Rail Strike Problems Increase

The hold up effects of the near six-day strike of 1,000 (estimated) state employees has some of the worst effects being felt today in state offices. The strike has continued for the second day, but with state offices now closed, the effects may increase.

The strike is being led by the AFL-CIO. Officials have signed a contract and are demanding higher wages and better working conditions.

Government Must Give Public Facts On UFO's

IT'S A BIRD. It's a plane. It's a flying saucer. For the last twenty years, the Air Force and the FBI have been searching for flying saucers in the skies. But there is one group of people who know better than anyone what is really up there. They're the people who have been studying UFO's, or unidentified flying objects, for over a decade. They're the people who have uncovered the truth about these mysterious creatures and brought it to the attention of the public. And now they're ready to reveal the facts.

ONE OF THE MOST GRAPHIC EXAMINATIONS OF UFO'S TO DATE IS BEING CONDUCTED BY A GROUP OF SCIENTISTS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA. THEY HAVE BEEN STUDYING UFO'S FOR OVER A DECADE AND HAVE COLLECTED AN INCREDIBLY LARGE AMOUNT OF DATA ON THEM. THEIR RESEARCH HAS LED THEM TO CONCLUDE THAT UFO'S ARE REAL AND THAT THEY ARE BEING DISCLOSED TO THE PUBLIC.

The government must give the public the facts about UFO's. It is the only way to prevent further damage to our national security and to ensure that the public is not misled by misinformation. The government has a responsibility to act in the best interests of the nation and to ensure that the public is not deceived. This is a matter of national security, and the government must take action to ensure that the truth is revealed.

To the Editor:

In Pugh's letter on the forthcoming presidential campaign, he states: "I am a polyglot." He goes on to explain that he was not referring to his language skills, but rather to his ability to accept different cultures. He is correct in his interpretation of the term, but his definition is not widely accepted. The term "polyglot" is generally understood to mean someone who is fluent in multiple languages, as opposed to someone who is able to accept different cultures.

It is important to note that the term "polyglot" has been used in a variety of contexts, including in the field of linguistics. It has been used to describe someone who is fluent in multiple languages, but it has also been used to describe someone who is able to accept different cultures. However, the term is not widely accepted in the field of linguistics, and it is generally understood to mean someone who is fluent in multiple languages.

Editorial: The President

It is important to note that the term "polyglot" has been used in a variety of contexts, including in the field of linguistics. It has been used to describe someone who is fluent in multiple languages, but it has also been used to describe someone who is able to accept different cultures. However, the term is not widely accepted in the field of linguistics, and it is generally understood to mean someone who is fluent in multiple languages.

Thus, the President's use of the term "polyglot" is not widely accepted, and it is important to clarify the meaning of the term. The President is correct in his interpretation of the term, but his definition is not widely accepted.

The President's use of the term "polyglot" is not widely accepted, and it is important to clarify the meaning of the term. The President is correct in his interpretation of the term, but his definition is not widely accepted.

A change in attitude toward batting is evident at the University of Illinois, where first-year catcher Lithwhiler has assumed the role of a leader on both offense and defense.

"When I was at Illinois, he was a team player," said Coach Lithwhiler, "and we knew he could do a lot because of his experience. Now when he steps up to the plate, he knows he can hit the ball.""

"We played much better on offense than we did on defense," said Coach Lithwhiler. "We had some good hitting, but we also had some bad mistakes."
