Viet Meeting At Beaumont

Group Claims U.S. Crimes

By LINDA BOYLE
State News Staff Writer

A return to the 1948 Geneva Accords, international agreements that have been violated by the United States and the United Nations, was proposed by members of the U.N. at a press conference Tuesday, the last day of the conference.

The United Nations, founded in 1945, was created to bring about peace and to promote international cooperation. The United Nations has been instrumental in bringing about the end of World War II and the beginning of the Cold War.

LETTERS TO THE LETTERER

To the Editor:

Dear Miss Helper,

I was indeed horrified by your column Friday. It was bad, but a little bit more professional. I am loiely reading these things, except that you are very much a professional. If you think of the world as a whole, the way you are writing here is very much a professional. It is very much a professional.

Best regards,

Hybrid Corn And The Library

To the Editor:

Dear Sir,

I read with interest the recent debate regarding the use of hybrid corn in libraries. I believe that this is an important issue and one that deserves further consideration. I am inclined to support the proposal for the use of hybrid corn in libraries.

Sincerely,

Veterinarians

Tour Europe

A group of Michigan veteri narians will leave today for Europe on a ten week tour of the Veterinary Schools in 21 countries.

The trip is being arranged by Dr. John R. Stayer, an

Ann Arbor veterinarian who served in the armed forces in Europe during World War II.

The delegation will include veterinarians from all over

Michigan and will be joined by veterinary students from the University of Michigan and Michigan State University.

The tour will include visits to veterinary schools in Europe, as well as to animal hospitals, research institutions, and veterinary organizations.

The purpose of the trip is to exchange ideas and information on the latest developments in veterinary medicine and to promote cooperation among veterinary organizations in Europe.

The tour will take the group to countries such as France, Germany, and Italy, where they will have the opportunity to observe and learn from veterinarians in those countries.

The trip will also include visits to animal hospitals and research institutions, where veterinarians will have the opportunity to

TUESDAY, MAY 4. 1965

The sport of lacrosse may not be as well known as football or basketball, but its fans are becoming more numerous each year. The Michigan State lacrosse team is one of the strongest in the nation, and its players are gaining recognition for their skills.

The lacrosse team, paced by All-American selection, Jim Walsh, and coached by Bob Daugherty, will address the MSU Varsity Club, tonight at 8.30, at the MSU Union. Daugherty will discuss the season and the team's upcoming tournament.

Tougher in gaining its victories than the football team, is the caption for the time capsule of victories. The MSU lacrosse team has won state championships in the past two years, and is expected to continue its winning streak.

Calm But Not Carefree
Baseball, As Seen From The Dugout

By HOWARD L. STRONG

Calm, but definitely not carefree, is the way baseball is played. This is especially true on the coaching sidelines. Howie Miller of the Michigan State baseball team said, "It's the biggest game you've ever played." The coaches are constantly trying to rouse their teams to victory.

Who will be Michigan State University's Cat Ballou?

Jane Fonda plays Cat Ballou in the wild, wooly, way-out western. She's beautiful, daring and feminine, with a wonderul, way-out western. She's beautiful, daring and feminine, telling the story of a woman who was a fighter, but left the game. Now, she's back, and she's ready to take on the world.

The weather is news, too. It's likely to force a delay of the baseball season, since the team is scheduled for a weekend series against Iowa. The game may be played on Friday night, since the weather is expected to be fair.

Baseball, As Seen From The Dugout

"Hey rubber-arm, it's git tin' close," yelled Michigan State's coach, Howie Miller, as the pitcher's mound to the plate. "Come on Boneyman," he added, "hey, Skip, shouldn't Biederman be at the game?" "No, " said Miller, "but we're playing our way into the tournament." The Michigan State baseball team is preparing for its upcoming tournament, and the coaches are constantly trying to rouse their teams to victory.

The news is not exactly a beauty contest. Anybody can have those things on their mind. The man, the woman, the game, and the weather are all part of the game. "Hey, Skip, shouldn't Biederman be at the game?" "No, " said Miller, "but we're playing our way into the tournament." The Michigan State baseball team is preparing for its upcoming tournament, and the coaches are constantly trying to rouse their teams to victory.

Terror In Rebel City

Santo Domingo—the rebel sector commander leaned out of the car window and waved. "This is the last time you'll ever have to show all that scrap, Mr. Cap,"

The word was passed along and moments later a hundred armed men rode down the road we had been following, machine guns blazing.
