Record ASMSU Budget Passed

The ASMSU passed or re-adopted a $15,770 winter-term budget at its regular meeting on Wednesday.

The balance for the term, minus $2,069.49 for term deficit, is $13,700.71. Funds available are student tax, $12,496.71; student government services, $600; and Senate and Student Body advertising, $200. The book store allotment was cut from $1,000 to $500 for the term. Special fund allotment was cut from $1,200 to $600 for the term, plus $250 for plans.

A change was made in the budget for $514.65 for printing, $250 for printing, and $50 for printing. Funds were given as revisions under the item of "Finance, Traveler's Checks and Cash." Also discussed at the meeting was the need for student help for the Library for its campus program, and a proposed也随之 system. There is an estimated 25,000 students of which 15,000 are volunteers and are needed.

The proposed budget was referred to the Student Senate, and the Senate is expected to approve it. Be sure to bring this budget to your attention when you vote on the budget in the Student Senate in about one month.

At 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, the House of Representatives was in session, and 360 votes were cast. All votes were cast in favor of the special session called by the House of Representatives to consider the budget for the special session.

It is also known that the resolution that the budget be approved was unanimously passed by the House of Representatives. It was passed unanimously by all members of the House of Representatives.

The budget for this session of the Michigan State University is $15,770. This amount is expected to be returned to the students at the end of the session.

Lyndon B. Johnson asks New City Plans

Johnson asks New City Plans

Washing Iron (AP) -- President Johnson proposed Wednesday a $2,300,000,000 program in the United States to aid the city of St. Louis, which would be used to aid the city of St. Louis and other major cities.

Johnson described as a "vast" measure the project, in which anything that we do about health and safety and roads and schools that are safe from bomb damage.

In his message to Congress, Johnson outlined a broad range of opportunities in city planning, ranging from the rebuilding of a city to the provision of schools. He said it was the Reconstruction and Development Act of 1940, which was passed by Congress in 1940, and which was signed by President Roosevelt. This was the first of a series of acts that were passed by Congress to aid the homeless, the aged, the unemployed, and the disabled.

The administration made a strong appeal for the approval of the United States' Aid Bill.

ASMSU To Probe Students' Freedoms

A student rights and freedoms association has been formed to give student government a voice and to coordinate its activities.

The association is made up of about a dozen students who meet regularly to discuss current issues and to coordinate activities.

The association will work with ASMSU, the student newspaper, and the student government to promote the rights of students and to promote the interests of students.

Respect For Student Rights - A Result Of Schiff Case

By ANDREW MOLLISON

"More enlightened government rights for student and faculty have been secured through the high water mark of America's fight for democracy - the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in New York City."

He and his other members, including Schiff, were among the prominent attorneys who won the right to make the first move in the case of the Farm Security Administration v. Willard. They were instructed by Schiff, assisted by other attorneys, to bring the case to court. Schiff was one of the most prominent attorneys in the country. He was the leader of the American Civil Liberties Union and the principal attorney in the case of the Supreme Court of the United States. A RECENT SURVEY of unemployment opportunities in the South reveals that more than 250,000 Negroes are unemployed before the establishment of Robert F. Kennedy's Department of Housing and Urban Aff. Committee. Negroes who have been selected to be in House-page by Rep. C.B. Johnson, has shown the Negro is being better than expected. In addition, wages, health, and Arizona are beginning to operate on their side rather than on the side of Negroes in these states.

In several instances Negroes have been named to state boards or

Low-Cost IM Skiing Plan
Proposed For Students

Skiing offers an adventure for hockey players, like Michigan's destin- ed for the Breed, and foriskers alike. But the sport also is a bit frugal.

"There's superstitious," said a licencing head coach, who talks from behind them, "so you can't risk any money on it."

"If you're going to do it, you might as well go all the way."

"But I don't see any other way to do it."

"I think it's an idea everyone should try."
Whiteford Rescues A 'Diverless' Narcy

By LARRY WERNER

When John Narcy became defeated in the 1966 Olympic trials, he had no divers to rely on. He had decided to substitute instead, it was once reported, a avenger. Narcy didn't have a bodyboard then, and there was no other choice. So he decided to use his arms and legs to stabilize a platform if necessary.

The man from Oklahoma City was able to get on his feet and do the breast stroke, and the body-board was used as a sort of capboard. Narcy's performance was not as good as it might have been, but he was able to compete.

Now, however, Narcy has a stronger bodyboard and is pretparing for the 1968 Olympic trials.

He will have to compete as a diver, and he will have to show that he can do it.

In the meantime, Narcy is working on his diving and swimming. He is not as strong as he was in 1966, but he is working on it. He is also working on his bodyboard, and he has had some success.

Rights Gain Respect

FRANKFORT, Ky. — Gov. John Y. Brown said Monday that the state is moving toward a new era of positive political cooperation and fair representation for all Kentuckians.

As the state teeters on the brink of a government shutdown, Brown said he is already taking steps to ensure that the state government continues to function smoothly.

"The fight to retake our party is over," Brown said. "We have moved beyond the rhetoric and politics of the past and are working together for the betterment of our state."
Vets Protest Burial in Arlington

PHILADELPHIA (UP) - The Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion have elected to bury a late Communist leader from New York at the veteran's national cemetery at Arlington, Va., a "success story."

The VFW, presenting the issue at Arlington, wanted the Philadelphia congressional delegations to join in the case to the Senate of their position. Morton E. Halperin, chairman of the VFW's Washington chapter, was the official delegate for the organization.

Ice Age Holds Weather Key

By GEORGE TAYLOR
State News Staff Writer

Everyone knows that the weather for the coldest period of the last glacial period is generally known as the "Ice Age." The climate during this period was characterized by widespread glaciers, low temperatures, and a significant change in the Earth's weather patterns. The study of the Ice Age has been crucial in understanding past climate changes and their impact on the modern world. Researchers have noted that the Ice Age was a time of significant climate change, with cold temperatures and widespread ice sheets. This period is important in understanding the mechanisms that drive climate change and the potential impacts of future climate change on the Earth's ecosystems. The study of the Ice Age has also shed light on the role of natural and human factors in shaping the Earth's climate. Overall, the Ice Age holds the key to understanding the complex processes that govern the Earth's climate and its variability over time.
