

YOU HAVE LOTS OF TIME TO READ ON SUNDAY

and the great Sunday Tribune brings you the Society Section, with all the news of Chicago, New York, and International society!

CHICAGO society walks these pages . . . New York's elite vie with those of the West in brilliance of events and prominence of persons . . . European notables and occurrences . . . club announcements . . . social work . . . art criticism . . . the Sunday Tribune brings you all these and other fascinating features in the Society Section on the day when you have lots of time to read!

Mme. X writes her weekly story of Chicago society and current events from her own interesting view-point. Mildred Jaklon gives a resumé of coming social events in Chicago. May Birkhead covers the European capitals, and other Tribune writers tell of American social centers—Washington, Miami, Biloxi.

In addition, you have discerning art criticism by Eleanor Jewett; the Rev. W. B. Norton reports the interesting events of the Chicago religious world, churches and clergymen, and a complete section gives you news of clubs in all parts of the city.

And this collection of society news and features is only one of the ten great sections which come to you every Sunday in your Sunday Tribune. Read all of them during your leisure time on Sunday. Today, and every Sunday, read the
