Proposed Campus Center Could House Auditorium

A student senate center committee is considering the location of a new center that could be constructed on the southwest end of campus near some of the student housing.

Although the building would not interfere with the Bassett dormitory, it is located near several other dormitories and Fields Hall, making it a potential site for the center.

The student center would also serve as a gathering place for students and provide a venue for campus organizations and groups to hold meetings.

Expert Tells Of Highways

The highway that you child

dren and grandchildren will be using on your future travels may be getting new, Bob Wilhite, ho d director of Illinois Department of Highways, said at a gathering of M.U. College of Engineering students.

He estimated that highway travel in the U.S. will increase 25 per cent by 1975. Over a billion miles a year will be traveled by vehicles.

Wilhite also emphasized the importance of safety and adequacy of the road. He said, "In 1968, 49,000 people died on the roads.

400,000 were injured and 28,000 people were left in need of medical care. These are the tolls of the children and grandchildren.

The Drafted Volunteer: Mike Schindlerman, a sophomore, tried to save his blood, but the rest of his precinct wouldn't let him do it. So the other man of the precinct left the register pool and brought him to demonstration hall, where the blood drive workers gave him the needle. Photo by Bill Gribbins.

'Seduced': A Skillful Satire

By GEORGE COOK
State News Reviewer

The film "Seduced," released by the Intercontinental Corporation, is one of those rare comedies that is both funny and meaningful.

The plot concerns a young man's struggle to escape the influence of his father, who has been defeated or a film. His father, a former garage owner, is determined to make his son into a successful businessman.

Farm Groups Disagree On Increasing Prices

Farmers must make an effort to get their share of profits, a representative of the Union of Minnesota and Wisconsin farmers said at a meeting of the National Farmers Organization in Madison, Wis.

"The farmers must understand that co-operatives are fighting the myth of prices," he said. "The prices can be controlled, but only by fighting the myth."
