Sukarno Upsets U.S. Mediation

BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI) — Sukarno has thrown his second challenge to American mediations, this time to a proposed summit meeting in Bangkok. He sent word that he would meet with President Johnson, but would not meet with Secretary of StateVytenis at any time before a Shanghai summit.

The Bangkok summit meeting was set for June, pending Russian approval. But Sukarno, who is embroiled in disputes with Moscow, said he could not come to the meeting until after a meeting with the Chinese premier.

Barring some last-minute complication, France will establish diplomatic relations with Red China. This development is expected to open the way to a Moscow summit.

The French government announced that it would recognize the People's Republic of China, ending a 20-year diplomatic freeze. The decision follows two years of negotiations and was prompted by the recent campering of Red China on the Asian scene.

The news that France would become the first Western power to establish full diplomatic ties with Red China came as a surprise to many observers. It is expected to lead to a similar move by other Western nations, including the United States.

In related news, the United Nations Security Council has agreed to consider a resolution calling for a peaceful solution to the Sino-Soviet dispute. The resolution, sponsored by the United States, was voted on by the council, which met in closed session.

The resolution calls for the immediate withdrawal of Chinese troops from the border areas of Manchuria and Korea, and for the establishment of a neutral zone in the area. It also calls for a resumption of negotiations between the United States and China.

The United States has welcomed the resolution, saying it is a step toward a peaceful resolution of the dispute. China, however, has rejected the resolution, saying it is a干涉 its internal affairs.

Pauline Frederick Speaks

NIBC United Nations correspondent Pauline Frederick's latest column is a political commentary on events, notably by referring to the role of the UN in current political situations.

Miss Frederick told the Lansing Two Memorial dinner that some people would like to see the United Nations in New York or East River, but no现代物流 in the Chinese Union. However, through diplomatic and cooperation efforts, power cannot be used for trade or culture, she said. Miss Frederick opened the lecture by Albert Einstein saying that he could not predict the type of weapons to be used in World War III, that this would be beyond the scope of his knowledge. The United Nations does not resolve all the problems of society, she said. If every nation is persuaded by UN resolutions, "the UN's only weapon is propaganda," she said. Miss Frederick closed the column with the 1965 World Congress stop in Hong Kong, Chinese Union's capital, before the White House.

Yale Prof On Campus

An attempt to answer the ques­tion, “How can a religious con­version be brought about through the power of reason and philosophy at Yale University,” was made by Rev. Dr. Frank F. Parshall, Jr., of Oxford, England, in a public lecture delivered in the Library of Congress on Wednesday afternoon of last week. In addition to being a椭ated with the University of Oxford, he is also a member of the Oxford College of Theology and the Church of England.

The theme for the 1964 mis­sion of “Action Poverty” was selected by Dr. Parshall as a result of his experiences in various parts of the world. He traced his conversion to a moment of meditation, which he had passed through a few years ago.

The lecture was attended by a large audience, and it was followed by a discussion session.

The Jew, trembling and aston­ished, said, “What is this?” and Paul’s Conversion.

“Tribulation and distress, famine, peril, sword, are the means by which the Lord brings to light the hidden things of the mystery. These are the marks of true discipleship, and they are the experiences of those who follow the Lord.”

To say that God is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, is to say that God is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, is to say that God is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, is to say that God is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, is to say that God is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, is to say that God is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles.

Three To Miss Track Opener

Michigan State’s track team will be missing the services of Capt. Sherri Lewis and rookies Dick Shuster and Bill Buntin for its season opener with a dual meet at Central Michigan today. Lewis, who will miss three weeks for transfer from baseball to track, will be given as many weeks in which to condition for the Big Ten meet, and his replacement will be determined by the IM office. Buntin and Shuster will be named to the IM Call-up list for December 6, and Buntin will also be named to the IM Call-up list for December 13.

Conference Vote Has Trio Weekend Off

Besides the big contest Saturday in Pontiac, two other Big Ten teams have entries in the Mid-America Conference meet at Kansas City, Sunday through Monday. The Spartans will again be counting on a couple of sophomores to help carry the scoring burden.

Dennis Yoffee, Bob Lemmer and Julian Sharp will be named to the IM Call-up list for December 6, and Yoffee will also be named to the IM Call-up list for December 13.
