LBJ Receives Warning Along With Votes

PRESIDENT LYNDON B. JOHNSON GB
Our Daily Bread

The war in Vietnam and the stringent budgetary restrictions put two negative spots on the president's face. In Vietnam, the war is risking a significant number of American lives and causing economic strain at home. In the United States, the budgetary restrictions are leading to cuts in social programs and the potential for more unrest.

In an effort to address these issues, President Johnson has appealed for a united front. However, the war's impact on the economy and the political climate make it challenging to achieve this unity. Johnson's efforts to reach out to both sides of the political spectrum will be crucial in determining the outcome of these issues.

Sukarno Closes Jakarta Campus

SINGAPORE — President Sukarno ordered the University of Indonesia closed Thursday in an apparent attempt to halt anti-Communist student demonstrations demanding his resignation.

Ajakarta broadcast announcer read a statement from the nation’s highest court condemning “peace and order” as essential elements of “democracy, and the military authorities are unprepared to subscribe to it.”

The broadcast was the first of a series of messages from the military authorities warning that any actions designed to disrupt the order and calm were “not in the interest of the nation.”

The broadcast also accused the student organizations of violating the constitution and called for a referendum on the future of the university.

The university had been closed several times during the past year, but this was the first time it had been closed for more than a day.

State Cagers Could Be Tougher At Home

BY BOB MORNING

Michigan State could offer another argument to the idea that Big Ten conference play is the key to the NCAA Tournament. With a 2-6 record in league play, Michigan State is now 10-8 overall. State will try to go 3-0 this week. One win will put the Spartans at the midpoint, half the way to reaching a meaningful NCAA Tournament bid. Florida State offered a similar argument last year, but the Spartans lost to the Seminoles twice.

The men's basketball team played a tough game against Michigan State on Sunday night. The Spartans won 76-69, and the game was held in East Lansing. The Spartans finished with a record of 10-8 overall, and 2-6 in the Big Ten Conference.

Put Studies Aside, 'M' Game On WJIM

There were some doubts as to whether any alliance would be reached with the conference and the state. The Michigan State athletic department was the only one of the state's universities that was interested in the idea. The other schools were afraid of committing too much money to the program. However, WJIM, which broadcasts the Spartans' games, is interested in the idea. The station is interested in the possibility of broadcasting the games on its own.

Ping Pong Tournament

The tournament is being held in conjunction with the Big Ten Tournament, which is scheduled for March 10-11. The tournament will be held at the University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana. The tournament will feature eight teams, and the winner will be determined by a series of matches.
