Kissinger denies any relationship between Midtast talks, oil prices

MINISTER (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger has added three to a rapidly expanding list of his top priority agreements. He has now agreed to coordinate with his counterparts in the Middle East in order to stop any military action against Israel.

The agreement was reached over the weekend in Washington, D.C., and will be announced later today by Kissinger and Foreign Minister Yehuda Rubinstein of Israel.

Kissinger's visit to the Middle East is the latest in a series of diplomatic efforts to prevent a military conflict in the region.

The agreement came after Kissinger met with Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and Egyptian President Anwar Sadat. The three leaders discussed ways to reduce tensions and prevent further violence.

They also agreed to work together to ensure the safety and security of civilians in the region.

The agreement was welcomed by international leaders, who praised the efforts of Kissinger and his counterparts.

"This is a significant step toward peace in the Middle East," said UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon.

"The United States is committed to working closely with our partners to achieve a just and lasting peace in the region," added US President Joe Biden.

City wins, drivers lose in parking game

Despite the recent changes in parking regulations, some residents are still upset with the new system.

"The changes have been confusing and frustrating," said City Council member Anna Johnson. "Drivers are having a hard time finding parking, and it's causing traffic congestion and problems with businesses."

Kissinger defends Rocky gift

Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger defended the propriety of a $10,000 gift from Nelson A. Rockefeller to him on Saturday, a day after the gift was paid for by Chrysler Corp. The gift was approved by two former lawyers for ex-President Richard M. Nixon.

The letter said the gift did not violate the law or conflict of interest regulations.

The president's press secretary - designate was confirmed on Saturday when a Rockefeller spokesman said he received a personal gift - for life - time service by Kissinger.

The White House was temporarily closed by the FBI.

...Meanwhile, a White House spokesman said Mrs. Ford received some 15,000 letters of cheer and sympathy to show her concerns were right now being removed a week ago.

New York (AP) - Industries and employers, eager for financing in those tight money days, are working with some tucked away from states whose governments to prove a man for this after once out of military discharge.

"It would be an impossible task," one official said. "In law, the most difficult thing to prove is what is a man's mind."

Another spokesman for William Bork, the Supreme Court nominee, said there had been no change in the mind of the judge that he would not perform public service.

Several officials spoke more in a background context.

Washingto (AP) - President Gerald Ford and Congressmen who are making a last-ditch appeal to the Senate to pass an increase in the limit on income-tax deductions.

They said Ford had been told by the Senate that if there were any indications that the amendment would pass, it would be a disaster.

Ford was said to have made a special plea to the Senate.

Ford's appointment to the Senate was made by the House of Representatives.

Man finds watch on death row lonely

By JEFF HODGSMITH
State News Staff Writer

A fellow inmate of Tennessee's death row has found a gold watch worth $700 that belongs to a pregnant woman in Columbia, Tenn.

The inmate, who didn't want his name released, said he found the watch a couple of days ago in the recreation area of the state prison. He said he was looking for a place to hide his stash of tools when he saw the watch.

"I'm not sure what to do with it," he said. "I don't know if I should turn it in to the authorities or keep it for myself."

Total recycling proposed

By JEFF HODGSMITH
State News Staff Writer

The state of Tennessee has proposed a plan to ban the sale of all single-use plastics, including straws, cups, and bags, within the next five years.

The proposal, which was announced Wednesday, follows similar efforts in other states and municipalities to reduce plastic waste and encourage recycling.

"This is just the beginning," said Tennessee Governor Bill Lee. "We need to take a comprehensive approach to addressing plastic waste and pollution."

Ford support slips in poll

By JEFF HODGSMITH
State News Staff Writer

The latest poll shows Ford support slipping among voters in the area. The company's latest model, the Ford F-150, has seen a decline in popularity over the past few months.

According to the poll, only 30% of voters surveyed said they would consider buying a Ford F-150 in the next year, down from 40% in the previous poll.

"This is a concern," said Ford spokesperson Sarah Johnson. "We need to address these issues and regain our customers' confidence."
SN cartoon anti-Semetic

This letter is in response to the feature story on the Jewish community and its position on anti-Semitism which appeared in the Oct. 11 issue. The cartoonists of a number of newspapers have started a national campaign which some of us believe has gone too far.

National commissions since 1965 have recommended segregation of interest, and it is high time for action. It is just fair for buyers to suffer, construction workers to go unpaid, and small savers to lose their savings to inflation just because of an unfair and unjust federal regulation.

Cut drug fund squands

Toughing the Ingham County Board of Commissioners to consider funding $5,000 to the Tri-State Children's Blood Squand is a devilish custom. It raises thousands of dollars for drug, and eight staff members for it. It is true that one of the funds of its $1,000 in medical supplies, $3,000, and eight staff members.

In contrast, today's dollars mean very little to the Snyder's family last year, their small saving of 1,000 dollars in the year. It is apparent that they need and they need this money.

We are glad that they will be a little more critical of the law.

But all the moon do is ignore the board. This is a good habit for the people to follow in the money going. All for teachers are a regular report detailing the latest facts.

It is not a bad habit for the board to support an institution over which it has no control. Throwing Grain deal wisely killed

President Ford has decided that American consumers assume important important Russian livestock. All of this will be done but the least one should require, for Ford has made it clear that he would have shipped 500 million dollars to the Soviet Union. Grain deals are for the farmers and no more for the Soviet Union. Garin reserves their status through the highest three years, and the farmers are looking to feeding bread.

Soaring inflation key to British elections

By JOHN LINGDON

From Special-to The Associated Press

LONDON — For Americans to get a complete picture of what has happened since the October 26 election, they should compare Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher's 1974 version of the American Nixon with Harold Wilson's 1964 version of the American Kennedy.

Wilson had just 50 seats in the House of Commons when he was elected. The Republicans in 1964 had 275 seats.

In 1973, and pollsters are severe hopes for a victory. When Wilson called the election, the figures for economic growth suggested losses of nearly two million jobs and 1973 incomes. Today there is a 6 percent rise and 1974 incomes.

The economic conditions faced by Britain when on the campaign in the 1970 general election were not unlike them in the 1964 general election. Wilson had won the previous election in 1964 by a slim 16-seat majority. It was the first election of Britain's first Labour government, which lasted 13 years.

Ford may face delay in route plan

LANSING (AP) — Ford may have to delay its plans in making its road a reality, according to a spokesman for the Michigan Department of Transportation. The spokesman said that the company needs to make a decision on whether to use federal funds to pay for the road.

Wilson rejects Conservative call

Wilson rejected a Conservative call for a government coalition, saying his party would not consider the proposal.

LANSING (AP) — Britain's Labour party yesterday made a statement to the effect that the party had no intention of forming a government.

The Labour party said that the party had no intention of forming a government and would not consider the proposal.

JERRY JEFF WATERS: In a sense, the House of Commons was the only election that the party had ever won.

There is no question that the party had no intention of forming a government and would not consider the proposal.

JERRY JEFF WATERS: It was a statement that was made by the Prime Minister of the day, Harold Wilson, and it was the only election that the party had ever won.

'U' plans Safety Building

By PETE DAILY

State News Staff Writer

The new Ohio State University campus Safety Building would make a lot of people happy. It would provide a safe environment for students and faculty, a place for them to gather in case of an emergency, and it would be a symbol of the university's commitment to safety.

The building is scheduled to be completed by spring, and it will be located on the north side of the campus, near the Student Union. It will be a modern, multi-story structure featuring state-of-the-art safety equipment and technology.

The building will include a control center, which will allow emergency responders to coordinate their efforts in case of a crisis. It will also have a large open area for gatherings, which will be used for storytelling, music, and other cultural events.

The building will be a reminder of the university's commitment to safety and security, and it will be a symbol of the university's dedication to its students and faculty.

By STEVE STEIN

State News Writer

As if MSU — University of Michigan football fans nationwide — didn't have enough to worry about as they head into tonight's annual game, Head Coach Don Dicicco stated today that Stolz was not going to bowl tonight.

"We have not yet made a decision," Dicicco said. "I don't think there's any question in my mind that Stolz will be our quarterback." He added that the team was leaning toward playing Stolz.

Stolz is a senior quarterback for MSU.

Third World language program planned

By NANCY E. CRANE
State News Staff Writer

MSU students who have studied outside the United States in languages such as Urdu, Amharic and Indonesian may take part in an intensive program to learn these languages this fall. This program is being coordinated by the Office of International Programs, administered by University Relations, and sponsored by the International Center.

Third World languages usually are studied in departments of modern languages, in the School of Foreign Service, and by individuals who are interested in certain aspects of these cultures. While there are several hundred students interested in Third World languages, only a small number are studying them academically.

This year's program is designed to provide highly motivated students the opportunity to learn languages not now offered at MSU. The program is headed by the East Lansing Indonesian language program and is based in the English Department.

The program will be offered in the fall semester and will continue into the spring semester. The program will be taught by experienced instructors from Indonesia and the Philippines, who will be brought to the United States to teach the courses.
