Delayed drug bill awaits Milliken's OK

State News Wire

In a last-ditch effort to save the Senate's 1977 drug bill, Republicans are expected to introduce a new bill in the House this week, according to sources close to the legislation. The new bill would amend the existing legislation to cut the current rate of new drug approvals.

The bill, which was introduced by Chairman Harry F. Frucci of the House Ways and Means Committee, would allow for the acceleration of drug approvals by the Food and Drug Administration to help reduce the backlog of new drug applications. Frucci said the new bill would also address the issue of drug safety and efficacy.

"This is a very important bill," Frucci said. "It will help to ensure that new drugs are safe and effective before they are approved for use.

The bill's provisions include:

- Accelerating the process for drug approval
- Increasing funding for the FDA to conduct more post-marketing surveillance
- Establishing a committee to review drug safety data

If passed, the bill would take effect immediately and would be retroactive to existing drug approvals.

FBI set to act in probe of GM

By JERRY RATCLIFFE

The FBI is expected to begin its investigation of General Motors this week, according to sources close to the agency.

The FBI has been investigating GM for several months in connection with the company's alleged violation of environmental regulations.

GM officials have denied any wrongdoing, and the company has said it is cooperating fully with the investigators.

Property of Afghan ruler nationalized

By RONALD MURPHY

The Afghan government has nationalized the properties of former ruler Mohammad Zahir Shah, who fled the country in 1973.

The properties, which include a palace in Kabul and a ranch near the city, were seized by the government on the grounds that they were illegally acquired or were used for political purposes.

The government has also seized several other properties belonging to Zahir Shah, including his personal pension and a bank account.

The action was taken under a law passed in 1972 that allows the government to nationalize properties of former rulers.

Kitchen Campaign

By ANN MARIE ROBBE

The Kitchen Campaign is a grassroots movement that seeks to improve the health and nutrition of American families. The campaign has a simple goal: to make sure that every American has access to fresh, healthy food.

The campaign has been successful in raising awareness about the importance of healthy eating, and has helped to promote policies that support local food systems.

"The Kitchen Campaign is about more than just eating healthy," said campaign founder Emily Johnson. "It's about building a strong, sustainable food system that can provide fresh, healthy food to everyone, no matter where they live.

The campaign has also been successful in encouraging local governments to support policies that promote healthy eating, such as school lunch programs and community gardens.

unemployed groceries hit Lansing shelves; products selling well

BY RUSSELL SHERIF
Unemployed groceries, retained by many restaurants because of rising prices, are being sold at a Thirsty Town Drive-In area in Lansing. The drive-in is located near the intersection of East Michigan Avenue and I-496. The manager of the Thirsty Town Drive-In said, "We are planning to expand into other areas and make sure we have enough food and beverage items available to meet the increased demand." The drive-in is open from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily.

There should not be any difference in the quality of the food. Unemployed groceries have been inspected by the Department of Agriculture and are of high quality. The drive-in has authorized the use of the label "Unemployed Groceries" as an indicator of the source of the food. The manager said, "We are committed to providing customers with high-quality food at reasonable prices." The drive-in is located on the corner of West Michigan Avenue and I-496.

Campus safety lights to be installed upon delivery of materials

The ASMSU Public Safety Committee, in conjunction with the Department of Physical Safety and Security, is installing additional safety lights on campus. The lights will be installed at various locations around the campus, including the South Road Bridge and the Hagadorn Road Bridge. These lights are being installed to provide additional safety for students and staff. The Department of Physical Safety and Security is responsible for maintaining and ensuring the safety of all individuals on campus.

The lights will be installed upon the delivery of materials. The materials will be delivered to the campus on Monday, May 9. The installation of the lights will be completed by Friday, May 13. The lights will be operational by the end of the week.

Multinationals to be discussed

A panel discussion on the topic of multinationals will be held at the University of Michigan on Monday, May 16. The panel will include experts from various fields, including economics, politics, and international relations. The discussion will explore the role of multinationals in the global economy and their impact on local communities. The panel will be moderated by Dr. John Heffron, head of the United States Food and Drug Administration.

Male hazards discussed

The "Health in the Workplace" newsletter will feature an article on male hazards in the workplace. The article will discuss common hazards faced by men and provide tips on how to prevent injuries. The article will be published in the May issue of the newsletter.

The content of this newsletter is intended to assist employers in creating a safer workplace for all employees. The newsletter is published by the United States Food and Drug Administration and is available online.

The day the Michigan House Democratic floor vote set in motion the way to get near what would be best served with regard to State Rep. John B. "Bud" Lucas, a member of the Highbrow High School, is an example of a person revered by an Oakland County Democrat of 20 years ago being considered. The city of Ann Arbor is called upon to pass legislation which would prohibit profiteering by naive types. It is not a fanatical use of the right to speak the truth.

The attorney general then goes on to assert that a famous person's name is effective enough to prevent an act.

The legislature of Representatives do have plenary jurisdiction over the subject of tax credits. While many students would find a tax credit to be beneficial, it is doubtful that a tax credit of 10 percent of your salary each year would be enough to matter.

The majority of the students, who are responsible for the maintenance of the property, were interviewed as part of the survey.

The survey revealed that the majority of the students are satisfied with the living conditions and the quality of the service provided by the housing department.

Several students expressed their appreciation for the efforts made by the housing department to improve the living conditions. Some students also suggested improvements that could be made in the future.

The survey also indicated that there is a high demand for additional parking spaces.

The majority of the students agreed that the prices for the services provided by the housing department are reasonable. However, some students suggested that the prices could be lowered further.

The survey also showed that the majority of the students are satisfied with the maintenance and repair services provided by the housing department.

The survey results were shared with the administration, and they are expected to take the necessary actions to address the issues raised by the students.

The housing department is committed to improving the living conditions and ensuring the satisfaction of the students. They will continue to work closely with the students to address their concerns and make necessary improvements.

Connoisseurs of Mexican cuisine will love the food at El Sombrero. It will be open every day of the week, Sunday through Thursday, from 11 a.m. to 9:30 p.m., and on the weekends, from 11 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. The food at El Sombrero is pretty good, and it tastes more authentic than the Mexican food you're probably used to getting. It's one of life's greatest pleasures. If you're a regular hot-sauce freak, it's one of the best restaurants in the area.

Lower ranked chess players will have a chance to win a championship tournament this weekend in the Michigan Amateur Championship sponsored by the MSU Chess Club.

The tournament is open to any lower rated amateur player or players who have never won a championship match, said Jan Ludwinski, chess club president.

Players can register for the games on the third floor of the Union Saturday between 8 a.m. and 9:15 a.m. There is a $5 registration fee which includes membership in the U.S. Chess Foundation.

The five round tournament will take place in Rooms 331, 332 and 334 of the Union. The first round begins 10 a.m. Saturday. The other four rounds are tentatively scheduled for 3 and 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, and 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Sunday.

Ludwinski said the tournament would not operate on an elimination basis. "Everybody will play five rounds," he said.

The chess club, with a current membership of 40, meets every Monday night at 7:30 in Room 205, Agriculture Hall. The club, which includes the MSU Chess Team, operates on a challenge ladder. Top club members are placed at the top of the ladder and are challenged by lower ranked players. The top players from the ladder constitute the team.
