Ducking The Issue

All University Student Government's resolution to reverse the decision of requiring students to wear slacks to lunch, classes and the library.

Students would then be limited to one ticket per ID card and the ticket only would be valid with the card which it was originally obtained. It appears that the incident resulted from some patriotic Panamanian students' desire to see their flag fly from the flagpole of the library.

An Eye To Legs

With cold-colleged legs in mind, members of the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs showed their concern about the consequences of the sudden order. They claimed that girls who wear slacks to lunch, classes and the library.

This ruling communicates another block in the wall of archaic rules that have long been ignored in a changing world, and now is more and more in sports wear.

It seems that there is more reason for yielding to coed slacks on campus is that the times and styles have changed. But we won't quibble with the committee's stand for new ruling. We'll accept it gratefully.

Office-coed can wear slacks in the winter to keep warm, why can't they wear slacks too - officially, that is. In the cold, they should also think about their comfort in class, write classrooms and dormitories.

A fundraising fellowship has been established to aid Greek students in their studies. The fund, known as the Greek Scholarship Fund, will provide financial assistance to students working toward their doctorate degrees in the sciences. The fund was established in honor of the late wealthy donor, Richard Shiegowski, Ludington junior and Alpha Delta Pi, who was a Sigma Alpha Mu member.

The fund is for Greek graduate students and is managed by the Institute of Technology. The fund is available at all record stores and is open to all Greek students. The fund is named "The Stranger," according to the donor's wish, but it looks at the needs at least on a national basis. The fund has helped students find jobs in the fields of science and engineering.

By POCKET HANDKERCHIEF

DETROIT - Detroit Police Department Sgt. John W. Bischoff, 40, was injured in a three-car crash on Grand River Avenue at 7:15 p.m. yesterday.

A 1955 Studebaker, driven by James G. P. Redmond, 30, of 7901 Trumbull, was involved in the accident.

Redmond, who was driving behind two other cars, left his car and ran into a third car, a 1959 Oldsmobile, driven by John W. Bischoff, 40, of 3901 Trumbull.

Bischoff, who was driving his car in his own lane, was taken to the hospital with minor injuries.

Redmond was cited for reckless driving.

Jenison Loss
For 'S Cagers
A deep cut inflicted by Purdue in Thursday's first quarter of their game with Jenison doomed the Blue Coats to a 104-73 loss. The Jenison boys, leading 2-0
in the game, never recovered from the early Purdue onslaught.

Jenison, under the leadership of Dave Wright, was outscored in eight of the ten periods
played.

Wolverines Leaders
The University of Michigan Wolverines became one of two watchers of the Big Ten basketball lead Sat­
day by dumping Ohio State 82-61.

Ohio State took a 12-point first period lead, but its defense was no match for the吉林
Wolverines, who poured in 59
points in the second half.

Inability to hit the field accounted for the loss of the Ohio State, but in the pursuit of the game, things seemed to have little relation to the outcome of the season.

The Spartans, scoring 25 points in the second quarter, hustled the Irishmen
past the Spartans, scoring 25 points in the first quarter.

Berry placed a distant second among the scorers with 28 tallies and 6-9 from the free-throw line. The Ohio State team, led by Cleveland's point guard Larry Sheffield, who weilds a great 35 per cent, well below
the cost of injury to Bol.

The defeat left the Green and White in a 9-6 position in the Big Ten, but in the pursuit of the league,
the Michigan State
team was in second at 6-9.
