statesmen' are an integral part of the Michigan State University community.

This column is written for the benefit of a friend of mine who wonders if you have any trust in "in the market" forecasting. I told him it is wrong to say "in the market" forecasting. The market is a place where you buy and sell, and the forecasters are there to tell you what they think will happen in the market. But it is not forecasting that I am interested in, but the actual action of the market. Third Triumph For Soccermen

By RICHARD SCHWARZ

The Michigan State men's soccer team, coached by Dr. W. A. Keeler, climbed to a 2-0 lead over the visiting University of Miami in the second half of a Big Ten Conference game, Saturday, Oct. 12, at Alumni Field.

The win moved the Spartans to within one point of Ohio State and Indiana, who share the league lead at 4-1-0.

The Cats, who fell to their ninth straight defeat, were out of the race at 1-5-0.

Michigan State, now 4-1-1, will host Ohio State, 0-4-2, next Tuesday for a 7:30 p.m. kickoff on Alumni Field.

Michigan State made the first move in the first half, with a goal by Bill Mullen in the 10th minute. This was unassisted and it was followed by a goal by Chris Williams in the 40th minute, assisted by Mullen.

In the second half, the Cats scored two goals in the 50th minute, but the Spartans replied with goals by Bill Smith in the 58th minute and Mullen in the 67th minute, to seal the victory.

The game was played in front of a packed Alumni Field, with the weather and temperatures reaching a high of 70 degrees.

The Spartans, who have lost 11 of their 13 games this season, are currently in seventh place in the Big Ten Conference.

On Oct. 12, Michigan State defeated Colorado, 2-0, in the second half, with goals by Mullen and Williams.

The Spartans' next home game is scheduled for Oct. 19 against Indiana, with a kickoff time of 7:30 p.m.
