John F. Kennedy, president of the United States, will be the keynote speaker for spring commencement ceremonies Saturday, June 6, at 10 a.m., for the University's graduating class at 4 p.m.

Two Democratic members of the appropriations subcommittee of the Senate's Committee to Audit the Federal Budget have introduced a bill that would require a report from the chairman of the Senate Finance Committee to the Committee on Appropriations by the 36th week of the fiscal year.

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP) — The new U.S. jet transport in the Philippines crashed and burned last night, killing all 38 persons on board. The plane was a McDonnell Douglas DC-10 jet.

A Robert Kleiner of Grand Rapids, Mich., with the Michigan Supreme Court on April 7, said the decision to impose sanctions on the American Bar Association for its failure to enforce a bar on attorneys who have been found guilty of misconduct.

In an exchange of letters with the bar association, the American Bar Association said it would consider the matter of imposing sanctions on attorneys who have been found guilty of misconduct.

The plane was last seen in mid-air and burned on impact with the ground.

Two major opponents of redistricting in Michigan, Sen. Robert J. C. Edwards and Rep. Jack T. Hoadley, have introduced a bill that would require a report from the chairman of the Senate Finance Committee to the Committee on Appropriations by the 36th week of the fiscal year.

Red Cedar's Struggles

The staff of Red Cedar Review, representing the best literary effort of the University, has published a fine magazine. Their work has been so successful, in fact, that they are again running into the problem which makes University subsidy necessary.

Students do not buy Red Cedar Review and seem to think that a student magazine is either unnecessary or hopeless, if they think about it at all. In those who are willing to do with publication of RCR remain convinced that a student literary journal is a good thing, but it is not a salable one.

Red Cedar Review editors have suggested a number of solutions to that problem. One of these solutions is the offer of a free magazine to be distributed by University presses. Another solution is the idea of charging a small subscription fee for the magazine. Both of these solutions have merit, but only the latter offers a way to ensure the future of the magazine.

Red Cedar Report

A drive is being launched on campus to obtain student support for the Red Cedar Library. John F. Kennedy personally selected the site for the library, and he was on the campus board of directors after he retired from the presidency.

The site was selected by the Kennedy family as fitting to the University by the Kennedy family as fitting to the University.

I am interested in expanding the library's role in the community. This would house materials related to the Kennedy family and other significant figures in American history.

It is hoped that the library will receive student support and that we will be able to dig them out of their chronic troubles.

Letters To The Editor

"Foreigners' Help Business"

To the Editor:

I have found a number of students who are interested in helping foreigners learn English. These students are willing to work for free and are able to communicate effectively with foreigners. I would like to establish a program to provide this type of help to the community.

SQUISH - Dedicated To Helping Worms

Overseas Programs

The Lord’s work has never been easy. We face many challenges in the overseas programs, but we are committed to helping those in need.

Editor's Note: This is the first of a two-part series on Merit Scholars in the University.

The Merit Program Here Completes First Year

Many students have benefited from the Merit Program, which provides financial assistance to students with exceptional academic and extracurricular achievements.

Responsibility and Challenge

The Merit Program is a great responsibility and a challenge. It is up to us to ensure that the program is successful and that students are able to take advantage of the opportunities it provides.

T.E.N.

Some of the Merit scholars have decided to focus on a particular academic area, such as science, business, or humanities. This allows them to excel in their chosen field.

The Future of Angleworms at MSU

The future of angleworms at MSU depends on the students and their ability to take action. We must work together to solve this problem.

The Future of the University

The future of the University is in the hands of the students. We must work together to ensure that the University is successful and that we are able to take advantage of its resources.
