GEORGES CARPENTIER, THE FRENCH HEAVYWEIGHT BOXING CHAMPION, standing near his biplane in which he flies for the French army. Miss Anne Morgan, the philanthropical daughter of the late J. P. Morgan, is trying to arrange a contest between Carpentier and Jess Willard, to be staged in New York, for the benefit of the war sufferers of France. Carpentier was born in Lens, France, on Jan. 12, 1892. His height is 5 feet 11½ inches, and his weight 165 pounds. Since 1907 he has scored twenty-nine knockouts against such men as Moinereau, Wetinck, Dorgeville, Lampin, Young Werner, Jim Campbell, Jack Goldswain, Jim Sullivan, Bandsman Rice, Cyclone Smith, George Gunther, Bombardier Wells, Pat O'Keefe, and Ashley Williams. He has won thirty-seven decisions, fought five draws, lost eight decisions, and has been knocked out once, by Gloria, in six rounds in 1909.
