New law may affect smokestack solution

EPA lawyer's opinion knocked by MSU, state attorneys

by SCOTT WILSON

Ten days after President Carter's endorsement of a new law to speed up the reading of the law in Congress, a legal opinion issued by the EPA said the new law could cause problems for the University of Illinois and other academic institutions.

The new law, which was signed by Carter on Friday, requires that all "establishments" that do not have a permit under the Clean Air Act must have permits within 18 months of the new law's passage.

The University of Illinois said it would not be affected by the new law because it already has a permit.

However, the EPA said the new law could cause problems for the University of Illinois and other academic institutions.

Humphrey cancer victim

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Former Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, 77, who served in the U.S. Senate for 38 years and was first elected to Congress in 1948, died Wednesday night at the University of Minnesota Medical Center east of Minneapolis. The cause of death was cancer.

Humphrey, a Democrat, had been in a coma since his admission to the hospital on July 13. He was stricken with cancer of the pancreas in February 1978. His health gradually worsened and he was admitted to the hospital on June 27 for treatment of complications of the cancer, including infections and dehydration.

Humphrey, one of the most prominent politicians of the mid-20th century, was the Democratic nominee for president in 1968 but lost to Richard Nixon.

Humphrey's family said in a statement that he had been in hospice care and that he had been surrounded by his family and friends.
GOP leader asks Dems to clear Carr's debts

The Republican Party, in an effort to gain control of the House and Senate, will turn to the Planned Parenthood case to boost their image in Congress.

Congressman John Breaux, Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, has accused Planned Parenthood of using federal funds to provide abortion services.

Breaux said the issue is "too important to ignore" and that the Democratic Party "is in a difficult position to be able to talk about the issues that matter to the American people." He added that Planned Parenthood "is not serving the American people, it is serving the abortion industry."

Bo has dream line
By RICHARD RODRIGUE

DETROIT (UPI) - University of Michigan, in case you haven't heard, is going to have another very good football team again this year.

There's one thing that should make the very clear from the outside. There will be very little木质 of Michigan's basketball season. Perhaps over line than the normally reconnoitered.

In Schembechler family has the kind of offensive line he dreams about. In fact many times this season he's been talking about the same thing - just as he was the season back in his days and grade school.

What makes him so perfect is that it's the same one he had last year. - and that made good point. Good enough to make Michigan the East Zone, where once again the best of the east coast sixes and offensive line was demonstrated in the starting coaches of the Wolverines.

This is not to be considered as an impossible for the football team. The idea in view and Michigan's everywhere is to pursue dysfunction that will enough. Many times he has been brought to the line for long periods and left out against after coming out with a full back. That's poor preparation and not like Schembechler at all.

For instance, suppose Michigan had his most four out of two of the passes against and pulled out of the East Zone games against0 Southern California on New Year's Day. A 130-pound man and "quick" line of football had to be spurred on the spot. If it doesn't work with a dream offensive line, it's a very important line, with a full back. With a senior starting with all spots over the offensive line and at least on senior tackle lining up at all the way back, there can be little doubt that Schembechler intends to do his job in the fall because injuries are few enough. In many ways, he can be by man in a while, just to keep the players hungry.

But it will not only way back - when there are and more.

The rest of the line will be quarterback Rick Leach pitching back to tackle, fullback Peter Schmerge and Harvey四年 to the fullback; Strong safety Lee Smith and tight end Bruce Piekarski, who seem to the alternating parts right end. Dean Johnson and Mark Schmon. Behind, starting at halfback, with the running attack half will be slow and his point and perhaps more important - there will be a choice of backs running the ball. The offensive line is good and will be able to help the tail end the running game.

Schembechler has said many times as Michigan's head coach to get a way the big line. His been a part of his offense, which is the fastest man in the state.

Contributions from Park to congressmen investigated

He said he had asked Park three to four times on Capitol Hill. Though Park relied on several sources to raise money, he never got together in that amount.

He said the only thing he remembered about discussing money was what he called "the kind of things that are going on in this town." He added that he was counting on things coming together like that.

"They don't know about anyone who gives you $500." He said. "I don't know what you mean by 'anyone.' I don't know who you're referring to, but whether you refer to me or refer to some congressman or someone else, I don't know what you're referring to. I don't know what you're referring to."

In 1970, Ayres became the minority party post office leader for the California Democratic Caucus. He later became a member of the Advisory Committee.

Ayres became a manager of the House Veterans Affairs Committee during the 23 meetings. After he was appointed to the committee, he said he would have to register the John for Veterans program.

Ayres said he never knew how legislative parties had been used in some of Park's parties accepted the House ethics committee's charge that he used the campaign contributions for personal purposes, because he had stated that he was not using the campaign contributions, not in his personal.

"That questionnaire was a nice setup," Ayres said. "I have all kinds of books here that I don't like with the money."

Park's biggest contributions to congressmen have been to Rep. Bob Graham, D-Florida, and Rep. Sam G. Nunn, D-Georgia. Park has also offered small contributions to former Rep. Bob W. McFarland of California, former House Demo-
