Student Peace Marchers Met By Riot-Ready Police Force

BY FAYE E. UNGER
State News Staff Writer

Police armed with an handles and tear gas pressed into a police barricade from the campus. With no police force in the area, the demonstrators were able to gain access to the campus. The situation was tense and aggressive on both sides, with protesters throwing rocks and police using tear gas. Despite this, the police were able to control the situation and prevent any further outbreaks of violence.

The Big Stickler

President Johnson's escalation of American involvement in the Dominican Republic revolt leaves us wondering where it will all end.

Last week a small number of Marines were sent in to preserve order enough to allow American nationals to leave Santo Domingo. This seemed like the good old Monroe Doctrine, a little dusty after several decades of inaction, but still useful.

But within a few days Marines by the thousands were getting shot at in the Dominican Republic, and it was like a return to the crises of the Renaissance. Whether it is in the United States or in the Western hemisphere's tiny nation as small and poor as the Dominican Republic, it is worth breaking international laws to keep the outsiders from gaining control of this country.

The Johnson Doctrine may make sense in this country, but it doesn't seem to be going a very long way toward preserving the unity of the hemisphere or the political independence and self-determination of the Dominicans.

There are the two main goals Johnson and the Nationalists have had in Santo Domingo, and they should not be separated.

The Big Stick, updated to 1965, is the Big Stickler, and we had better have some answers prepared for when the world asks us what we are doing.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Key Club

I am an active member of Key Club and I am very concerned about the recent campaign to divide the club into Pro- and Anti-peace groups.

The campaign has been very effective in bringing attention to the important issue of peace, but it has also created a division within the club that I believe is counterproductive.

I believe that Key Club should remain united and focused on the goal of promoting peace and understanding.

Pro-War and Peace

I would like to respond to the Pro-War and Peace debate that has taken place in our Key Club. While it is important to discuss different perspectives, I believe that focusing on competition between these groups can be divisive.

I propose that we instead work towards a more inclusive approach, where all members can contribute to the cause of peace.

Playtime

In response to the recent debate on Peace in our Key Club, I would like to suggest an alternative approach.

Instead of dividing the club into Pro- and Anti-peace groups, we could focus on promoting playtime and collaboration.

By engaging in fun and creative activities together, we can build stronger bonds and a sense of unity.

Go Green!

As a member of Key Club, I support the idea of a "Go Green" campaign. While the debate on Peace continues, I believe that it is important to also consider environmental issues.

We can promote sustainability practices within our club and encourage others to do the same.

But Seriously...

The Offbeat Generation

By DONlock

Yesterday I had a very interesting experience. On my way to class, I saw a group of people standing outside the big red building.

People seemed very excited and some were even dancing! I joined them and we started talking.

It turned out they were preparing for a protest against something, but I couldn't quite figure out what it was about.

I hope we can find out more about this group and their cause. It seems like they're doing something important and it's always good to be engaged in meaningful activities.

Clothes Don't Make The Man

Dear Mr. Editor:

I have noticed that some students are expressing concern about their appearance. While it's important to be comfortable in what we wear, I believe it's crucial to focus on inner qualities.

We should celebrate individuality and encourage students to express themselves authentically, rather than conforming to societal expectations.

HAWKEYES, GOPHERS FACE BATSMEN

Middle-Of-Roaders Meet Head-On

By DUANE LANCASTER

State News Sports Writer

Iowa, Minnesota and Michigan, all put for all fans in the Big Ten. The baseball season started as usual with the opening of the April 13-14 series at Iowa City, and as usual, fans were disappointed.

The Hawkeyes, 2-2 in the conference last year, have been one of the heroes of the Big Ten in recent years. They suffered a 13-0 loss to the Gophers, but showed some spirit in the opener with a 2-1 victory.

In the opening game, the Gophers took advantage of the Hawkeyes' mistakes and scored three runs in the first inning. The Hawkeyes showed some fighting spirit in the second and third innings, but the Gophers continued to score and won, 8-3.

The Hawkeyes' bats were almost non-existent, and their pitching was not much better. The Gophers scored two runs in the third inning and one in the fifth.

In the second game, the Hawkeyes also showed some spirit, but the Gophers were too strong. The Hawkeyes scored two runs in the third inning, but the Gophers scored three runs in the first and one in the fifth.

The Hawkeyes' pitching was not much better than in the first game, and the Gophers scored three runs in the first and one in the fifth.

Protestant Agency Aids World ‘Needy’

Church World Service, Inc., whose major mission is to aid and sustain mission and relief work in developing nations, held its 1965 annual meeting in Lansing this week. The meeting is the first since the agency changed its name to Church World Service from Overseas Missions Division.

Church World Service, Inc., was established in 1944 by the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and the Episcopal Church. It serves as a central agency for the two churches to coordinate and fund development programs around the world.

“The purpose of the meeting is to review the work of the agency during the previous year and to select the major projects to be developed in the coming year,” said Rev. David K. Ehrlin, executive secretary of the agency.

The meeting also includes the election of officers and the adoption of a budget for the coming year.

SACRAMENT-The Sacrament of Confirmation is planned for next year at the Presbyterian Student Center by Bishop Zetlitz, making his first visit to MSU since his first appointment.

Cabot Lodge Conferences In Secret With Pope

Faith On Campus
Follow That Star
By Mary Fischer

The field of faith often seems a lonely one, as the many ministers and priests who have taken the vows of the holy order of their churches have learned. Take away these “sacred” vows and we would have a people with little hope and no reason for wanting to pray. For the campus minister, it is necessary to pray himself, but he is still a student and in some ways, the new immigrant to a new country. He is often a stranger in his own country, a ruler in a city or as just as impossible star for which to try to have a mission. Though he is a minister, he is, in a sense, a freelancer. He is a priest, but he is still a student, perhaps a bit of a shaman. He is a priest, and he is a student. He is a priest, and he is a student. He is a priest, and he is a student. He is a priest, and he is a student. He is a priest, and he is a student.

In the following, there are anecdotes of course, but his reasons should be taken for what they are, for there is, in the words of “Finish,” just a reason to learn many of the things which are important to one’s faith. One can be a priest, one can be a student, one can be a student. One can be a student, one can be a student. One can be a student, one can be a student. One can be a student, one can be a student.

Small Animals Day Uses Student Help

Small Animals Day, which is sponsored by the Animal Science Club, will be held on Tuesday, May 11th. The event will take place on the east side of the parking lot between the library and the Agriculture building. Students who are interested in participating should contact Jim Sink in A-411 Bailey or John Mongeon in 245 West Shaw. The goal of the event is to encourage students to become involved in animal science and to provide an opportunity for them to experience working with small animals in a hands-on setting.

Weekend Kicks-Off With Concert

Attendees are encouraged to bring their friends and enjoy a fun night out on campus. For more information, please contact Kicker at kicker@msu.edu.

Student Board Cuts Budget

The Student Board recently announced plans to cut the budget for the Student Union. The cuts are estimated to save $10,000 from the Student Union's fiscal year budget. The board has identified several areas where cuts can be made, including reductions in the Student Union's operating budget and the elimination of some student organization funds. The board believes that these cuts are necessary to ensure the financial stability of the Student Union and to provide more funds for other important campus initiatives. The board has emphasized that these cuts will not affect the Student Union's ability to provide important services and programs to students.

WHAT ARE THE "SKIN VITAMINS"?

Vitamins A, E and B help keep skin soft, moist and healthy.

In short, good nutrition is a must. What else helps?

Camay. It doesn't have any vitamins, but it does have cold cream. Rich, thick, moisturizer-packed cold cream.

Washing with Camay cleans your skin, helps keep it soft and moist; too.

Want attractive skin? Remember that good diet, with vitamins such as A, E and B. And mind your Ps and Qs when you choose your soap, Camay.
