

Harrison says he will get 140,000 votes. Mr. Harlan has already counted up to the 85,000 mark. I believe you are all men of sagacity and veracity. The sum total of this vote is 500,000, which, being multiplied by five, will make the population of Chicago at the present time 2,500,000, will it not?"

"Yes, but I do not admit that any of the other candidates will get as many votes as I."

"What are these details to a member of the Two Million club? I am convinced the figures are correct. The great strides the city has made in the past are a guaranty that the word 'impossible' is not included in the proud lexicon."

Judge Sears waked with a start, and found the morning sun was beaming full in his eyes.

After dinner the Republican nominee went down to the Briggs House. He returned home by 5 o'clock and spent the evening quietly with his family.

It is probable that Mr. Harlan's campaign will end with a meeting which, his managers say, will be one of the most unique and remarkable events in the history of local politics. The plan is to have the candidate speak in the People's Institute on the West Side at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning. From the meeting the voters in the audience could go direct to the polls on their way to work. Another watch meeting will be held in the Twenty-fifth Ward, at which Mr. Harlan will speak at 8:30.

"The only thing that can possibly beat Mr. Harlan now," said Edward J. Piggott, Chairman of the Citizens' Organization committee, "is an illegal count. And that will hardly be tried. Our watchers will see to that. They are all volunteers and have been selected with great care, and we have every reason to believe that their presence will discourage any attempt at juggling the have been aware for two weeks that Democratic ward workers were following Mr. Harlan from one meeting place to another under orders from Robert E. Burke, but they did not breathe a word of it, being well content to let the independent candidate practice his oratorical arts on the supporters of Mr. Harrison.

The first thing this morning the mails will be crowded with copies of the labor and real estate circulars, which have been reprinted in THE TRIBUNE. In addition a circular addressed to German voters will be sent out.

Judge Sears will devote his time and attention this afternoon and tonight to the Thirty-fourth Ward. At 2 o'clock he will speak to laboringmen in West Pullman, and at 3 to the carshop workmen in Pullman. He goes to Roseland for his first evening meeting, where the citizens have arranged for a big demonstration. His next stop will be at Grand Crossing Turner Hall, thence to Towle's Hall, Woodlawn. At 9 o'clock he will speak at Rosalie Hall, Fifty-fifth street and Rosalie court.

It took four sturdy policemen to manage the crowd at the Grace Congregational Church last night, where Mr. Harlan was the attraction, and he spoke on the subject of "Our City Rulers." The church was packed to the doors. Mr. Harlan pleaded for purer and better municipal government, and was cheered. This morning at 8 Mr. Harlan takes a trip through the Stock-Yards to shake hands with the men.

Harlan meetings today are: Central Music Hall, noonday; Twelfth Street Turner Hall, Twelfth street, near Halsted; Princess Rink West Madison street, near Ogden avenue, 8 p. m.
