WINTER CARNIVAL FLOWS $7,600

Johnson, Kennedy In Agreement—'If

From Our Wire Services
WASHINGTON—President Kennedy and Vice President Johnson today issued a joint statement in which they said they believed the Vietnam peace talks were taking shape and should eventually lead to a settlement.

The statement was the first joint public pronouncement of the two leaders since Miss何况 (communicate) with Johnson last May.

The leaders also said they were confident that the negotiations would be concluded in the next few months.

The statement was signed by Kennedy and Johnson.

AFL-CIO To Fight For Wages

MIAMI, Fla.—AFL-CIO President George Meany today called for a nationwide strike to improve wages and working conditions.

Meany said the high voluntary turnover was the result of low wages and poor working conditions.

He said the call for a nationwide strike was necessary to improve wages and working conditions.

Experiments Everywhere

Should students be used as guinea pigs?

A few years ago, this question was considered to be of the utmost importance, as experiments were being performed on students without their knowledge or consent.

The practice of using students as guinea pigs in experiments is still prevalent today, with many students being subjected to experiments without their knowledge or consent.

The use of students as guinea pigs in experiments is often justified by the need for research and development.

However, the use of students as guinea pigs in experiments raises ethical concerns and should be avoided.

In conclusion, the use of students as guinea pigs in experiments is not only unethical, but also raises serious concerns about the welfare of the students involved.

Don't Ax Winter Carnival

The Winter Carnival Committee has had to make a difficult decision.

The committee was faced with the challenging task of determining whether or not to proceed with the Carnival.

The decision was made after careful consideration of various factors, including the potential risks and benefits.

The committee decided to proceed with the Carnival, and the event was a success.

In conclusion, the Winter Carnival Committee made the right decision, and the Carnival was a great success.

Ride of the Wrong Way

To the Editor:

This letter is in regard to the recent accident (Jan. 11, 1966) at the University of Minnesota's campus area.

When attempting to cross the street at the intersection of 14th Avenue and University Avenue, I was struck by a motorist driving in the wrong direction.

I would like to express my gratitude to the people who came to my aid and to the university for their prompt action.

In conclusion, I would like to thank everyone who helped me and to express my appreciation to the university for its prompt action.

Whos That Behind the Red Rug?

To the Editor:

This letter is in regard to the recent incident (Feb. 24, 1966) at the University of Minnesota's campus area.

I was walking on the main campus area when I noticed a group of people gathered around a large red rug.

I approached the group to see what was happening and was surprised to find a group of people engaged in a lively debate.

In conclusion, I would like to express my gratitude to the people who came to my aid and to the university for their prompt action.

Van Cliburn: Tired But Tremendous

By BOB ZECHENI
State News Staff Writer

Last month, Van Cliburn was in a wheelchair. He was injured in a automobile accident. He was taken to a hospital, where he was treated for his injuries. He then returned to his home, where he began to recover.

But now, Cliburn is back on stage, performing with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra. He has been playing for several weeks, and he continues to improve.

The first time I heard Cliburn was when I was a little boy. I was at a concert, and he played one of his famous pieces, "The Fourth of July." I was amazed by his skills, and I knew right away that I wanted to be like him.

I've been studying the piano for many years, and I've learned a lot from Cliburn. His dedication and hard work have inspired me to keep practicing, even when it's difficult.

I can't wait to see him perform again. He's one of the greatest pianists of all time, and he deserves all the respect and admiration he receives.

AT THE APEX--The line of waiters that formed to talk to Van Cliburn after his Monday night ride concert quickly formed to the line and there a crowd.

S. Korea May Up Viet Nam Troops

U.S. South Korea--U.S. Vice President Richard Nixon met yesterday with General Vo Tran Bau, prime minister of South Vietnam, to discuss the possibility of increasing the number of U.S. troops in Vietnam.

"We have been discussing the possibility of increasing the number of U.S. troops in Vietnam," Nixon said. "We believe that it is necessary to strengthen our military presence in the region to counter the growing threat from North Vietnam."
Coed To Help Needy Children

Preliminary results of the first year of coeducation at the University of Michigan this semester show a benefit for both boys and girls. The idea of coeducation is not new, but this is the first time that it has been tried on a large scale at this university. The program has been well received by both students and faculty, and there is hope that it will continue in the future.

Quicker TB Testing Could Cure Vaccine

A new technique for testing for tuberculosis has been developed by Dr. E. J. Mallmann at the University of Michigan. This technique, known as the "Mallmann test," is much more rapid than the traditional tuberculin test and can be used to detect tuberculosis in as little as 15 minutes.

The Mallmann test works by injecting a small amount of a special solution into the skin of the patient. If the patient has been exposed to tuberculosis, an allergic reaction will occur, which can be detected by observing the skin for signs of swelling or redness. This reaction is much quicker than the tuberculin test, which can take several days to produce a result.

The Mallmann test is also more accurate than the tuberculin test, and it is less likely to cause false positives or negatives. In addition, the Mallmann test is easier to perform and requires less equipment than the tuberculin test.

The new technique is already being used by physicians and hospitals throughout the country, and it is expected to become even more widely used in the future.
