One of the major industrial insurance companies in the United States, Employers Mutual of Wausau offers interesting, rewarding careers to hundreds of college men and women.

Some who joined as mail clerks, but most who stayed with the company during the usual educational period, say the higher education credits they acquired and the smaller learning opportunities they enjoyed in school did not encourage them to remain in an insurance company.

Talk with our representative about the opportunities we offer at our various offices and in more than 60 cities large and small throughout the country.

"We will be on the campus Monday, November 4 to interview senior men for positions as claim adjusters, underwriters, auditors, actuarial trainees, and train correspondents, and senior women for positions of audit trainees in the office. Interviews are available at the following offices.

"We are in the second part of a three-part series on the Union Grill.

Lansing Grill activity is at its peak on the weekdays during lunch hours, mid-afternoon and early evening. The food sells rapidly from 11:30 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. Afternoon activity is between 2:15 and 4:15.

Clustered decision on weekend hours, including Sundays, during the busy season, must be made before the football team is playing in Spartan Stadium. "Fatigue factors are not favorable days," and Robert Stark, Grill manager, Religion group meeting in the Union on Sunday sometimes bring many customers.

The Grill is open 11 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 11:30 a.m. Friday and Saturday and from 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Sunday.

About 300 students enjoy a break at the Grill on an average week-day morning, and the total is from 300 to 350 on summer afternoons.

Although the student body and business declines on weekends, there is a noticeable increase in weekdays.

"The Grill has been here as long as the students have been here," said Charles Cumberland, director of University House. In 1925, the Grill was in the University House.

The student body has grown but has not made a difference in the Grill's popularity.

The main danger in a situation of aid and support from Tunisia, France and the other Western nations is that the conflict is an expression of a major world conflict. North Africa will most certainly become an unstable factor, Hughes said.

"There is a possibility of a major world conflict. North Africa is an unstable factor," Hughes said.

The Grill was open but not full.

The Grill fills about 10 minutes before meals, and normally seat 480, Traub said. Walking through the lunch line, it was almost full at 12:30.

With the number of students in class, the Grills are crowded, especially at lunchtime.

"They have to make up the lunch orders ahead of time because this is the busiest time of the day," said Charles Cumberland, director of University House.

Dorm Rules Show Trend

Women's Lot Slowly Easing

Late minutes, study tables and house rules have been a part of student life at Michigan State since 1911. In 1923, the Student Senate had a "department of student residence," which included the "resident counselor," who was responsible for enforcing the regulations. The regulations were not well enforced and well established until the early 1960s.

L-C To Present Folklorico

President Kennedy gave the annual address to the students and faculty on the campus. The president's speech was followed by a concert by the student choir, the Michigan State University Chorale. The concert was directed by Charles B. Kiliingsworth, professor of labor and industrial relations. The concert was a part of the Folklorico de Mexico tour, which included performances in various cities across the United States. The Folklorico de Mexico is a group of professional dancers who perform traditional Mexican dances. The group has been touring the United States for several years, and this was their first performance in East Lansing.

For more information about the Folklorico de Mexico, you can visit their website at www.folklorico.de.mx. You can also find them on social media platforms like Facebook and Twitter.

To see the Folklorico de Mexico perform in your area, check their tour schedule and make sure to grab your tickets in advance. Their performances are always sold out, so don't wait until the last minute to get your tickets.

Big Ten Knotted

Duffy Sees No Easy Winner

By JEROME CAPLAN

The Barts and Wenus of collegiate basketball are soaring high in the neath of college football.

In the gridiron world, the Bears of Illinois and the Cats of Northwestern are the only unbeaten teams in the nation. Northwestern is also No. 1 in the Big Ten, while Illinois is No. 2.

Meanwhile, the Big Ten's other teams are trying to get a handle on their schedules.

On Saturday, Ohio State will play at Minnesota, while Michigan plays at Wisconsin.

But the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame are the only team that can throw a spanner in the works of the Big Ten.

Notre Dame is in the midst of a four-game winning streak and is rated No. 3 in the nation.

The Fighting Irish are favored to win the Big Ten, but the Buckeyes are not far behind.

The Buckeyes are led by quarterback Jim Tatum, who has thrown for 1,085 yards and 15 touchdowns.

In the Big Ten, Ohio State and Michigan are the only teams with winning records.

The Buckeyes are led by running back Johnnie Lattner, who has rushed for 1,020 yards and 14 touchdowns.

Organ Music Concert Set For Tonight

An annual program of music for organ and vocal instruments will be presented at 8:30 Tuesday evening, October 29, 1963, in the Chapel. The program, sponsored by the MSU Music Department in cooperation with the Church Music Department of the State of Michigan, will be directed by Dr. J. R. W. Adams, Assistant Professor of Church Music.

The music will begin with a concert of 18th century American organ music, including works by William Billings. The organists for this segment of the program will be Dr. R. F. Carver, University Professor of Music, and R. E. Root, Assistant Professor of Music.

A second segment of the program will feature a series of vocal chamber music compositions. These will include works by J. S. Bach, J. C. Bach, and J. S. Bach.

The third segment of the program will feature a series of organ works written specifically for the MSU organ. These will include works by J. S. Bach, J. C. Bach, and J. S. Bach.

The concert will conclude with a series of hymns and carols sung by the MSU Choral Society under the direction of Dr. J. R. W. Adams.

The concert will begin at 8:30 on Tuesday evening, October 29, 1963, in the Chapel of the MSU Union. The program will last approximately two hours.

Folklorists Conduct Jug Hunt

Members of the Folklorists Society are on a unique hunt. They are seeking old jugs, that is, large ceramic or glass containers, once used to store and transport liquids. The society's chief interest is in seeking out and collecting old jugs, which are known as "jug bands" or "jug sets." These jugs are often decorated with colorful images and text, and are considered to be a regional folk art form.

JC Survey To Study Lansing's Attitudes

The public's attitude toward Lansing's police and fire protection, school and recreation programs, and garbage collection services has been extended to November 17 to allow junior chamber of commerce to attempt both to survey public's attitude toward Lansing's police and fire protection, school and recreation programs, and garbage collection services. The survey covers 35 percent of the population of the Lansing area, and 2,400 families will be interviewed. It is estimated that more than 3,000 man-hours will be needed to complete the job. Interviewers will wear orange armbands to identify themselves. The survey will be coded and tabulated by IBM machines. "This is the first community survey sponsored which will affect the entire community," according to Sam Milstein, president of Lansing Jaycees. The survey would cost Lansing more than $50,000 if a private firm were hired.

Sign-Up For 'Bowl' Extended

College Bowl registration has been extended into November. It is highly recommended that interested students sign up at the AUSG Academic Benefits office in Student Services Building. The league will be played on TV and should contain the signature of the respective league president.

Co-op Service Meets Here

Helen Hoot, dean of students and associate professor of nursing at Michigan State University, will be one of the featured speakers at the annual conference of the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service today through Thursday at 7:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. at Kellogg Center. The conference, members of the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service, will be held immediately following previous sessions.

Film This Week For Chem Majors

The Institute of Chemical Engineers, student chapter, will present its final movie of the term, "The Changing Nature of our Society," at a conference session in Student Services Building. It may be shown on any day and should contain the signature of the respective league president.
