Harrison says he will not run. Mr. Harlan has correlated 140,000, 850,000, which, being multiplied by five, will make the population of Chicago at the present time 2,560,000, will not. "Yes, but I do not admit that any of the other candidates will get as many votes as I," says he.

What are the details of a member of the Two Million club? I am convinced that the great strides the city has made in the past are a guaranty that the word "impossible" is not included in the proud lexicon.

Judge Sears walked with a start, and found the morning sun was beaming full in his eyes.

After dinner the Republican nominees went down to the Driggs House. He returned home by 5 o'clock and spent the evening quietly with his family.

It is said yesterday that Judge Sears and the Republican campaign managers have been aware for two weeks that Democratic ward workers were following Mr. Harlan from one meeting place to another under orders from Robert E. Burke, but they did not breathe a word of it, being well content to let the independent candidate practice his oratorical arts on the supporters of Mr. Harrison.

The first thing this morning the maids will be crowded with copies of the labor and real estate circulars, which have been reprinted in The Tribune. In addition a circular addressed to German voters will be sent out.

Judge Sears will devote his time and attention this afternoon and tonight to the Thirty-fourth Ward. At 2 o'clock he will speak to laboring men in West Pullman, and at 8 to the car shop workers in Pullman. He goes to Roseland for his first evening meeting, where the citizens have arranged for a big demonstration. His next stop will be at Grand Crossing Turner Hall, thence to Towle's Hall, Woodlawn. At 8 o'clock he will speak at Roselle Hall, Fifty-fifth street and Roselle court.

one of the jokes just cracked by Mr. Harrison. And the audience has not yet made up its mind to whom the jokes belong.

Mr. Harrison made speeches at Columbia Hall, Forty-eighth and Paulina streets; Pitney's Hall, No. 490 South street; the "glorious weather, sir." From here Mr. Hoising went on to a hall in Taylor street, between Desplains and Clinton, which is in the Nineteenth Ward. Mr. Hoising allowed himself to be impressed
