

In the Limelight

MRS. VINCENT ASTOR'S SISTER, Miss Alice Huntington, through the efforts of her sister, is becoming one of the most popular debutantes of the season in New York. Mrs. Astor has undertaken the responsibility of seeing her younger sister through her debutante stage.

(Photograph from the International Film service.)

CARRANZA'S NIECE—Miss Aralia Carranza, niece of the first chief of the provisional government of Mexico, has finished her education at St. Mary's, Notre Dame, Ind., and is visiting friends in New York.

(Photograph by Campbell studios.)

RODOLFO CARUSO, elder son of the great tenor, has been called to the colors in Italy. He will not go into active service until after several months of training.

(Photograph from Bain News service.)

A NEW AIR HERO—Sub-Lieut. Nungessor, according to the late press reports, has brought down his twentieth German aeroplane. Nungessor is a new star in the French galaxy of duelists in the air.

(Photograph from Press Illustrating company.)