Four experts launch cautionary symposium

NEW YORK — Mrs. John F. Kennedy Mathews, publisher of the book, "The Death of a President," said Monday night that "The events will be more destructive than World War III" when the book is published.

"I have a sense of urgency in publishing the book," she said. "I feel the same way about filming the movie of the book."

The book, which was published in 1967, is about the assassination of President Kennedy.

Mrs. Mathews said the book was "more than just a book. It's a time capsule."

The book was published in 1967, and it was a best-seller.

Mrs. Mathews said she felt it was important to publish the book because it was about a major event in history.

Mrs. Mathews said she was afraid that if the book was not published, it would be lost to history.

Salaries cut unfortunate as ASMSU backs lecture

ASMSU wins the political tear-jerking award of the year.

At their regular weekly meeting last Tuesday, Student Board members voted unanimously to take away $1,500 from their own salaries in order to finance the Winds of Change Seminar. Board members say they were motivated by a lack of financial support.

It is unfortunate that the only method to obtain the needed funds for the series was by sacrificing compensation. The ASMSU salaries should be increased by now instead of a rejection and accepted as a basis for the ASMSU structures, or trim their own salaries.

The board members claim they were backed against a corner by the financial wall in this case. They either had to cut funds for a number of ASMSU projects, or trim their own salaries.

The board members also recommended for saving the two lecture series. But by next year there is no reason that their salaries can't be reinstalled and the lectures proceeded for, also. It's merely a matter of financial foresight.

SATISFIED WITH WIN

Benington not fooled by Hawkeye trickery

It's rare to see MSU heavyweight Jim Zindel fall. Last week he was one of the few to go down to Billy Holms of Indiana. But Zindel had a winning record despite many Goliaths.

MSU wrestler Jack Zindel is a 187-pounder himself, Zindel's own thoughts regarding his weight and wrestle when he was knocked out and forced to forfeit by a doctor.

Benington was pleased with the win in the first half, and picked up ten points himself with some easy shots off.

ProfssayU.S.isdanger to peace and stability.

By FAYE UNDER

The United States is taking a lead in breaking down all possibilities for peace in the world, a recent survey conducted by a scholar at Michigan State University, Miss Nancy Mitchel, has shown.

The survey, which was conducted as part of a study on international relations, was based on interviews with over 100 students at Michigan State University.

Miss Mitchel found that while most students were concerned about the possibility of war, they felt that the United States was not doing enough to prevent it.

"They feel that the United States is neglecting its responsibilities as a world power," Miss Mitchel said. "They believe that the United States should be doing more to promote peace and stability."
Fort digs bring new finds

The fort built by the French at Port Huron in 1715 as a trading post and as a means of control over the industrial area of the Northwest was excavated for the first time in 1967. The site is one of the most important archaeological finds in the United States and a new park will be created around it.
