

PROFESSOR AND AMATEUR—Miss Elsie Mrs. Angier B. Duke a new dance step in the society entertainment, "La Bien Etre for our charities in New York. Mrs. Duke is Biddle of Philadelphia.
(Photograph copyright by Underwood & Underwood.)

LIEUT. ALAN CAMP-BELL, son of Mrs. Patrick Campbell, the English actress, has been awarded the military cross by the British government for taking a "tank" into action. Lieut. Campbell married Miss Helen Bull of Chicago. (Photograph by Central News Photo service.)

"LA REPUBLIQUE DE LA VICTOIRE"—This powerfully treated bust, representing the national ideal of the French republic, is by the French sculptor, L. Drivier. His Republic is armed for battle, her helmet is that of a soldier of France surrounded by a wreath of oaks and bearing for a crest the Gallic cock. Her countenance, although ravaged by grief, expresses the utmost resolution and determination.
(Photograph by Central News Photo service.)