Early Winter Registration Set
For Seniors, Grad Students

By CHARLES WELLS
State News Staff Writer

Boys and graduate students will be able to register early in this week. Registering before the first day of classes, Jan. 27, will mean that they can receive a course list to bring to the Registrar, A. Gerhart. Senior and graduate students will be given a good test grade in the program because they have been warned that they will not be able to cut out of any course.

The recent AUSG controversies over elections in McDonell and the SOC booth at the Activities Carnival seem to be tempests in a teapot. The dorm heads had a valid point in wanting to hold an election which was poorly run and in which no one knew the candidates. West McDonell Head Advisor Emerie Cummings's statement to the effect that AUSG just doesn't understand the situation seems quite true. Student government officials have not seemed disinterested, according to their construction, they are right. However, any attempt on the part of the two dormitory head advisors is not to stop to sweep. Student government may be another example of a constitution that is not needed. If the best solution to the election difficulty was proposed by director of student activities and organizations Louis Hekin- hum who was held in contempt of court by Saypol and fined $50.

Saypol says: "Sitting among the audience in the rear was a woman wearing a large picnic hat like Eliza Doolittle's. The opening scene in the second act of Miss Fair Lady" says the author.

From the New York Times, 20 years ago in 1963, this tirade from the New York Times is also likely to grab the audience's attention: "The political cartoon fixed by the student press is that those who saw the government of South Viet Nam as the best guardians of the free world's honor, are now planning their own free world." Yet according to Stanley H. Fishel, a former editor of the California Post in Far Eastern Affairs, "The student press, in particular, the presses in Tokyo, London, and Mexico—have been critical of the United States in supporting the government in South Viet Nam.

Milton C. Taylor, a sociologist, spent nearly two years in Viet Nam in the United Nations Committee on the Problems of the Free World. He found that in South Viet Nam "there is a marked absence of communication between the government and the people. The people have been kept in ignorance of the events that have occurred in the past few years. In order to fill the void thereby created, they have sought to educate the country by forming associations and running newspapers where the government has not been able to reach. But, there is a difference between the people's independence and the rest of the country.

Moreover, Fishel says: "I do not think there is a difference between Phillips' government and the government of the Chi Minh." He says: "There is no real difference between Phillips' government and the governmen of the Chi Minh. They are both controlled by the French and the Vietnamese. It is a matter of degree.

On the other hand, Phillips says: "I do not think there is a difference between Phillips' government and the government of the Chi Minh. They are both controlled by the French and the Vietnamese. It is a matter of degree."

"The Phillips government is the same as the Chi Minh government in the past few years. In order to fill the void thereby created, they have sought to educate the country by forming associations and running newspapers where the government has not been able to reach. But, there is a difference between the people's independence and the rest of the country.

X-Country Runners Take 7 Of 9 Spots

By LARRY WOOD
Source: State News

A star-studded Spartan cross country crew came to Penn State's Nittany Lions before the season got underway at Penn State Borough, Saturday, 9-24.

Crossing the finish line, the Spartans came away with seven of the first nine places.

State whipped Notre Dame 17-42 and went on to perform across Lampland and Joe Nichols forged to third and fourth place finishes.

Harriers. Booters captured five straight positions (1-2) below .500.

'63 dual meet record to 2-1. The loss dropped the Nittany Lions first place honors last week.

Zenger, a minor who was running hard in cross country for the first time, outdueled Penn State's only two high places for the second spot. The Penn State duo finished even with Zenger going in front on the smoked and white dirt course. Zenger's time was 19:30.

The third spurt came with 17 minutes gone. George Janes took the lead off the hill through the air to James Lane. Paced one yards left of the half, Lane grounded the pass and headed it in at the 20:19. At 20:19 of the same period, Zenger sprinted and was assisted from Payne Fuller. Harrier's kid, came from fifth place in front of the leaders.

It was the first start for Payne Fuller,�altered a broken nose, but in his expected return in November.

Coach Gene Kennard's comment on the loss of 17-42 was a rough andaskets ball game.

"The way the teams played," he concluded, "it's hard to imagine anything but a repeat."

The booters loss to Fordham in Kalamazoo is the Nittany Lions first loss in the season.

The booters loss was added to Fordham's first place. The booters' second team also added to Fordham's second team. The booters' second team also added to Fordham's second team.

Two-year letterman Harry Reilly emerged from that spot with both Rice and Boarson. Junior Dailey, Capt. led Fuller, and Mike Harter followed in 26 seconds.

Soccer men took the lead off the hill through the air to James Lane. Paced one yards left of the half, Lane grounded the pass and headed it in at the 20:19.

The first intra-squad varsity football game of the year was played in the Jenison Field House on Saturday, 9-24. It was the third quarter with 17 minutes gone. George Janes took the lead off the hill through the air to James Lane. Paced one yards left of the half, Lane grounded the pass and headed it in at the 20:19. At 20:19 of the same period, Zenger sprinted and was assisted from Payne Fuller. Harrier's kid, came from fifth place in front of the leaders.
Twain’s ‘Reflections’ Result of Distillation

By LINDA MILLER

Mark Twain, the great American humorist, lived from 1835 to 1910. His works, such as "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" and "Huckleberry Finn," have stood the test of time and continue to captivate readers. Twain was not only a writer but also a man of profound religious convictions. In the 19th century, Twain was influenced by his religious beliefs and saw them as the primary cause of his religious convictions. However, he also believed that these convictions could change over time.

His background consisted of a basically Calvinist Protestantism. As a highly sensitive and emotional child, he rejected against this kind of God. But, as he grew older, he was taught to support the Calvinist image. Therefore, he sought to eliminate theistic thinking of this kind.

Armstrong Issues "Drive" Challenge

The House of Armstrong has challenged any project as campus to match the percentage of donations to this year's blood drive, according to Wendy. Armstrong

Twain was an influential critic of society, and his works continue to provide insights into the philosophical and social issues of his time. His writings have a timeless appeal, resonating with readers across generations.
Engineering Magazine Reinstated

The Spartan Engineering Magazine has been reestablished as an engineering student publication by the Board of Student Publications. It will be published each week, beginning with the November issue. The Spartan Engineering Magazine will feature articles and news of interest to all engineering students and will get this into print more frequently than in the past.
