Cambodia Grants Nhanoi Recognition

TOKYO (UPI)—Cambodia's foreign diplomatic recognition was extended to Nhanoi, the capital of North Vietnam Monday in a move the United Nations has described as a "great step forward" in the development of relations between the two nations.

The step is seen as a significant development in the ongoing search for a peaceful solution to the conflict in Vietnam and the reunification of the country.

The U.N. Security Council has called for a ceasefire in Vietnam and for talks between the North and South Vietnamese governments, but progress has been slow in achieving these objectives.

The grant of recognition to Nhanoi is seen as a sign that the international community is moving closer to a settlement of the Vietnam War.

The gesture is expected to be welcomed by other countries and organizations, who may follow suit and extend similar recognition to the capital of South Vietnam.

The recognition of Nhanoi is also seen as a boost to the morale of the Vietnamese people, who have been fighting for control of their country for many years.

The Vietnamese government has welcomed the recognition of Nhanoi, saying it was a "historic moment" in the country's history.

The U.S. government has also welcomed the recognition, saying it was a "positive step" in the search for a peaceful solution to the conflict.

The recognition of Nhanoi is likely to be welcomed by other countries and organizations, who may follow suit and extend similar recognition to the capital of South Vietnam.

McCarthyism Still Lingers

THE INOBTINLE and bigotry which spread McCarthyism in the early 1950s apparently still lingers.

Two separate pediments recently rose upon disturbing the social climate. On the left, a year ago, New Mexico Republicans, driven by frustration over the Red Scare laws, elected Senator John B. Hill to the Senate and locked him in for six years. The result was a boost for McCarthyism.

Two hundred people stood by and observed the pejorative behavior, but those who do not have a clear understanding of McCarthyism and its implications may not understand and appreciate the danger of intrigue and conspiracy with which it is associated.

In fact, McCarthy's great error was to visit his thinned group of threats to a few million. The threat is to the American way of life, the way we understand and practice democracy.

The clearest message has to be heard in terms of what the McCarthy enthusiasm means. And it means that there is a certain segment of the population that is distinctly threatened by the democratic way of life, the way we have known it for centuries and the way we want to see it in the future. This segment, which includes McCarthyists, has a deep-seated fear of the democratic way of life, and is determined to bring it down.

The clearest message has to be understood, and it has been that the McCarthy movement is not just an American problem, but a problem for the world. It is a problem for all of us, and it is a problem that we must face and overcome.

The McCarthy movement is a threat to the democratic way of life, and it is a threat to the American way of life. It is a threat to the way we have known it for centuries, and the way we want to see it in the future.
Bomb Shortage Cuts Down U.S. Attacks

SAGIN (UPI)—A severe shortage of bombs was disclosed Monday to be curtailing U.S. air attacks on the Viet Cong in South Viet Nam, military sources here said. The shortage, said the sources, was due partly to anti-Pentagon criticism of U.S. air bomb loading of bombers at the key Di Nong port.

The United States also announced Monday for the first time that the political turmoil in South Viet Nam was hastening the general war effort against the Communists.

Want to be a leader and double your chances for success in life? You can, by earning both a degree and a military commission at the same time... even though you may not have been ROTC to begin with.

Through a new program, you can be commissioned as a Second Lieutenant after taking two years of Army ROTC training while you complete your studies for a college degree. You qualify for this program by attending a special six-week summer training camp after your sophomore year and then completing the ROTC Advanced Course in your junior and senior years of college.

Here’s what ROTC training and an officer’s commission will do for you:

- It will qualify you to fulfill your military obligation as an officer.
- You will learn to organize, motivate, and lead others.
- You will develop leadership qualities that many college men miss—self-discipline, physical stamina, poise, bearing, the ability to accept responsibility and other qualities that contribute to success in either a civilian or military career.

You will receive $450 per month during your junior and senior years, plus pay and mileage for summer training.

The training and experience you receive through Army ROTC will pay off for the rest of your life in knowledge advantage as an advantage of this new program could be one of the most important you will ever make.

You owe it to yourself to investigate this new important opportunity.

State News Sports Writer

MUNCIE, Ind. — Ball State's baseball team moved up the record books taking two of three games from Ball State University.

The Cardinals received credit for 9-5 wins in both games, and a 3-2 win in the third game.

The Cardinals scored three in the first, thanks to the timely pushing of outfielders Dick Kenney and Jim Goodrich.

Kenney led the Cardinals in only four hits in the second game of a Saturday afternoon doubleheader, to give the Cardinals a 3-1 victory and a sweep for the day. Kenney struck out 11 batters in the two games.

Dick Kenney pitched dominant ball in his six innings of work Friday, striking out 10 batters with the other four runners on base.

At Michigan City, Kenney added a two-run double in the seventh inning of the game on Saturday, and struck out nine runners with the other two runners on base.

GPA and The Draft: "Anathema"

By Leo Zaneva

State News Staff Writer

While Congressional bills and draft dodging make news in Southeastern Michigan, students here continue to pay the price of the anti-war movement in their daily lives. The frustration of the student body is not limited just to the legacy of the Vietnam War; it is prevalent in the booth of the policy known as the Selective Service System (or SSS).

The Selective Service System, which is responsible for the implementation of the draft in the United States, has been a source of contention for many students. The system requires all males between the ages of 18 and 26 to register for the draft, and upon reaching the age of 26, the registrant becomes legally liable to be drafted at any time.

The Selective Service System is not without its problems. It has been criticized for being不公平, inefficient, and outdated. Students are often frustrated with the system's administrative processes, and there have been instances of errors and inconsistencies in the registration and draft lottery processes.

The Selective Service System has also been a source of conflict with the anti-war movement. Many students are opposed to the draft and the war in Vietnam, and the Selective Service System has been a target of protests and resistance. Students have engaged in civil disobedience, such asSelective Service System Draft Board draft resistance and draft card burning, to protest the draft and the war.

Despite these challenges, the Selective Service System remains in place. It is a product of a time and a society that are now long gone. The Selective Service System is a relic of a past that is now irrelevant. The Selective Service System is a reminder of a time that is now history.

The Selective Service System is a symbol of the anti-war movement. It is a symbol of the struggle for peace and justice. It is a symbol of the fight against oppression and exploitation. The Selective Service System is a symbol of the fight for a better world.
The students admitted to Ohio State and the University of Michigan are required to commit to attending the schools for at least three years. This commitment is often referred to as the "three-year guarantee." The guarantee ensures that the students will receive a degree within three years of enrollment. The guarantee is a significant commitment for students and their families, as it helps to ensure that the students will have the opportunity to complete their education in a timely manner. The three-year guarantee is a popular option for students who are looking to attend a public university and want to keep their costs down. However, some students may choose to take advantage of the three-year guarantee to save money and complete their education more quickly. Regardless of the decision, the three-year guarantee is a strong commitment that can help students to achieve their educational goals.

M. John Plodinec

M. John Plodinec, Wilkinson, Pa., a sociology major and junior member-of-fame on the ASMSU student body, was selected to serve as speaker at the final meeting of the Student Senate. Plodinec feels that the reason for student involvement in the government is because ASMSU is a student-run government.

The idea for ASMSU is that the school would be more fun and that the students would be encouraged to participate more in the activities. The idea is that the students would have a more active role in the government.

Two top administrators will remain in Michigan at least another trip to earn lifelong project funding and further the growth of the project and the campus, he said.

The third step of keeping is to join the project to have local administrators to go beyond the core of the project periphery and the development of the project," said.

Neville and Smuckler invited the PCC to the project and the University of Michigan located on the Pacific Islands in the northern Pacific Ocean between Japan and Taiwan.
