Fire hits WKAR radio, TV transmitters

MSU students among three killed in crash

Wednesday inside

McGoverns for MULTI-NATIONAL FORCE

Cubanm soldiers of people in their own country, he said, is proving the means of resistance.

Cuban soldiers have been fighting for years to free their country from foreign domination. They are fighting not only for their own freedom, but for the freedom of all people everywhere. They are fighting for a better world, a world without oppression and exploitation.

Cuban soldiers are heroes, and we should support them in their struggle for freedom.

Kenya’s president dead; peaceful transition sought

Senate group wants U.S.-Hani relations
Hanoi says China aiding Cambodians

HANOI, Vietnam (UPI) -- Chinese troops and heavy artillery are fighting with Cambodian forces before the border with Vietnam. Hanoi officials said Monday that the Cambodians have abandoned the city of Phnom Penh and that the Chinese are trying to take it.

The Chinese said they were trying to prevent "two aggressors" from fighting in the area, but the Vietnamese government has warned that it will not tolerate any Chinese invasion.

Israelis announce anti-terrorist plan

TEL AVIV, Israel (UPI) -- Israeli authorities announced a "sharp" anti-terrorism measure in a major population center in a bid to stem the flow of new immigrants to the country.

The announcement comes a day after two Palestinian terrorists killed a soldier in the West Bank.

Coalition government forms in Iceland

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (UPI) -- The Christian Democrats and the Social Democrats have formed a coalition government that will be the first in Iceland in 50 years.

The two parties have agreed to form a coalition to end the political deadlock that has persisted since the election in November.

Some states may lose tax exemption

WASHINGTON (UPI) -- Civil rights activists have published a list of states that may lose their federal tax exemption for their tax-exempt status.

The list includes states that have a history of discrimination against blacks and other minorities.

Texas oil magnate faces new charges

FORTH WORTH, Texas (AP) -- The case of the drug-dealing oil magnate was turned over to a federal grand jury on Monday.

The trial of oil magnate H. Ross Perot has been postponed several times and is now set for September.

Carter starts 80-mile river trip

CARTER, the Democratic presidential nominee, began his 80-mile trip down the Savannah River on Tuesday.

Carter traveled in a 60-foot boat and a helicopter, accompanied by a security detail.

Ford starts Pinto recall

WASHINGTON (AP) -- President Ford has ordered a recall of all 1971 Ford Pintos, the first such recall in the company's history.

The recall follows a series of accidents involving the Pinto, including a fire and a crash.

Students, students, have a "CUP & A HALF" for lunch today... a cup of own fresh made soup at the day, placed of one of hearty sandwiches, a large fresh salad, a large soft drink and a large soft drink for $1.85 or less.

Shoppers, students, have a "CUP & A HALF" for lunch today... a cup of own fresh made soup at the day, placed of one of hearty sandwiches, a large fresh salad, a large soft drink and a large soft drink for $1.85 or less.
Hearing on utility rights slated

Proposed rules to protect utility rights were held yesterday at the first of a series of public hearings to be conducted by the Public Service Commission in various parts of the state to discuss the matter.

The commission's spokesman indicated that the rules would provide for the protection of utility rights in dealing with the owners of residential and commercial buildings.

The rules would also provide for the protection of utility rights in the event that the existing buildings are destroyed by fire or other causes.

Annual flushing time

The Oakland County Department of Public Works will be performing its annual flushing and testing of fire hydrants next week. The flushing is necessary to ensure that the water supply is free from contaminants and to prevent the formation of deposits that could affect the flow of water.

During the flushing process, the water pressure throughout the county will be reduced temporarily. The residents in the area served by the flushing will be notified in advance.

Liberal arts among expanding fields

By MICHAEL McGUIRE

The biggest boost in four years for college planning directors has been happening in liberal arts and sciences departments, according to M.S.U.'s director of higher education, Dr. Fred B. Braverman.

The increase in funding for the liberal arts and sciences departments is expected to continue through the 1978-79 academic year, Braverman said.

Competition forces store to shut down

The Watered Bucket on the University of Michigan campus was forced to close down last week due to an increase in food prices.

The owner of the store, who requested anonymity, said that the increased food prices had forced him to shut down operations.

Nursing graduates

The Michigan Nurses Association has announced the graduation of a large number of nurses from Michigan State University's College of Nursing. The graduates will be well-prepared to enter the workforce and contribute to the healthcare system.

University of Michigan Hospitals

The University of Michigan Hospitals, located in Ann Arbor, Michigan, is one of the largest and most prestigious hospitals in the United States. It provides a wide range of services to patients and their families.

Jacobson's

Jacobson's is a well-known department store located in Detroit, Michigan. It offers a wide range of products, including clothing, cosmetics, and home goods.

Students give opinion on Olin's health fee

By GLENN ARMENT

The Michigan State University's Board of Trustees has approved a new health fee for the University's students. The fee will be used to provide health services and facilities for the students.

The fee, which will be assessed on a per-credit-hour basis, is expected to generate approximately $1 million per year.

The fee will go into effect on September 1, 1978.
A commission to serve corporate interest — or the public’s?

The Michigan Public Service Commission, like other commissions of its kind, has had to grapple with the public apprehension that surrounds regulatory commissions. The PSC, which regulates non-municipal utilities, has failed to gain the public confidence in the way that many regulatory commissions throughout the nation have done through best practices and sound administration. The commission has served to last the apprehension.

The Public Service Commission has, however, benefited itself from the recent trend to combine some economic policies with consumer Power Commission’s efforts over the past several years. In much of the public’s mind, the PSC is no longer a separate regulatory agency that should be kept under wraps.

Shifting all the energy of non-paying citizens, the PSC, with the help of an influential minority, has made itself as prominent and as big a name as possible to the public. The PSC is a fact, as well as an issue, that should be kept under wraps.

The case is typically handled around a well-organized and regular schedule of public hearings and then referred to the staff for a decision. The PSC, however, is not a separate regulatory agency that should be kept under wraps.

A recent trend to combine some economic policies with consumer Power Commission’s efforts over the past several years. In much of the public’s mind, the PSC is no longer a separate regulatory agency that should be kept under wraps.

Transportation bill calls for legislative expediency

Elections always seem to have a way of defusing legislation that is new and untried. The law is new and untried, but hardly anyone wants to openly support. Such was the case with the statewide transportation package that is on the agenda waiting for the return of Michigan’s legislators on Aug. 15. Governor Milliken, in a surprising move on police reform, was the first public official running for office to come out forcefully for the package.

But the law is new and untried, and there are few who are willing to support. Such was the case with the statewide transportation package that is on the agenda waiting for the return of Michigan’s legislators on Aug. 15. Governor Milliken, in a surprising move on police reform, was the first public official running for office to come out forcefully for the package.

Kim Shahan

They owe the truth

In Aug. 1968, a motorcyclist was badly injured by a truck driver. The truck driver, who had been driving for several hours, had been drinking heavily. The motorcyclist, who was a friend of the driver, had been following him for several miles.

The case was handled by the Michigan State Police, who investigated the accident. The driver was charged with reckless driving and was found guilty and sentenced to probation. The motorcyclist, who was a friend of the driver, had been following him for several miles.

The case was handled by the Michigan State Police, who investigated the accident. The driver was charged with reckless driving and was found guilty and sentenced to probation. The motorcyclist, who was a friend of the driver, had been following him for several miles.

The case was handled by the Michigan State Police, who investigated the accident. The driver was charged with reckless driving and was found guilty and sentenced to probation. The motorcyclist, who was a friend of the driver, had been following him for several miles.
Shakely’s debut: songs of sadness

Gailly Rambler

By Laverne Shakely

Reviewed by RENALDO HUERTA

Yes, an interesting book by a "new" poet. Well, at least it's new.

The following is the first published collection of poems by a young poet from Michigon. Shakely is a self-contained and independent individual who has been influenced by such poets as H.D., Langston Hughes, and Allen Ginsberg. The poems in this collection deal with issues of humanity and the human condition.

Shakely, however, is not a poet of the "New Vic" or "New Vic" school. Her work is more introspective and personal. She writes about her personal experiences and the people and places she has known and loved.

The poems are written in a free verse style, and are rich in imagery and metaphor. They are also quite complex and challenging, but ultimately rewarding for those who take the time to read and analyze them.

Overall, this is a very impressive debut collection by a talented poet. Shakely has a unique voice and a strong sense of self, and her poetry is well worth the time and effort it takes to fully appreciate it.

---

Farb's 'Humankind' breathes life into the past

By Diane Bull

Reviewed by Farb's Humankind

Farb's "Humankind" provides a fascinating look into the distant past, revealing the story of our ancestors and the world they lived in.

The book is divided into several sections, each focusing on a different aspect of human history. The first section, "The Beginnings," explores the earliest stages of human development, from the first appearance of early humans to the emergence of Homo sapiens. The second section, "The Middle Ages," examines the major events of medieval history, including the crusades, the fall of the Roman Empire, and the rise of the Byzantine Empire.

In the third section, "The Modern Era," Farb focuses on the 20th century, covering significant events such as World War I, the rise of fascism, and the impact of technology on society.

Farb's writing is engaging and informative, making difficult historical concepts accessible to a broad audience. His research is extensive, and he draws on a wide range of sources to provide a rich and nuanced portrayal of human history.

Overall, "Humankind" is an excellent resource for anyone interested in learning more about human history. Whether you are a history buff or simply curious about the past, Farb's book offers an engaging and enlightening exploration of our shared human story.
"Laura Mars" flawed and deceptive

Ann Arbor Jazz Festival dates set

What's your favorite Hobbie?

What's your favorite Hobbie?

Onkyo Receives 5

Earn Leisure's original story. The story fell of a species, and people came to hear and admire them. The story was written by the author and followed by the narrator. The narrator then introduces the story and provides a brief summary of the story. The narrator then begins to read the story, beginning with the title. The story is about a group of animals who are trying to find their way back home. The animals are lost in the forest and are unable to find their way back to their home. The animals are helped by a wise old owl who leads them back home. The story is a heartwarming tale about the power of friendship and the ability to work together to overcome obstacles.

Onkyo Receives 5

EYES

What's your favorite Hobbie?

Onkyo Receives 5

What's your favorite Hobbie?

What's your favorite Hobbie?

What's your favorite Hobbie?

A N A R M Y  R E M E M B E R

Onkyo Receives 5

What's your favorite Hobbie?

What's your favorite Hobbie?

What's your favorite Hobbie?
MOST PRECIOUS EVENT OF THE YEAR

Water ski nationals at Brighton

BY MIKE KLOCKE

Dale McCourt
to challenge ruling

Jackson, Mich. - The upcoming season promises to be a good year for Michigan State University basketball under MSU head coach Jud Heathcote.

"We're going to be a good team," Heathcote said. "We have some good players coming back and some good freshmen coming in." Heathcote is excited about the prospects for the team.

Dale McCourt, 25, has been hired as an assistant coach at Michigan State University. McCourt, who played for the Spartans from 1991 to 1994, has been serving as an assistant coach at the University of Central Florida since 2014.

"I'm excited to be back at MSU," McCourt said. "I feel like I have a lot to offer the team and I'm looking forward to working with Jud and the other coaches." McCourt played shooting guard and point guard during his time at MSU and was a three-time All-Big Ten selection.

Heathcote said McCourt will bring "a lot of energy and enthusiasm" to the team. "He's a great young man and we're excited to have him on board," Heathcote said.

MCCOY'S

There's plenty of "Action at Jackson"

Jackson, Mich. - The upcoming season promises to be a good year for Michigan State University basketball under MSU head coach Jud Heathcote.

"We're going to be a good team," Heathcote said. "We have some good players coming back and some good freshmen coming in." Heathcote is excited about the prospects for the team.

Dale McCourt, 25, has been hired as an assistant coach at Michigan State University. McCourt, who played for the Spartans from 1991 to 1994, has been serving as an assistant coach at the University of Central Florida since 2014.

"I'm excited to be back at MSU," McCourt said. "I feel like I have a lot to offer the team and I'm looking forward to working with Jud and the other coaches." McCourt played shooting guard and point guard during his time at MSU and was a three-time All-Big Ten selection.

Heathcote said McCourt will bring "a lot of energy and enthusiasm" to the team. "He's a great young man and we're excited to have him on board," Heathcote said.

With one year of NCAA probation left, MSU will contend for Big Ten crown

BY MIKE KLOCKE

Cherry Hill, N.J. - Michigan State University basketball is one of the most successful programs in the Big Ten Conference. With one year of NCAA probation left, the Spartans are ready to compete for the Big Ten title.

"We're going to be a good team," Jud Heathcote said. "We have some good players coming back and some good freshmen coming in." Heathcote is excited about the prospects for the team.

Dale McCourt, 25, has been hired as an assistant coach at Michigan State University. McCourt, who played for the Spartans from 1991 to 1994, has been serving as an assistant coach at the University of Central Florida since 2014.

"I'm excited to be back at MSU," McCourt said. "I feel like I have a lot to offer the team and I'm looking forward to working with Jud and the other coaches." McCourt played shooting guard and point guard during his time at MSU and was a three-time All-Big Ten selection.

Heathcote said McCourt will bring "a lot of energy and enthusiasm" to the team. "He's a great young man and we're excited to have him on board," Heathcote said.

MCCOY'S

There's plenty of "Action at Jackson"

Jackson, Mich. - The upcoming season promises to be a good year for Michigan State University basketball under MSU head coach Jud Heathcote.

"We're going to be a good team," Heathcote said. "We have some good players coming back and some good freshmen coming in." Heathcote is excited about the prospects for the team.

Dale McCourt, 25, has been hired as an assistant coach at Michigan State University. McCourt, who played for the Spartans from 1991 to 1994, has been serving as an assistant coach at the University of Central Florida since 2014.

"I'm excited to be back at MSU," McCourt said. "I feel like I have a lot to offer the team and I'm looking forward to working with Jud and the other coaches." McCourt played shooting guard and point guard during his time at MSU and was a three-time All-Big Ten selection.

Heathcote said McCourt will bring "a lot of energy and enthusiasm" to the team. "He's a great young man and we're excited to have him on board," Heathcote said.

With one year of NCAA probation left, MSU will contend for Big Ten crown

BY MIKE KLOCKE

Cherry Hill, N.J. - Michigan State University basketball is one of the most successful programs in the Big Ten Conference. With one year of NCAA probation left, the Spartans are ready to compete for the Big Ten title.

"We're going to be a good team," Jud Heathcote said. "We have some good players coming back and some good freshmen coming in." Heathcote is excited about the prospects for the team.

Dale McCourt, 25, has been hired as an assistant coach at Michigan State University. McCourt, who played for the Spartans from 1991 to 1994, has been serving as an assistant coach at the University of Central Florida since 2014.

"I'm excited to be back at MSU," McCourt said. "I feel like I have a lot to offer the team and I'm looking forward to working with Jud and the other coaches." McCourt played shooting guard and point guard during his time at MSU and was a three-time All-Big Ten selection.

Heathcote said McCourt will bring "a lot of energy and enthusiasm" to the team. "He's a great young man and we're excited to have him on board," Heathcote said.
Students offer opinions

Michaeleppart from page 1:

Miami Herald writers say that the U.S. Senate should replace the amendment as a way to "make the Senate a better place for all Americans." The amendment would require senators to vote on every bill, regardless of whether they are able to attend the vote. This would allow senators to vote on bills even if they are not physically present in the Senate chamber. The amendment would also require senators to vote on bills in a timely manner, rather than allowing them to vote on bills later, when they are available, after a few days or weeks.

Kenyan president dies

continued from page 1:

After Kenyatta's death, his wife, Margaret, was named as his successor. Margaret Kenyatta was known for her support of women's rights and education. She continued to work for these causes after her husband's death.

U.S. job market booms

continued from page 5:

The U.S. unemployment rate fell to 3.5%, the lowest level in decades. This is attributed to the expansion of the economy and the increase in job opportunities.

CAMPUS PIZZA

50c OFF wheel in the center of "The Slack".

Golde Hawn Chevy Chase

Foul Play

The movie that the President says is his favorite. He has attended the premiere of the movie. The movie is about a woman whose job is to protect the President. She is a former Secret Service agent.

Welcome to L.A.

A movie directed by Rob Reiner. It is a comedy about a man who moves to Los Angeles to try to become a movie star. The movie has received mixed reviews.

Rainbow Ranch

The movie is about a group of children who are sent to a camp in the mountains to learn about nature. They have to survive a bear attack. The movie is a adventure film.

Rainbow Ranch

The movie is about a group of children who are sent to a camp in the mountains to learn about nature. They have to survive a bear attack. The movie is a adventure film.

Rainbow Ranch

The movie is about a group of children who are sent to a camp in the mountains to learn about nature. They have to survive a bear attack. The movie is a adventure film.
Growers go nuts at MSU gathering

BY REBECCA DICKIN

If the crop equation is right to the writing, a little more water than usual this week makes its way to the Northern Michigan area is likely to be the case.

The association has been looking to increase its membership over the years. Now the spring brings new opportunities to reach out to growers.

A new program will allow growers to participate in the program during the month of May. Other associates will be available to discuss and demonstrate new techniques and tools.

CLIP AND SAVE

Eberhard's

3301 E. Michigan $2.00 west Grand River. Oregon, N. W. 99¢
3 lbs. or more. Fresh ground hamburger.

COUPON AND A HALF

GIFT
given to manufacturers coupons. Extra coupons for 50¢ off MSU. Deadline end of May 1, 1978. Ask your local store for details.

Harlow.

The MSU College of Agricultural Medicine has a number of programs that are being offered to growers. The programs include:

1. The Nut Tree Program
2. The Nut Variety Program
3. The Nut Processing Program
4. The Nut Marketing Program

These programs are designed to help growers improve their crops and production.

DOUGLAS McKEEVER

Director of the Nut Tree Program

Michigan State University

Growers are encouraged to take advantage of these programs to improve their crops and production.

For more information, contact the Nut Tree Program at MSU.