

To acquaint the public more fully with the brave pioneers of aviation—the dauntless men and women who defied the elements that the air might be conquered—

The Chicago Tribune Today ANNOUNCES

"ACES of the AIR"

CAN YOU NAME THE FAMOUS FLYERS?

HERE IS SET NO. 1

Simply Cut These Pictures Apart And Name Them!

CLUE: The forehead in this picture is that of a pilot who, in June, 1927, made the first non-stop flight from New York to Germany with a passenger. The eyes and nose belong to a flyer who bore the rank of Commander in the U. S. Navy when he flew across the Atlantic and landed at Ver-sur-Mer, France. The mouth and chin are those of America's most famous flyer who, alone, was the first to fly from New York to Paris.

CLUE: The upper part of this picture shows the forehead of a flyer who won undying fame by flying from Spitzbergen to the North Pole and returns in 1926. Part 5 shows the eyes and nose of a former air mail pilot whose plane was christened the "Spirit of St. Louis." The mouth and chin in this picture belong to the pilot of the "Columbia," a plane which started in June, 1927, from New York for Berlin and landed near Eisleben, 108 miles from Berlin.

CLUE: Part 7 of this picture is the forehead of the famous American flyer who won undying fame for the first solo flight from New York to Paris. The central part of this picture depicts the eyes and nose of a pilot, the first letter of whose first and last names is the same. Part 9 shows the mouth and chin of a flyer whose last name contains but four letters and, though spelled differently, is pronounced the same as that of a winged creature.

TO HELP YOU!!

ALL The Flyers In This Game Are Among Those Pictured Below. Save This for Reference! Can You Pick Out Those Shown In Set No. 1?

OPEN TO MEN, WOMEN, BOYS and GIRLS!

No Subscriptions To Get! Just Name The Flyers! Here Are Complete Instructions!

THE history of the world is filled with the achievements of men and women who pioneered in new fields—who risked their lives and some of whom lost their lives in order that future generations might benefit.

Columbus—fearless Italian navigator, who sailed over the horizon and covered America's Balboa—dauntless Spanish explorer, who discovered the Pacific; Magellan—the brave Portuguese adventurer, the first to circumnavigate the globe! Hudson—pioneer English navigator, who tamed the Hudson River! Peary—daring explorer, who discovered the North Pole! These and hundreds of others have won undying fame through their exploits.

The world, today, is witnessing one of the most remarkable achievements in the history of mankind—the conquest of the air. Courageous men and women—pioneers in the field of aviation—have braved the elements to fly across the Atlantic, to fly across the Pacific, to fly across the Arctic and Antarctic, to fly around the world. Future generations will honor them just as we of today honor the great explorers of the past.

To acquaint the public more fully with the men and women who are making aviation history—such conquerors as Lindbergh, Byrd, Amberlin, Amelia Earhart, Ruth Elder, etc.—the Chicago Tribune today announces a new game—"Aces of the Air."

Men, women, boys and girls everywhere are invited to participate. Cut apart the composite pictures of the famous Flyers printed each week in the Chicago Sunday Tribune, put them together and name them.

In case you do not know all the famous Flyers, complete pictures of them will be printed in the Tribune to aid you. (See group at left.) The Chicago Tribune will pay $15,000.00 in Cash Prizes for the best answers. You can start with Set No. 1 shown above. Get Set No. 2 with next Sunday's Tribune. Hold all pictures until you have the complete set. Then send them in.

It is educational, patriotic, interesting! No subscriptions to get! Simply cut apart the pictures of the "Aces of the Air," put them together properly and name them.

Just follow these simple rules:

- Every Sunday for 14 Sundays, the Chicago Tribune will print a set of 3 composite pictures of "Aces of the Air." Each set of pictures, when cut apart and assembled properly, will make complete portraits of Flyers. The public is invited to put the pictures together and name them. The Chicago Tribune will pay $15,000.00 in Cash Prizes to the persons who send in the nearest correct and neatest complete sets of pictures. See Prize list at left.
- The composite pictures must be cut out, assembled and pasted or pinned together. Below each picture must be written the name of the Flyer pictured. A total of 42 pictures will be printed—3 each Sunday for 14 Sundays. IMPORTANT! Hold all pictures until you have the complete set of 42. Then send them to "Aces of the Air," the Chicago Tribune, Post Office Box 1559, Chicago, Illinois.
- This contest is open to everyone—men, women, boys and girls—except employees of the Chicago Tribune and their families. It does not matter where you live.
- You pay nothing. Just prove your skill.
- All pictures must be in by midnight 21 days after Set No. 14 is published. Each entry should be sent by First Class Mail, postage prepaid. Entries with insufficient postage will be returned by the Post Office Department. A letter must be sent with each entry giving the name and address of the sender and telling in 50 words or less which Flyer, in his or her opinion, has accomplished the greatest achievement for the benefit of the world, and why.

Contestants may send as many sets as they wish, but no contestant will be entitled to more than one prize. No entries will be returned.

6. The judging will be based upon the accuracy of putting the pictures together, correctly naming them, neatness, and merit of the accompanying letter. Elaborate entries will receive no greater consideration than the most simple entries. The prime requirement will be accuracy. Therefore any school boy or girl has the same chance to obtain a prize as any man or woman.

7. You need not purchase the Chicago Tribune to compete. You may copy or trace the pictures from the Tribune and assemble the pictures from the copies you have made. The Tribune may be examined at any of its Offices or at Public Libraries free of charge.

8. The judges will be a committee appointed by the Chicago Tribune. Entrants agree to accept their decision as final. In case of ties a duplicate award will be given each tying contestant.

Here is an opportunity for every man, woman, boy and girl to win a big cash award. $15,000.00 in cash prizes will be paid. It costs nothing to compete. Don't be afraid that you do not know all the famous "Aces of the Air." To help you in case you do not know them, the pictures of ALL the Flyers in this game are among those in the group at left. Cut this out and save it for reference.

Start this interesting new game today. Cut apart Set No. 1 shown above. Put them together. You will recognize the famous Aces quickly. Then name them. Get Set No. 2 with next Sunday's Tribune. Keep all pictures until you have the 14 sets complete. Then send them in.
