Senate Restricts Study To Central

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate voted yesterday to restrict its attentions on Central Michigan universities off the hook and center its relations at all state-supplied institutions concerning appointments and reduction, said it was improper to make decisions concerning appointments and policy without the Senate's approval.

The resolution was passed over, referred to the Senate Business Committee, and discussed in a new-arrivals Liberal caucus, final amendment action Thursday limiting the resolution to the resolution since its introduction.

Britain Supports Viet Policy

The United States has been providing some non-combat assistance to Vietnam, her former colony, against Malaysia, which is of prime concern to the United States.

Negroes And Whites In Battle Of Sins

The United States has been providing some non-combat assistance to Vietnam.

Faculty Has Effective Channels For Policy

The Student Board, adopted a resolution to develop a new student government. The amendment action Thursday limiting the resolution to the resolution since its introduction.

Moon Expert Finds Possible Ice Sheet

The moon's surface consists of a layered structure that may reflect on the concept of the moon's surface.

Extension Head Named To Post

WASHINGTON, D.C. (UPI)—The President has appointed Dr. Robert R. McQuitty, AUSG executive vice president and former sopho­more, to the post of assistant secretary of education for the nation's leading lunar experts.

No Paper Monday

Since the staff will do the work, there will be no issue of the Michigan State University advertising and afternoon edition.

Britain Supports Viet Policy

The United States has been providing some non-combat assistance to Vietnam, her former colony, against Malaysia, which is of prime concern to the United States.

Negroes And Whites In Battle Of Sins

The United States has been providing some non-combat assistance to Vietnam.

Faculty Has Effective Channels For Policy

The Student Board, adopted a resolution to develop a new student government. The amendment action Thursday limiting the resolution to the resolution since its introduction.

Moon Expert Finds Possible Ice Sheet

The moon's surface consists of a layered structure that may reflect on the concept of the moon's surface.

Extension Head Named To Post

WASHINGTON, D.C. (UPI)—The President has appointed Dr. Robert R. McQuitty, AUSG executive vice president and former sopho­more, to the post of assistant secretary of education for the nation's leading lunar experts.
That Splendid Little War

What's the matter with Viet Nam? Everyone seems to be wondering these days. Looking for an explanation to what has seemed for a long while an insoluble question.

But this paraphrase of William Allen White's famous question: "What's the matter with Kansas?" might be supplemented with another: Everybody talks about Viet Nam, but nobody does anything about it.

I like to talk about the weather, the talk about Viet Nam—and if it is getting louder and more persistent it is almost as if the whole thing is something about which we know very little. Beyond this realization, it is difficult to take a firm stand.

Abbe Lerner, professor of economics, asked at the teach-in last week, can the President not know? He asked if it were not possible that average citizens, knowing less than the President about the situation, might not be able to make a more reasonable judgment than can the strategists who are bombarded with reams of official military and diplomatic information. Lerner described this as a good point, and it touches on one area in which significant change might be taken right away. The American people just don't know enough about Viet Nam, and it is not enough laziness or lack of interest that this has come about.

There are reports of censorship in the United States, but better informed than most citizens, most individuals have far more questions before deciding what to do.

What is the intent of the United States in Viet Nam? In Southeast Asia? What is the purpose of our obligation to the two "opposing" issues are. Would be more easily discussed if we could all agree to do so not with the attitude that Communist China have in Viet Nam? Will it step in full-scale if we demand? And, possibly most important, will the United States tolerate a northern aggressor? No American and that the Viet Cong at trying to overthrow the United States or any other people. There are strong arguments on both sides which cannot be considered on the President's speech—leave much to the President's imagination. The Viet Cong is not the legitimate government, and that the Viet Cong at trying to overthrow the United States or any other people. There are strong arguments on both sides which cannot be considered on the President's speech—leave much to the President's imagination. The Viet Cong is not the legitimate government.

Viet Nam: Freedom, How?

To the Editor:

"Never Fear to Negotiate" was the theme of the teach-in, and the Times FSU printed the following article:

The American people have a right to decide how their government will go in a situation that cannot be controlled. And the Vietnamese people have a right to decide how much control they want from the United States or any other people.

The Vietnamese people have a right to decide how much control they want from the United States or any other people.

While we realize there are stronger arguments on both sides which could be taken at this time, the State News calls only for negotiations aimed at finding this reasonably progressive and democratic settlement in Viet Nam and for immediate revisions of the information policy which allows white propaganda and insulting management of news about this extremely important issue. We have no right to allow either pullout or escalation to be discussed.

We must negotiate, but we cannot negotiate as long as we insist on conditions which the other side, both indigenous and external, oppose, and which the U.S. will refuse to meet.

It is time to seek a new solution, whether from the "position of strength" which we might like, or from the tenacious position which the Viet Cong is trying. Beyond this realization, it is difficult to take a firm stand.

I See You're From Out West

Dear Editor:

"Never Fear to Negotiate" was the theme of the teach-in, and the Times FSU printed the following article:

"Let's face the facts. Viet Cong and Viet Nam are not separate issues which can be discussed separately. They are just one." This is the position we are taking.

And pray yourself hot! Think yourself clear! It seems quite obvious that if we do not consider the whole issue of Viet Nam, we cannot properly discuss the war.

We demand an explanation in our patriotism be reflected in the operation and go to Washington right away. Either way, the bloody battles now being fought in Viet Nam must be stopped.

Negotiations are the only real solution to what has seemed for a long time to be an insoluble question. We must negotiate, but we cannot negotiate as long as we insist on conditions which the other side, both indigenous and external, opposed, and which we will refuse to meet.

Is it time to seek a new solution, whether from the "position of strength" which we might like, or from the tenacious position which the Viet Cong is trying? Beyond this realization, it is difficult to take a firm stand.

Abbe Lerner, professor of economics, asked at the teach-in last week, can the President not know? He asked if it were not possible that average citizens, knowing less than the President about the situation, might not be able to make a more reasonable judgment than can the strategists who are bombarded with reams of official military and diplomatic information. Lerner described this as a good point, and it touches on one area in which significant change might be taken right away. The American people just don't know enough about Viet Nam, and it is not enough laziness or lack of interest that this has come about.

There are reports of censorship in the United States, but better informed than most citizens, most individuals have far more questions before deciding what to do.

What is the intent of the United States in Viet Nam? In Southeast Asia? What is the purpose of our obligation to the two "opposing" issues are. Would be more easily discussed if we could all agree to do so not with the attitude that Communist China have in Viet Nam? Will it step in full-scale if we demand? And, possibly most important, will the United States tolerate a northern aggressor? No American and that the Viet Cong at trying to overthrow the United States or any other people. There are strong arguments on both sides which cannot be considered on the President's speech—leave much to the President's imagination. The Viet Cong is not the legitimate government, and that the Viet Cong at trying to overthrow the United States or any other people. There are strong arguments on both sides which cannot be considered on the President's speech—leave much to the President's imagination. The Viet Cong is not the legitimate government.

To the Editor:

"Never Fear to Negotiate" was the theme of the teach-in, and the Times FSU printed the following article:

"Let's face the facts. Viet Cong and Viet Nam are not separate issues which can be discussed separately. They are just one." This is the position we are taking.

And pray yourself hot! Think yourself clear! It seems quite obvious that if we do not consider the whole issue of Viet Nam, we cannot properly discuss the war.

We demand an explanation in our patriotism be reflected in the operation and go to Washington right away. Either way, the bloody battles now being fought in Viet Nam must be stopped.

Negotiations are the only real solution to what has seemed for a long time to be an insoluble question. We must negotiate, but we cannot negotiate as long as we insist on conditions which the other side, both indigenous and external, opposed, and which we will refuse to meet.

Is it time to seek a new solution, whether from the "position of strength" which we might like, or from the tenacious position which the Viet Cong is trying? Beyond this realization, it is difficult to take a firm stand.

Abbe Lerner, professor of economics, asked at the teach-in last week, can the President not know? He asked if it were not possible that average citizens, knowing less than the President about the situation, might not be able to make a more reasonable judgment than can the strategists who are bombarded with reams of official military and diplomatic information. Lerner described this as a good point, and it touches on one area in which significant change might be taken right away. The American people just don't know enough about Viet Nam, and it is not enough laziness or lack of interest that this has come about.

There are reports of censorship in the United States, but better informed than most citizens, most individuals have far more questions before deciding what to do.

What is the intent of the United States in Viet Nam? In Southeast Asia? What is the purpose of our obligation to the two "opposing" issues are. Would be more easily discussed if we could all agree to do so not with the attitude that Communist China have in Viet Nam? Will it step in full-scale if we demand? And, possibly most important, will the United States tolerate a northern aggressor? No American and that the Viet Cong at trying to overthrow the United States or any other people. There are strong arguments on both sides which cannot be considered on the President's speech—leave much to the President's imagination. The Viet Cong is not the legitimate government, and that the Viet Cong at trying to overthrow the United States or any other people. There are strong arguments on both sides which cannot be considered on the President's speech—leave much to the President's imagination. The Viet Cong is not the legitimate government.
Films Shown

Space Team Presents Talk

A free three-man aerospace team will give an illustrated talk on the latest space efforts of the United States Air Force at 4 p.m. today in 114 Bessey. The three-man aerospace team is sponsored by R. 1. L. Lodge 799, Michigan State University.

License Fees To Double

LANSING—The Michigan House has introduced legislation which would nearly double license fees for passenger planes, the bill for a similar measure for land planes and would increase the fees on smoke and flame-clearing devices.

No Car Stickers—Police Stickers

A campaign geared to Charles McDonald was started by the city's police yesterday night because police were receiving false reports that cars were being ticketed. The city also issued a new sticker for 1965.

Pope Blesses Youth

Rome—Pope Paul VI washed, dried and kissed the feet of 55 young people yesterday. The Pope's action, the first since 1964, took place during the Holy Thursday mass in the Vatican. In his homily, the Pope asked the youth to help him in his work of directing the youth of the world.

Red Changes Colors

LANSING—In its effort to improve the public relations image of its lodge, the 1. 1. 8. R. 1. L. Lodge 799, Michigan State University, has changed the name of its lodge to R. 1. L. Lodge 799, Michigan State University.

License Fees To Double

LANSING—The Michigan House has introduced legislation which would nearly double license fees for passenger planes, the bill for a similar measure for land planes and would increase the fees on smoke and flame-clearing devices.

License Fees To Double

LANSING—The Michigan House has introduced legislation which would nearly double license fees for passenger planes, the bill for a similar measure for land planes and would increase the fees on smoke and flame-clearing devices.

License Fees To Double

LANSING—The Michigan House has introduced legislation which would nearly double license fees for passenger planes, the bill for a similar measure for land planes and would increase the fees on smoke and flame-clearing devices.

License Fees To Double

LANSING—The Michigan House has introduced legislation which would nearly double license fees for passenger planes, the bill for a similar measure for land planes and would increase the fees on smoke and flame-clearing devices.

License Fees To Double

LANSING—The Michigan House has introduced legislation which would nearly double license fees for passenger planes, the bill for a similar measure for land planes and would increase the fees on smoke and flame-clearing devices.

License Fees To Double

LANSING—The Michigan House has introduced legislation which would nearly double license fees for passenger planes, the bill for a similar measure for land planes and would increase the fees on smoke and flame-clearing devices.

License Fees To Double

LANSING—The Michigan House has introduced legislation which would nearly double license fees for passenger planes, the bill for a similar measure for land planes and would increase the fees on smoke and flame-clearing devices.

License Fees To Double

LANSING—The Michigan House has introduced legislation which would nearly double license fees for passenger planes, the bill for a similar measure for land planes and would increase the fees on smoke and flame-clearing devices.

License Fees To Double

LANSING—The Michigan House has introduced legislation which would nearly double license fees for passenger planes, the bill for a similar measure for land planes and would increase the fees on smoke and flame-clearing devices.
Poll Supports Expansion

BY DUANE LANCASTER
State News Sports Writer

Coaches and athletic directors battle in their efforts to expand the program for the summer.

There were favorable poll, with 25 games, making some kind of Big Ten season possible.

The proposed program set up for the 1965-66 season would have a 15-game regular Big Ten season, 15 games against other Big Ten teams, and 5 games against non-Big Ten teams.

"The boys are rounding into shape," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The regular season will begin on May 15, with the remainder of the schedule to be determined by the players.

The proposed schedule includes a class B league and a proposed program for the summer.

Forest Akers Sets Monday Tee-Off

Forest Akers Golf Course will open for play today, indicating further completion of the extension.

"The course is coming along nicely," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The proposed program set up for the 1965-66 season would have a 15-game regular Big Ten season, 15 games against other Big Ten teams, and 5 games against non-Big Ten teams.

"The boys are rounding into shape," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The proposed schedule includes a class B league and a proposed program for the summer.

Forest Akers Sets Monday Tee-Off

Forest Akers Golf Course will open for play today, indicating further completion of the extension.

"The course is coming along nicely," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The proposed program set up for the 1965-66 season would have a 15-game regular Big Ten season, 15 games against other Big Ten teams, and 5 games against non-Big Ten teams.

"The boys are rounding into shape," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The proposed schedule includes a class B league and a proposed program for the summer.

Forest Akers Sets Monday Tee-Off

Forest Akers Golf Course will open for play today, indicating further completion of the extension.

"The course is coming along nicely," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The proposed program set up for the 1965-66 season would have a 15-game regular Big Ten season, 15 games against other Big Ten teams, and 5 games against non-Big Ten teams.

"The boys are rounding into shape," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The proposed schedule includes a class B league and a proposed program for the summer.

Forest Akers Sets Monday Tee-Off

Forest Akers Golf Course will open for play today, indicating further completion of the extension.

"The course is coming along nicely," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The proposed program set up for the 1965-66 season would have a 15-game regular Big Ten season, 15 games against other Big Ten teams, and 5 games against non-Big Ten teams.

"The boys are rounding into shape," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The proposed schedule includes a class B league and a proposed program for the summer.

Forest Akers Sets Monday Tee-Off

Forest Akers Golf Course will open for play today, indicating further completion of the extension.

"The course is coming along nicely," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The proposed program set up for the 1965-66 season would have a 15-game regular Big Ten season, 15 games against other Big Ten teams, and 5 games against non-Big Ten teams.

"The boys are rounding into shape," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The proposed schedule includes a class B league and a proposed program for the summer.

Forest Akers Sets Monday Tee-Off

Forest Akers Golf Course will open for play today, indicating further completion of the extension.

"The course is coming along nicely," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The proposed program set up for the 1965-66 season would have a 15-game regular Big Ten season, 15 games against other Big Ten teams, and 5 games against non-Big Ten teams.

"The boys are rounding into shape," said Manager Jake Reinhard. "There are still some bumps and bruises, but they should be ready this weekend."

The proposed schedule includes a class B league and a proposed program for the summer.
American University of the Americas

Placement Bureau

APRIL 22, FRIDAY

American University of the Americas,

Bellaire Public Schools: Early trial Arts, Business Education, Elementary Program Director

CMEA: Personnel and other majors of Business (B.M), Various.

Bellaire Public Schools: Early trial Arts, Business Education, Elementary Program Director

Summer Employment

APRIL 22, THURSDAY

We are looking for energetic, experienced team players with excellent work ethics and a sense of humor.

Instruments are now available through the office (5-4711).

CMEA inclusionary workshops for each match. Teams will continue with the league allowance. Training school is planned for July 320 South Walnut, Lansing, Michigan, 48913.

SCHEDULED ANNUAL INCREASES.

Earnings may range from $1.25 per hour, and up. Benefits include " free meals, free sewing machine, free health care, free insurance, free training, and a variety of other perks."

APRIL 23, FRIDAY

10 a.m. On Campus—(Provost R. R. Alston)"A problem of the College of Engineering, an open forum, discussion of engineering programs.

12 noon CHARPENTIER: "Mass for the Departed." University Choir;

7 p.m.—Toscanini Era, All-Wagner concert.

11 p.m.—This is Folkmusic.

SATURDAY—

8 p.m. Christmas Choral Concert. (Chanterelle of the University.)

SATURDAY—

10 a.m.—Same as Today's Concert:

1 p.m.—Same as Today's Concert:

7 p.m.—Toscanini Era, All-Wagner concert.

11 p.m.—This is Folkmusic.

Zing into spring in a new Chevrolet

Zing into spring in a new Chevrolet.
University Presents Brahms' 'Requiem'

The University chorus and orchestra, under the direction of Cornell L. Franklin, instructor of music, will present Brahms' 'Requiem' at 8 tonight in the auditorium. The work is considered one of the major sacred choral compositions of the modern era. The University has presented the Brahms work in English in previous seasons.

Performance Set Of 'Ili Trovatore'

The complete performance of 'Ili Trovatore' will be presented at 8 tonight in the auditorium. The University Women's Chorus and Orchestra will present the opera with the stage setting and costumes designed by the University Department of Drama. The opera, considered one of the 20th century's great operatic masterpieces, will be performed in English.

Girls Wanted For Contest

The University Women's Chorus and Orchestra will present the Brahms work in English in previous seasons.

Trip To Art Institute Has Room For More

The University Women's Chorus and Orchestra will present the Brahms work in English in previous seasons.

Italian Life Depicted In Travelogue

Kenneth Hatcher has returned to the University after his recent tour of Italy for producing a travelogue on the land of the Romans. The travelogue depicts the Italian civilization from the days of the Roman Empire to the days of the modern nation. The travelogue will be presented in the auditorium at 8 tonight.

Co-ordinator Talk

William Silvert, a research assistant professor of art, will give a talk on 'Super Conductors In Contact' at 4 p.m. in the auditorium. The talk will be of interest to students in the physics department.

Festival of Jazz

See the SWINGINGEST SHOW on CAMPUS

April 19-20 7:30 P.M. Music Aud.

“A hasty, boldy provocative production” — Marion

A spectacular story of conflict and consciousness—murder and madness—revolts and revenge—love and hate that changed the course of human history.

Richard Peter Burton-O'Toole Hall Walle Becket

OTHER EXCITING JAZZ GROUPS FREE

Starts Tomorrow. Super Bargain Day!

This Is The BIG ONE YOU HAVE SEEN ADVERTISED ON TV ACTION-ADVENTURE-RISEN IN BREATHTAKING COLOR—ALL NEW

don't miss it...
Traditional Passover For Near Jewish Liberation Feast

The first Passover was celebrated in Egypt some 3,000 years ago, when Moses was leading the Hebrews out of the land of their captivity. It was a time when the Hebrews were preparing for their flight from Egypt. The Passover is a time when we remember the events that occurred during that time. The first Passover was a time when the Israelites were commanded to eat unleavened bread as a symbol of their haste. This meal was eaten in haste because the Israelites had to leave Egypt quickly.

First Presbyterian Church

East Lansing United

All Saints Episcopal Church

Lutheran Church

EAST LANSING

First Church of Christ, Scientist

ALUMNI MEMORIAL CHAPEL

LUTHERAN WORSHIP

First Church of the Nazarene

Events Of First Easter Recall Disciples' Actions

VATICAN Says War Possible

Today in Good Friday, the day when Christ the world supreme to remember the death of war in the world, the United Nations many years ago. Crude and ridiculous as it may sound, the "King of the Jews" had no choice but to die on the cross. For if he had lived on, he would have had to face the realities of the world with all its wars and conflicts.

If we look at the world today, we see that war and conflict are still very much a part of our lives. The world is not at peace, and we must continue to work towards a better world where war is no longer a reality.

Good Friday Message

Mr. Robert Glass, pastor, spoke at the Good Friday service at Edgewood United Church of Christ. He talked about the significance of Good Friday and how it relates to our lives today.

Good Friday was a day of great sacrifice for Jesus Christ. He died on the cross for our sins, and we are reminded of this sacrifice every year at Good Friday services.

"Activating Memorable Church" 9:45 A.M. - 11:45 A.M.

MORNING WORSHIP

First Baptist Church

First Christian Reformed Church

Edgewood United Church of Christ

Plymouth Congregational Church

University Methodist Church

You are Invited to Attend A FREE LECTURE ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE entitled "WHAT IS LIFE?" By JAMES C. WATT C.S. Washington, D.C. Member of the Board of Directors of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, N.York and London. Sunday, April 18, 1945 - 3:00 p.m. LAVING CIVIC CENTER - Small Auditorium 515 W. Grand River

The Good Friday service was held at Edgewood United Church of Christ. The service was led by Mr. Robert Glass, pastor, who spoke about the significance of Good Friday and how it relates to our lives today.