Problems Can Arise For Apartment Dwellers

Housing Director Offers Tips

By PHILLY HELPER State News Staff Writer

Student problems encountered off-campus housing have arisen. Off-campus housing regulations are still being discussed at the Board of Trustees meetings.

The idea is to lower age limit to 18.0 years. Students would be allowed to live off-campus if they could show that they lived elsewhere and needed the housing.

There has been a recent survey among students if they have moved off-campus, and of those who did not want to live there, how often would they want to live there.

During the year from September 15 to June 15, some students will be eligible to live off-campus.

The regulations will be written into a new contract and the results will be looked at by the University.

Although the regulations concerned with students will be written by the University, some students are not sure if they will be available until the end of the year.

Presidential T. S. Nash, director of off-campus housing, suggests that student tips may be written by students who will be living in off-campus housing.

Whither MSU's Athletic Program?

Editorial

While it may be true that football is often criticized for producing a large number of athletes who go on to pursue careers in other sports, it is also important to recognize the positive impact that athletic programs can have on students' lives. What do you think?

Mississippi Runs With Record Crest

NEW YORK TIMES—The rampaging Mississippi River crested tonight outside the embattled Quad-cities, where thousands of volunteers strove to contain the mounting flood. The peak of the major Mississippi flood was expected this week. The crest had already threatened to engulf seven major cities.

Marines Clash With Viet Cong

SAIGON—Strong U.S. Marines patrolled Tuesday with Communist guerrillas outside the Saigon dome and added another to the scores of roadside incidents. At least three mortar shells hit the U.S. Marine barracks at Khe Sanh, causing one Marine to be hospitalized.

De Gaulle Attacks Viet Nam

PARIS—De Gaulle said Tuesday that he was ready to impose a ban on military intervention in the internal affairs of any state; no foreign policy. He added that the French government will not force any country to maintain peaceful relations with Viet Nam.

A. Kimmich Tuesday said he will appoint a special survey committee to study the Criminally Insane.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill.—The rampaging Mississippi River crested tonight, reaching the levee near the Rock Island Arsenal. The crest had already caused the evacuation of thousands of residents.

Talk Given On Enterprise
In India
Public enterprises, as opposed to private enterprises, vary widely in purpose, size, and performance. Some are engaged in basic industries, others in consumer goods production, and still others in social services. In some countries, public enterprises are large and efficient, while in others they are small and poorly run.

No Pie In Sky

The search for values in an age of contradictions of capitalism and social pessimism, Feied said. There's more to the hobo than Jack Kerouac. The hobo represents the economic and political freedom. There are many obesessees who believe in the hobo as an American culture. They believe in the hobo as a symbol of the American culture.
