

IN THE LIMELIGHT

AFTER THE BIG BLOWOUT—Hungary's aristocracy assembled in a street in Budapest after the coronation of Franz Josef's successor as Karl IV. of Hungary on Dec. 30.

(Photograph copyright by International Film service.)

THE WINNER, Mrs. Jack Rutherford of New York, stepping out of her dinky racing car after taking first place in the "Red Bug" race on the sands at Palm Beach. The machines are constructed with motorcycle wheels, with a fifth wheel in the rear, to which the engine is attached.

(Photograph copyright by the International Film service.)

WIFE OF SWISS DIPLOMAT—Mrs. Charles Huebscher, wife of the counselor of the Swiss legation in Washington, is the daughter of W. K. Schoepf, the Cincinnati traction magnate. Her marriage last November was an event of international interest. As Switzerland has taken over German interests in this country, Mr. Huebscher will be a figure of prominence in diplomatic circles.

(Photograph from Underwood & Underwood.)