MOURNED TWICE AS DEAD—Harold Taylor, a private of the Cheshire regiment, in two official notifications on different dates from the British war office, was reported as killed in action. A letter from him dating later than the last time he was reported killed has caused his parents, who have twice mourned for him, to rejoice in his good health. (Photograph from the London Mirror.)

DON FABRIZIO COLONNA, son of Prince Colonna, mayor of Rome, in his uniform as an officer of Italian cavalry. Don Fabrizio is a member of one of the oldest and most aristocratic families in the world, another branch of which is the Abruzzis. He is known as one of the handsomest men in Italy. All of the Colonna family are in the war either in service or in Red Cross work. (Photograph copyright by Evs Barrett, Rome.)
