

Read the SUNDAY TRIBUNE EVERY SUNDAY

for the Greatest Features in the Newspaper World!

YOU have lots of time to read on Sunday, and the Chicago Sunday Tribune is written and edited with your complete enjoyment of that time as its object.

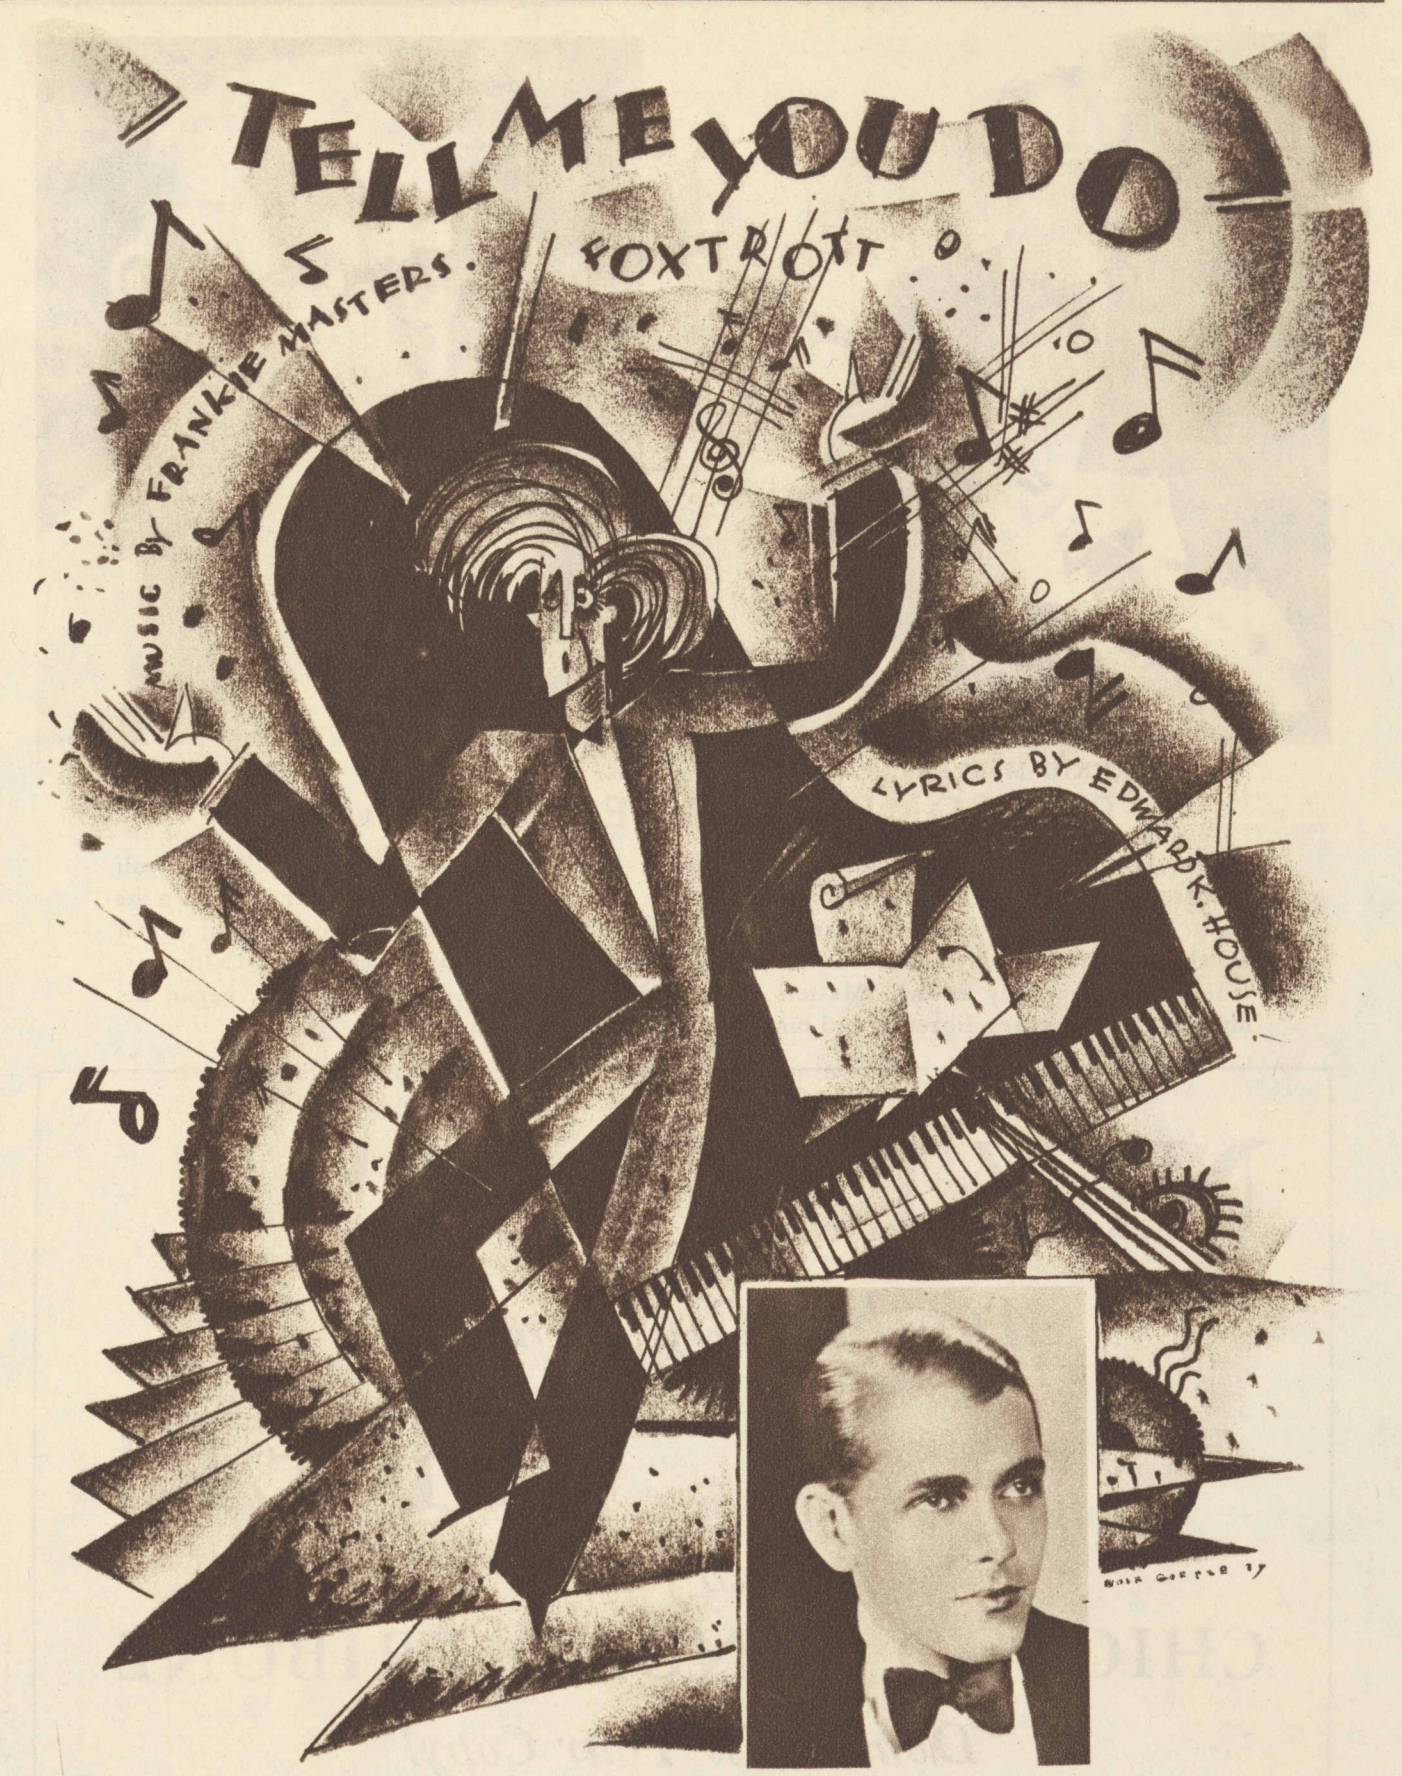

In your Sunday Tribune, you have the latest and most accurate news collected by the Tribune's international news-gathering organization; political affairs, sports, society, finance.

And you have features by experts; a collection that only the Tribune can give you! Westbrook Pegler's amusing notes on sporting events; Mac Tinee, premiere among America's movie critics; fiction by master-writers; an unequalled collection of comics in colors; the world's foremost group of women writers; and a rotogravure and colorotogravure section full of pictures that interest everyone, in sepia and beautiful, natural colors.

This is the great Sunday Tribune, giving you reading that you can enjoy to the full on the day when you have lots of time to read! Every Sunday, read the

Chicago Sunday Tribune

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

FRANKIE MASTERS

me I gave my heart,

thing where is the fun Fool - ing some one like

be so mean If I have been a play

Was it a dream? Was it a scheme? I did - n't think you'd

You told me that you loved me

REFRAIN

But I can't be - lieve what they say is true. I wish there is one thing now that I know.

now they say You've found some - one new from you dear The your words be few

Dreams were sweet - er each night Ev - ry day Skies are grey - er each day Could I hear