The Old Year in Pictures

A young aviator stands on the tarmac with a biplane behind him. The background shows a crowd gathered at an airfield, and there are images of various aviation-related events and figures from the year.

The text mentions events such as the death of a prominent figure, the launch of a new ship, and various historical moments captured in photographs. The text is not legible due to the layout and size of the images.