Entoes To Seek New Canal Pact

WASHINGTON — The United States and Panama have reopened diplomatic relations to re-examine the 1914 treaty that gave the United States control of the Panama Canal.

The United States still wants to increase the tolls for shipping through the canal, while Panama wants to increase the tolls for shipping through the canal.

Reuther Urges National Goal

American’s problems of civil rights, education, unemployment, and poverty must be met in any of the various proposals to meet the Congressional challenge, Walter R. Reuther said in his appearance today.

“There is no American’s duty to help the country’s need for order, nor is the United States in any way the leader in order, nor is the United States in order to fight crime in any way,” he said.

Rumors Spreading

New Delhi, India (AP) — India’s foreign minister, V. P. Singh, and his closest allies are expected to resign next week, sources say.

Singh, who has led the nation’s diplomacy efforts, is expected to step down after a series of political setbacks.

The move is expected to be announced on Tuesday.

U-M's Writers Score Again

With the usual arrogance the Michigan Daily managed to find its way into the house of representation. An editorial critical of a legislative tour of the university's facilities was read into the Congressional Record by William H. Thorn, D-Dearborn. Thorn said, "When one of our universities has not one but eight editors of a paper can put this kind of thing in, I think the least we can do is listen"...

Planning For The Library

The preliminary announcement that the Library Study Committee has decided on guidelines by which library space should be set points out one major benefit and one major flaw in the committee's plan.

Library Director Richard Chupin said that the committee's awareness of financial problems involved in expansion will enable it to come up with a "good, practical plan" that we can put into the committee's plans.

It is also within its rights when, in nearly every edition, it publishes an article purporting to show that MSU is deliberately planning to rob U-M of its resources, that our proposed medical school represents a plan to destroy theirs by blood-sucking, or that student journalists are a bunch of dreamers ignoring U-M's crises of "I'm the Great Wester," and going after other schools.

We do not find sense in its stands, but we would defend to the death the right of the Michigan Daily to make a fool of its collective self before the entire state.

Ice Rink Offers Skating Thrills

Michigan State University's ice rink has become well known to inquisitive skaters from the United States and other countries.

Another reason for the popularity of the rink is the handsome, new, low-cost seating arrangement. The seats are upholstered in red and blue leather or plastic, and the rink is illuminated by wall-mounted, cylindrical lights.

The rink is used for public skating, which is held Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights from 9 to 11 p.m., and Sunday afternoons from 2 to 4 p.m.

Chinese Help Cambodian Army

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia — A Moscow University student said Sunday he has eaten meat from a 5,000-year-old mammoth.

The student, Vladislav Komarovsky, is a member of a Soviet delegation that is touring Cambodia.

According to Komarovsky, potassium-argon dating of the mammoth's bones indicates it lived about 5,000 years ago.

The meat was obtained from a Russian mammoth hunter who has spent 1959 exploring for frozen mammoths.

Komarovsky said he came across the mammoth bones while hunting in the Yekaterinburg region.

The mammoth, he said, is 5,000 years old and is frozen.
